VOLUME XXVI.

PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1906.

NUMBER 14.

DEATHS.

—W. M. Ivy, aged 76 years, was found dead in bed Saturday night at his home near Russell Cave. He formerly lived on the Dr. Gregg farm near Hutchison, this county. Burial took place Monday at Old Union.

BIRTHS.

—A sweet and handsome little stranger arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. McCarthy yesterday to brighten the home of our genial and popular banker. The little visitor was given a cordial welcome by her two little sisters and three brothers. We congratulate this highly esteemed couple.

RELIGIOUS.

—Elder Carey E. Morgan will fill his pulpit Sunday morning and evening. His evening subject will be "How to Make Other People Miserable."

—Rev. Lon Robinson will fill his pulpit Sunday at the Methodist church. Morning subject, "The Garden of Gods." Night subject, "A Religion of Addition."

—Mr. George K. Pepper, aged 38, of Bourbon county, and Miss Nettie Bailey, aged 33, of Mason county, were married at the home of Mr. J. W. Bramel in Helena yesterday.

—Rev. F. W. Hinitt, D. D., president of Central University, will fill Dr. Rutherford's pulpit at the Second Presbyterian church Sunday. The public are cordially invited to attend. Dr. Hinitt is considered one of the finest pulpit orators in Kentucky.

MARRIAGES.

—Marriage license was issued Wednesday to Mr. Arthur Wilson, of Lexington, and Miss Daisy Wilson, of near Clintonville, this county.

—A marriage license was issued yesterday to James W. Chipley, of Fayette, and Miss Mary Cosby, of Harrison.

—Mr. L. H. DeBell and Miss Gertrude Lauckhart, both of Fayette, were united in marriage by Judge Denis Dundon in the County Clerk's office yesterday afternoon.

We found the following special in last night's Leader from Louisville in regard to the above couple:

"G. W. Lanckart, of Lexington, wired Chief of Police Gunther to arrest his daughter, Gertrude, aged fifteen, who eloped from Lexington with Samuel Debell, aged nineteen."

Both of the parties made affidavits, which are in the possession of Clerk Paton, that they were over twenty-one years of age.

THE TWO BOSS TRUSTS.

It is amusing to see the mighty sugar trust and the still mightier tobacco trust rallying at Washington to defeat the little Philippine tariff bill. This is a measure to allow all products from the Philippines to enter our ports free of duty with the exception of tobacco and sugar, which are to pay twenty-five per cent of the rates charged under our blessed Dingley tariff law. Our two trust octopi pretend to be terribly alarmed lest this favor to the Filipinos will completely ruin the sugar and tobacco monopolies which they control in this country. As a matter of fact the tobacco and sugar brought in from the Philippines would have no appreciable effect upon the markets for these commodities, and when our greedy trusts show alarm, it is as if a Bengal tiger should flee in terror at the approach of a four-weeks' old kitten. Incidentally, it should be remarked that hemp, which is the principal export of the Philippines, would come in free under the proposed law, and as it is the principal ingredient in making binder twine, American farmers would be benefited to that extent. But aside from all personal and selfish considerations the new bill should pass as a simple act of justice to a poverty stricken people who are as harmless and helpless as children. Having assumed control of these islands, without consulting their population, and deprived them of certain markets which they previously enjoyed, it is certainly as little as we can do to allow them free access to our markets and a half chance to support themselves by such trade as this policy will procure for them.

LATE FRANKFORT NEWS.

The following new bills were offered in the Senate at Frankfort yesterday: A bill authorizing counties owning turnpikes to erect toll gate by vote of the people and collect tolls.

Act creating the county of Beckham out of parts of Breckinridge, Grayson, Ohio and Butler.

Act creating the office of official stenographer for Circuit Court districts and at salary of $1,000. The Spence bill, appropriating $2,000 to restore the Boone monument, passed unanimously.

The Linn bill, increasing the salary of the Governor's private secretary to $2,000, passed with only one vote against it.

The bill appropriating $35,000 to erect an agricultural building for A. and M. college, caused a long discussion. Senator Allen explained the need for the building. Senator Campbell thought all pupils, instead of four from each county, should have free tuition. Senator Spence complained that the bill had not been referred to the appropriation committee, and moved that it be so referred now. The motion was lost. The bill passed.

The committee on Kentucky statutes reported favorably on the anti-cigarette bill.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

The feet of men are not kept in the path of right by the light of brilliant thoughts alone.

The heretic hunter thinks that the cutting of many thistles will create at least a few roses.

Not he who has no weakness is the strong man, but he who makes them reserve his strength.

The best cure for the blues is to stop thinking of yourself and begin planning happiness for others.

How would the men who are going to heaven on their wives' religion look wearing their wives' wings?

A good many people find it easier to sing "I Am Thine, O Lord" when they have left their purses at home in another pocket.

It's not by being against many things that you save the world, but by being for a few things with all your fight.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Mann & Clark bought at Lexington one pair 4-year-old mules at $385; and some single mules from $130 to $165.

—George Wyatt, of near Paris, sold to Clarence Lebus, of Cynthiana, his crop of 14,000 pounds of tobacco at 10 1/2 cents.

—Mann & Clark sold to Harry B. Clay Tuesday a three-year-old mare mule at $190, also to same party a four-year-old walking horse at $150.

—T. F. Roche bought Tuesday a good delivery horse of Lawrence Vanhook for $85; also one G. K. Redmon for $90, and resold the last one to J. W. Larkin for $105.

—Silas E. Bedford sold Tuesday to J. H. Bell, of near Versailles, 136 acres on Stony Point and North Middletown pike, known as the Will Hedges farm, at about $115 per acre.

—Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold on Wednesday for W. F. Heathman, Administrator of Mrs. Mary Lary, her farm of 80 acres, near Clintonville, to A. L. Stevenson, at $82.50 per acre.

—Brent Bros. bought of Mrs. Berry 10 acres of hemp at $340 per 112 pounds; of Lafe Arbery 10 acres, yielding 1,250 pounds, for about an average of $60 per acre for the crop; of Shanklin & Son, 10 acres averaging 1,265 per acre.

—The James Bradley farm, seven miles from Lexington, on the Elkchester pike, comprising twenty-six acres, was sold Wednesday for $2,725 to C. C. Patrick, who owns the Highland Park stock farm, which adjoins his new purchase.

—C. B. Jarvis, a tenant, raised a crop of tobacco on 15 acres of B. T. Wright's land near Sta psburg, which averaged 1,700 pounds to the acre. He has just sold his crop to the American Tobacco Company at $8.35 per acre, realizing nearly twice as much for the crop as the value of the land on which it was grown.

—Considering the sterling worth of Kaffer corn as a feed for horses, cattle and poultry, it is a wonder that more of it is not raised in this section of the State.

In some counties in Western Kentucky large quantities have been raised with satisfactory results. It can be grown on poor land and will make a good yield even in the driest season. Farmers are pleased with results.

The farmers and breeders are having their innings just now. Mules are selling almost on a par with automobiles, and good horses are worth almost any price that the owner's conscience will allow him to take. These things being true there is sure to be much activity in breeding circles, and the owner of a good jack or stallion should take steps to bring the merits of the animal to the knowledge of the prospective breeders. The News is prepared to help him. Its advertising columns are read in almost every home in the county and in many of the surrounding counties. The office is also supplied with a fine line of type and everything in the line of cards, folders, etc., and at very moderate prices.
