About The Only Money

The average man saves is what he puts into life insurance—And this kind of saving not only makes ample provision for his own old age—
But provides immediate protection to family and business interests if he should die—

There is an Equitable Policy to meet every requirement.

The Un - fortunate Possession.
There is nothing which so much makes for the misery not only of its possessor but of all who are so unfortunate as to be intimately associated with him or with her as an ungoverned and unreasonable temper.

Not Wholly in Vain.
Uncle Allen Sparks was returning home from the funeral of an acquaintance. "Well," he said, brightening visibly after a period of profound thought, "his life was a useful one, after all. He once planted a tree."

Three "R's" for the Worker.
The three "R's" of the worker should be Regularity, Rest and Recreation. Spasmodic habits, never getting up, and not knowing how a man to play have killed more business women than all their hard work.
