Complaint Against L. & N.

Secretary B. F. Adcock, of the Paris Commercial Club, has filed complaint with the State Railroad Commission to the effect that the accommodations for the traveling public at the passenger depot at Paris are inadequate in many ways.

The complaint states that as many as five passenger trains arrive and depart at the same hour daily and that passengers from the Maysville branch of the road are compelled to climb through two other trains before they can reach the one they desire to board. The commission has notified Superintendent W. H. Anderson of the L. & N., of the complaint and that the matter would be fully investigated at once.

A big new depot with sheds for the trains to run into would be something that Paris has needed for so these many years. However, it is due to the officials of the L. & N. to state that they have been wanting to build a new depot for several years, and the question as to location and securing the proper site is a difficult one to solve.

For several years the road has been purchasing property along the line from Winchester pike to the Clintonville pike, and we think they will give the necessary improvements just so soon as certain obstacles can be removed, which are absolutely necessary before any steps can be taken in this matter.

Loss to Commission Merchants.

The fact that the sale of all game birds has been prohibited in the State of Ohio means a great loss to the commission merchants, as Cincinnati alone handled thousands of the birds last year. Rabbits, however, are saleable in the State.

Aged Criminal.

Tottering from old age and his hair snowy white, E. Burns, aged 81 years, sentenced in Boyle county to the Kentucky penitentiary for four years for forgery was taken to the penitentiary Friday to begin his term. He worked a green goods game on a Boyle county farmer, securing $2,000 he had in bank. He is the oldest man ever admitted to the prison.

In Their Own States.

The opening of the week found both Taft and Bryan in their own States. For both there have been arranged strenuous trips covering the first three days of the week. Bryan's programme is said to call for quite fifty speeches in Eastern and Central Nebraska, and he will then proceed to Illinois and Indiana. Taft will speak in big and small places in Ohio, in halls and at open-air meetings from trains and on balconies on the same days that Mr. Bryan is addressing his fellow-Nebraskans. The remainder of the week will be spent by Mr. Taft in the South.

Hogs Lead Cattle in Price.

Taking the average price of all fat hogs and all the fat steers sold on the Chicago market for the past 24 years, according to the Department of Agriculture, it has been found that the hogs have brought a higher price per pound. It will probably be accepted without argument that less food is required to make a pound of gain on hogs than on cattle. As a rule, therefore, the hog end of the cattle feeding operation is more profitable than the cattle end. This, however, exempts range-grown cattle.

DEATHS.

Mrs. G. Bettie Lyle quietly and peacefully entered into eternal sleep at her home on Second street, at 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Lyle had been an invalid for a number of years, and had borne her sufferings without a murmur, like the noble Christian woman she was. She was a beautiful character and it can truly be said that "no one knew her but to love her." She was one who it may be said is not dead, for her simply pure and sweet Christian life will ever live in her family circle and in the memory of all her acquaintances. Her passing away is but the entering into a peaceful, restful sleep, the just reward that is assured to all that keep the faith like this lovely Christian woman did.

Mrs. Lyle was in her 79th year. She was the widow of the late Dr. John A. Lyle, who was during his life a much beloved physician in this community.

She was the next to the last surviving granddaughter of Governor James Garrard, of Kentucky, who was Governor from 1796 to 1804, and who resided at "Mt. Lebanon," this county. Her surviving sister is Mrs. Nellie Holt, of near this city, who celebrated her 84th birthday on Friday last.

Mrs. Lyle was the eldest living member of the Presbyterian church. She is survived by two sons, William Lyle and John Lyle, and one daughter, Miss Annie Lyle.

The funeral services were held from the residence Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Jas. S. Malone, of the First Presbyterian church. Burial in the family lot in Paris cemetery.

$20,000 Campaign Contribution.

Timothy L. Woodruff, Republican State Chairman of New York, Saturday said that Andrew Carnegie had contributed $20,000 to the Republican campaign fund. The only other contributor of $1,000 or over, according to Mr. Woodruff, is Mrs. Russell Sage, who gave $1,000.

The line of fancy vests shown by J. W. Davis & Co. this season are very attractive.

Democratic Campaign Fund.

The Democratic National Committee on October 15 will announce the contributions that have been made to the campaign fund and the names of the contributors. According to statements given out Saturday in New York the amount so far received is something over $220,000.
