From Fish-Hook to Fireside.
 Holland has set engineers to work to pump out the water of the famous Zuyder Zee and turn it into dry land. When this work is accomplished there will rise where 4,000 fishermen now sink their nets farms and homes for 50,000 Dutchmen.

Havana vs. Havana.
 "Havana is spelt with a 'B' on genuine imported cigar boxes and with a 'V' in the case of home-made cigars," explained a tobaccoist presented a Cardiff recently, for selling British cigars as Havanas. The magistrat agreed that the custom prevailed and inflicted a nominal fine.—London Daily Mail.

For Mending China.
 For mending china the white of an egg and pulverized unslaked lime is a strong cement. Dip a small brush in to the egg white, slightly beat and brush the edges to be joined. Then quickly dust one edge with a little of the lime and place the edges together accurately; hold in place firmly for a couple of minutes, then set aside to dry. This must be done quickly.

Parsecs.
 The Parsecs refuse to burn or bury the bodies of their dead because they consider a dead body impure, and they will not suffer themselves to desile any of the elements. Hence, their "Towers of Silence," 50 or 60 feet in height, on which the bodies of the dead are left to be devoured by the vultures; the bones afterward being thrown into a receptacle and covered with charcoal.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life and enjoyment of life to thousands: men, women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food when you hate it and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

Live with Others.
 Life's best school is living with people. It is there we learn our best lessons. Some one says: "It is better to live with others, even at the cost of considerable jarring and friction, than to live in undisturbed quiet alone."

Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Save the Soot.
 A cheap way to keep house plants free from disease is to put a bag of soot in a pail of water, let the contents settle and use a very weak solution for watering plants. Soot is a valuable fungicide.

A Traveling Man's Experience.
 "I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well-known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out found her very ill with cramp colic her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them and with a death like expression. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car."
