WALTER A. WOOD

NEW CENTURY BINDER

This binder has a world-wide reputation. In every grain growing country under the Sun it is said to be the best yet by all who use it or see it work. The features that appeal most to its users are:—lightness of draft; handiness of operation; durability of construction; ability to do perfect work in any kind of grain; accuracy and sure work of knottor; absence of neck weight and side draft. The New Century is the latest type of binder, made by the people who gave the world its first successful binder, and now give it its most successful one—a binder that

WALTER A. WOOD MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1853 it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. That same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct underdraft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because genuine underdraft is possible only with the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are: the easiest running; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair and longest lived. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

Union of Baptists and Disciples of Christ.

The Rev. I. J. Spencer, pastor of the Central Christian church, of Lexington (or Disciples of Christ, the term used by the members of this denomination) will accept an invitation to address the National Baptist Congress, to be held in Chicago November 10 to 12, upon the subject, "What Definite Steps Should be Immediately Taken Toward the Union of Baptists, Free Baptists and Disciples of Christ." Other speakers representing the first two denominations also will discuss the topic, and it is expected that the discussion will result in a long stride toward the union of the two denominations—Baptists and Disciples of Christ, the first steps toward which were taken two years ago.

At the National Congress of Disciples, in Indianapolis, in March, 1906, by invitation Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Louisville, and Mr. Spencer discussed the topic: "What Does the New Testament Teach Concerning the Doctrine of the Remission of Sins." One session of the congress was given entirely to the address. The similarity of the teachings of the denominations on vital points aroused great enthusiasm. This gave rise to the suggestion that through committees the two denominations might learn as exactly as possible just what are their doctrinal differences. Acting upon the suggestion, the congress appointed a committee of ten, with Mr. Spencer chairman, and invited the appointment of a committee of equal number from the Baptists, with Dr. Mullins chairman. Since that time the heads of committees have held frequent conference and consultations.

The original drafts of the statements have been completed and are before the members of the committee for suggestions. When finally revised these statements will be given wide publicity through the religious press, and in the course of time will come before the congress of the denominations. Neither of the denominations has a governing ecclesiastical body, each congregation being a separate authoritative unit. Consequently these committees cannot act authoritatively for their respective denominations, and their reports will contain no recommendation. Each will set forth the doctrinal teaching of that denomination. The rough drafts show that they are surprisingly alike. When this is known through publication the belief is held that in a spirit of fraternity and desire for unity the denominations will waive minor differences and merge congregations, acting as individuals, yet probably in concert, pursuant to a recommendation from their congresses. In Western Canada Disciples and Baptists have already united, are using churches in common and share things alike.
