Mr. A. C. Adair, for thirty six years the popular manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city, has resigned on account of ill health.

Bessie Hodges, of Jacksonville, Florida.
The salary of this office was formerly $15 a month and has been cut by this corporation from time to time until it is now only forty dollars a month and the manager furnishes his lustration of the trusts methods of doing business.

ing lot free. Free hand concert. Free

The petition recites that he was married in Maysville, Ky., September 6, 1883, and that after a wedded life of twenty years his wife abandoned him and that her present whereabouts is unknown.
The suit is the result of a recent sale of the Short property, in this city, it being necessary in order to perfect the title that the wife be either found, or a decree of divorce be entered as of record.

Tag Hotel and Cafe.
Mr. O. H. Peddicord has opened a tag cafe and hotel, in the Howard property, adjoining the Windsor hotel.
All of the three floors of this building has been renovated, painted and repapered, with new furniture in each of the fifteen rooms in building, with baths and toilets on each floor. The cafe department is run on the modern and up-to-date methods. Special attention will be given to stag dinners and suppers. The very best service that can be had will be given to this department.
A hotel of this kind has long been needed in Paris, and Mr. Peddicord will give all of his energies in making his place the most attractive hostelry in Central Kentucky for the travelling man.
Mr. Peddicord's efforts to give Paris an up-to-date hotel should be ap-do not be done and a large patron-wise and accommodating gentleman.
