Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the "friendlier whites," and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

SOME FEATURES OF UNIT BILL.

All counties, with the exception of those containing cities of the first four classes, must vote as units on the local option questions.

Cities of four classes and the counties outside these cities made separate units.

If a county votes "dry," no precinct in that county can be "wet."

On the other hand if a county votes "wet," any precinct in that county, which previous to the election was "dry," shall remain "dry."

The same rule applies as well to the cities of the four classes.

There are at present 119 counties in the State. Sixty-eight are local option. The temperance element claims that under the bill passed Thursday twenty-seven more will be added to their column, and that they have a great chance to carry other units.

MRS. FISKE.

America's Peerless Actress Comes to Capitol Theatre, Frankfort, Wednesday, March 14th.

The engagement of Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan Company in "Leah Kleschna," at the Capitol Theatre, at Frankfort, on Wednesday, March 14, should not be missed by any lover of a fine play, brilliantly acted. For five months at the Manhattan Theatre, New York, last season, and during a supplementary engagement this year, "Leah Kleschna" for its own merit and for its interpretation, was the talk of the metropolis. The same cast that acted with her will appear at Frankfort. "Leah Kleschna" is a singularly powerful drama of modern life, with scenes laid in Paris and near Neustadt, Austria. At the present time Mrs. Fiske is seen in a role that is different from any she has hitherto played. The daughter of a noted criminal, Leah has been trained by him as his assistant in thefts of uncommon dimension and adroitness. One of these thefts brings her face to face with a man—the most discussed Frenchman of the hour—whom she has admired from afar. He does not arrest her, upbraid her, or laugh at her. He is not even sentimental over her. He simply understands her as no one has and sympathetically rouses the other and better woman that is in her. The girl leaves her father and his associates and goes back to the lettuce fields where her mother has labored—there to find peace. There, too, she finds happiness, when the man who has awakened her moral sense comes to take her to his home. It is a fresh idea for a play and worthy of Mrs. Fiske's intelligence. Mrs. Fiske gives a superb study of the girl's automatically criminal nature and denotes admirably the change that comes with her moral awakening. The psychological as well as the dramatic side of the character is fully realized and Mrs. Fiske's triumph as Leah has been complete. This personal success is all the more notable since it shines out among the brilliant performances of her associates in the East. No star within memory has been surrounded by such a group of players as John Mason, George Arias, Frederic de Belleville, William B. Mack, Haas Bogel, Charles Baesaer, John Emerson, Charles Torr, Frank Eastwood, Emily Stevens, Belle Bohn, Fernanda Elisou, Mary Madden and Martha Roberts are others in the cast.

The play was staged under the direction of Mrs. Fiske, whose methods dominate every scene. The settings of the first and fourth acts show the home of the Kleschnas, typical Paris lodgings. The second and third acts picture Sylvaine's mansion at Saint Cloud. This scene is richly appointed library, pure French renaissance in architecture and furnishings. The fifth act, most important of the play from a scenic standpoint, reveals a vista of lettuce fields, steeped in sunshine, with the foreground shaded by a grove of apple trees.

Seat sale opens at Frankfort Monday, March 12. Prices—Lower floor, $2.00; Balcony, $1.50; Gallery, $1.00. Mail orders addressed to D. J. McNamara, manager Capitol Theatre, Frankfort, Ky., will be considered in order of receipt. Special train for Paris patrons has been secured and returning will leave immediately after the performance. One fare for round trip on F. & C. R. R., good returning on regular train Thursday, March 15.

A GROWING TOWN.

The Danville Advocate says: "Somerset is beginning to put on metropolitan airs, and she has a right to. Ground has been broken for a street car line, magnificent railroad shops, costing something like $200,000, have about been completed, concrete sidewalks now extend almost over the entire town, and there is aborad a progressive spirit that insures a rapid and permanent growth. The capital of Pulaski and the metropolis of the mountains threatens to run away from all the neighboring towns."

TO SETTLE A BET.

"Once, when I was a reporter," said David Belasco at a dinner, "I spent two days with a gang of tramps in order to get material for an article on tramp life.

"These tramp are a merry lot. They had as many stories to tell as the end man of a minstrel show.

"The excellent mince pie we had just been eating reminds me of a mince pie episode told by one of the wanderers.

"He said that a friend of his, one cold day in January, knocked at the kitchen door of a farmhouse.

"Well," said the farmer's wife. "You hear again?"

"Yes, ma'am," said the tramp respectfully. "I want to know ma'am, if you will be kind enough to give me the recipe for that mince pie that I had here yesterday?" "Well, the idea," cried the farmer's wife. "Land sakes man, what do you want that recipe for?"

"To settle a bet," replied the tramp. "My pardner says you use three cups of Portland cement to one of molasses, but I claim it's only two and a half."
