MATRIMONIAL.

SWEENEY—HAMILTON.

The ceremony uniting in holy bonds of matrimony Miss Margaret Sweeney and Mr. George Spalding Hamilton, of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, was impressively solemnized at the Christian church Wednesday evening. The marriage ceremony was said by the Rev. J. S. Sweeney, the bride's father, assisted by Rev. Zack Sweeney, of Indiana, an uncle of the bride, and Rev. Cerey E. Morgan, pastor of the church.

The handsome church was elaborately decorated in the wedding colors, green and white. The rostrum and choir loft were covered in white with ropes of Southern smilax draped on the railing and up and down the steps. The handsome palms and ferns furnished the decorations over the marble canopy and railing surrounding the organ completely hiding the organist and singers. Tall vases of bride's roses on pedestal added further beauty to the decorations.

Miss Sarah Grinnan rendered a program of beautiful wedding music.

At the appointed hour for the wedding, the first cords of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin heralded the approach of the wedding party. Just as the ushers, Dr. William Kenney Dudley and Mr. John W. Yerkes entered from the middle aisle, the officiating minister entered through the back hall over the baptistry and stood at the back on either side were grouped the wedding party.

First came Mr. William E. Sweeney, of Wyoming and Mr. Edwin Sweeney, followed by Mr. Carl V. Volrath and Mr. Edwin C. Spindler of Manitowac, Wisconsin. Then came singly the bridesmaids, Miss Jean McCloud, Miss Sue Buckner, Miss Amanda Yerkes and Miss Susan Lewellyn. The dame of honor, Mrs. John S. Sweeney, of Chicago, followed wearing her exquisite wedding gown of white crepe de chine with trimming of dutch lace. Mrs. Sweeney carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Miss Elsie Sweeney, maid of honor, came next followed by the dainty little ring bearer, Alma Louise Goldstein, wearing a fluffy frock of lace and muslin.

The bride then entered on the arm of her brother, Dr. John S. Sweeney, of Chicago, who gave her in marriage. The bridegroom on the arm of his best man, Mr. Edwin C. Spindler, of Manitowac, Wisconsin, met them at the altar.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of liberty satin trimmed in dutch lace. The long veil was caught up with a crown of orange blossoms and her jewels were pearls, gifts of the groom.

The bridesmaid's gowns were white chiffon over green satin and carried bouquets of green foliage.

Mrs. J. S. Sweeney, the bride's mother, was handsomely gowned in gray pompadour silk trimmed in bands of gray velvet.

Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, the groom's mother, wore an exquisite imported lace gown over liberty silk.

After the ceremony the bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride on Higgins avenue.

The bride is the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sweeney, and one of the brightest and happiest girls of the younger set. Her going away to her Northern home will be a loss to her friends as to her home.

Mr. Hamilton is a successful business man, of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, being associated in business with his father, Col. J. E. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left on the 10:30 train for a trip to Washington and New York.

Col. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton gave a very elaborate supper Tuesday at Crossdale's Cafe in honor of Miss Margaret Sweeney and Mr. G. S. Hamilton and bridal party. The guests present were Miss Sweeney, Miss Susan Lewellyn, Miss Elsie Sweeney (Indiana), Sue Buckner, Amanda Yerkes, Jean McCloud, Mr. William Sweeney, Mr. Edwin Sweeney, Dr. William Kenney Dudley, Mr. James Buckner, Mr. Henry May.

JOHNSON—CHANDLER.

A brilliant wedding was that of Miss Wilhurst Johnson and Mr. Virgil Dawson Chandler, of Miami, Florida, which occurred at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock.

The church was attractive in its decorations of yellow and white chrysanthemums, palms and ferns. The wedding colors were yellow and white and were tastily carried out in every detail.

The church was darkened and softly illuminated with many candles and electric lights. While the guests were arriving, Miss Mayme Conway, a cousin of the bride gave several beautiful selections on the organ. Miss Belle Taylor Judy sang several solos.

The bridal chorus from Lohengrin heralded the approach of the bridal party. Entering first were little Misses Patsy Clark and Anna Wilson wearing yellow gowns of muslin and lace, carrying baskets of yellow roses and smilax. Following these came Misses Catherine Wilson and Mayme Stevens wearing white gowns of Persian lawn and lace, carrying baskets of white roses. Then came the ushers, Mr. Harold Johnson and Mr. John Clark. Then came the bridesmaid, Miss Dell Puttman, of Cincinnati. The dame of honor, Mrs. E. L. Stevens, alone, gowned in yellow silk with lace trimming, wearing a yellow picture hat, preceded the bride.

Miss Susie Johnson was maid of honor. She was beautifully gowned in white silk with lace trimming. The bride came in on the arm of the groom, Mr. Chandler. Her wedding gown was of white dutch lace with trimming of old lace and pearls. The bride veil was caught up with orange-blossoms and her bouquet was of bride's roses.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. W. H. H. Johnson, and before his retirement from business was one of the wealthiest and most prominent men of Bourbon county. Miss Johnson is a beautiful young woman of many attractions of mind and will be missed by a host of friends when she goes to her far Southern home.

BUZZARD—TAPP.

Miss Sallie Buzzard and Mr. Wm. Tapp, both of Harrison county, were united in matrimony, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the residence of the officiating minister, Elder Carey E. Morgan.

DARNALL—MARTIN.

Rev. J. P. Strother went to Carlisle Wednesday, where he officiated at the wedding of his niece Miss Mabel Darnall to Mr. J. W. Martin. The wedding took place at high-noon at the residence of the mother of the bride.

The Harmony Concert Co. has been secured by the alumnae of the M. F. C. to give a concert at the opera house on Saturday evening Nov. 2. This is a company of a high order and the alumnae is to be congratulated for securing them. This could not have been done had it not been they had an off-night. It is a quartette of ladies made up of artists. They should be greeted with a full house, remember the proceeds are to be used in furnishing the new M. F. C. See hand bills for further particulars. Seats go on sale today at opera house drug store. Reserved seats 50 cents. General admission 25 cents.

The work of taking down the walls and clearing away the debris of the old M. F. C. began Tuesday morning. A request was sent out last week by the building committee asking everybody to give Tuesday and Wednesday as special labor days for this work. People responded nicely and at an early hour Tuesday morning the work was underway. The representative people were there in person or hired someone to do the work for them, dynamiting walls, scraping and piling brick were prosecuted vigorously for two days, and by sundown Wednesday evening there was not a vestige of the old building left. The alumnae of the college served a bountiful dinner both days on the campus. Most of the brick are good and will be used in the new structure just as soon as plans, specifications and contract can be awarded.

Rev. T. W. Watts, through his good sermons, pleasing manner and argeable company, has won the highest esteem of our people and especially those who are matrimonially inclined, within the last week. He has sent two couples on their way rejoicing and they are at least for the present, very grateful to him, and to them he is the only preacher. On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He united in marriage Miss Dora Lee Dwelly to Mr. Richard Bishop at the home of Mr. Madoes. Tuesday at 4 p. m. he united Miss Nettie Hall, of Ruddles Mills, and Mrs. J. W. Butler, of Paris.

Big Suit Compromised—Mrs. Brennan Gets $85,000.

The suit of W. C. Jackson, administrator of Mrs. Sarah Hamilton, deceased, against the Hamilton Farm Company in the Montgomery Circuit Court, asking for a dissolution of the company and settlement of its affairs, has just been compromised and the suit will be dismissed. The suit was brought by Mr. Jackson because of a disagreement between George G. and J. Carroll Hamilton and their sister, Mrs. J. M. Brennan, of Paris, charges of mismanagement having been made against the Messrs. Hamilton, who were the company's managers.

Under the terms of the settlement or compromise, Mrs. Brennan retires from the company and her brothers settle the estate of their mother with Mrs. Brennan.

She is given 696 acres of land, 470 in Bourbon, 100 in Mason and 125 in Montgomery county and the Messrs. Hamilton pay her $10,000 in cash, making her full share in her mother's estate. The lands are given Mrs. Brennan free of encumbrance.

The Messrs. Hamilton assume all liabilities of the company, if there be any, and the noted Hamilton Farm Company will still continue under its present management. The settlement of the suit prevents long litigation and possibly family estrangement. The amount Mrs. Brennan secures is equal to $85,000 in money.

Position Anomalous.

The payment by Judge Hargis of a portion of the judgment in the Marcum damage suit places him in the anomalous position of paying for complicity in a murder of which the criminal courts have said he is not guilty. There has been a miscarriage of justice somewhere.
