Fresh fish and oysters at Proctor's.

Good coffee is necessary for every home. The best always pays. Hence you want to try the famous Heekin brand sold only by LOUIS VIMONT.

Chautauqua, N. Y., Assembly Herald says: "Mr. Chase is a pleasant speaker at once brilliant and thoughtful. His lecture abounded in humor, anecdotes and illustration."

Dr. W. M. Miller sold on Thursday a new house on Main street nearly completed, to Mrs. Williams of Irvine. The house is rented for one year to Mr. A. T. Moffitt, who will occupy it in a few days.

The season for garden seed of all kind is now on. We have the best; make your purchase early while you have the most to select from. We can supply anything you want in this line. LOUIS VIMONT.

The colored grocery known as the people's grocery was broken into Saturday night. The thieves entering the back window, a sack of flour, some tobacco and candy were all that was taken. It is supposed the thieves were frightened away before they got through their work.

The young men gave an impromptu dance Friday evening at the opera house in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Garret Jefferson and Miss Maria Worthington. The occasion was a delightful one and there were just enough present to make it comfortable on the floor. The music was furnished by the Elks' orchestra, of Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Jefferson leave today for Friona, Texas, to make their future home. Mr. Jefferson purchased a farm there several weeks ago. They are good citizens with a multitude of friends. We regret to give them up. We commend them to the good people of the Lone Star State and trust in a few years they may return to their old Kentucky home with their labors amply rewarded and pockets full of gold to abide with us until death do us part.

Third number of the Lyceum Thursday evening, March 11, at opera house, 8 o'clock. Mattison Wilbur Chase, of Chicago, the silver-tongued orator of the world will deliver his famous lecture, "Why or the Problem of Life." Dr. Chase comes to us highly recommended and is backed by the best credentials of press, clergymen, attorneys, critics and college professors. Tickets go on sale Monday after noon at the drug store of Smith & Wadell. Reserved seats 50 cents; general admission 35 cents.

The recital given at M. M. I. Saturday evening was one of the pleasant events of the season, the large drill hall was well filled and all did their work creditably. Misses Louise Cray and Martha Smith were the stars of the evening. Cadets Seshons and Baker did their stage work with the nicety of professionals. The piano solo of Cadet Rankin was played with a brilliancy and dash that is rarely seen in amateurs. The chorus class showed they had been well trained. The violin solo by Miss Cray, furnished much for a far thought and her rendition of that classical number was exquisite for one of her years and experience. The orchestra was good and hard to realize that it is made up for a material, gathered from all points of the campus last autumn, without any previous musical ability. The entire work reflected great credit on their instructors, Miss Carpenter, Mrs. Johnson and Prof. Frost, who have labored so patiently and successfully.

Dr. C. B. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Bryan and Mrs. C. M. Best left Sunday for a two weeks sojourn at Martinsville, Ind.

Miss Mary Belle Taylor, of Rochester, N. Y., who has been spending the winter in Florida, arrived Friday as the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. S. Sanders.

Our stock of lumber, shingles and other building material is large and we challenge competition when quality and service are considered. Don't fail to call on us if you contemplate building. PEALE COLLIER & CO.

Mr. Charles Agnew, who died at his home in Cincinnati, Tuesday was buried here Thursday afternoon. The remains were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Agnes Agnew, sister, Miss Mary Agnew and three brothers, Mr. Harry Agnew, of Cincinnati, Mr. Sam Agnew, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. James Agnew, of Maysville. Mr. Agnew resided here when quite a small boy. He had been in failing health about two years.

Mr. James Cracraft and family have moved to the property of Booth & Judy, lately vacated by Wm. Parker and family. Mr. Ora Rankin and family moved from Miller flat to the property of James Cracraft. Mr. Insko and family moved from Mason county to the rooms lately vacated by Mr. Ora Rankin and family in Miller flat. Mrs. Powell and family moved Thursday from apartments in Miller flat to the property of Dr. W. M. Miller lately vacated by Mr. Flaughner and family. Mr. Henry Sheeler and family moved Friday from the Christian parsonage to the apartments in Miller flat vacated by Mrs. Powell and family. Mr. J. J. Peed and family moved Monday into the W. G. McClintock residence, recently purchased by Mr. Claude Vimont and family moved Friday from the property of Mr. C. T. Darnell to his handsome home just completed. Mr. Lawrence Thorn and family moved Monday from the property of Mr. A. J. Lamb to that of the Christian church parsonage vacated by Mr. Henry Sheeler and family.

Charleston, S. C., News and Courier says: "Dr. Chase is a brilliant speaker. His periods are pointed and never fail of the mark. He does not allow his hearers to become weary with dull arguments, but introduces into the intellectual menu, the spice of humor and the essence of good natured criticism. His words were frequently applauded and he was made to feel that his audience had thoroughly enjoyed every moment of the time."

Miss Sadie Clark, of Sharsburg, is the guest of her sister, and brother, Mrs. A. T. Moffitt and Mr. D. E. Clark.

Miss Dennis, who resides with Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Huffman, was called to the bedside of her father, at Rose Hill Sunday, who is critically ill.

C. B. Harris to Josie Boardman, 122 acres, 1 rod and 10 poles, Middletown and Mt. Sterling pike, $12,200.
This makes a total of 2,019 acres of Bourbon county land that was transferred by deeds in the County Clerk's office on March 1, 1909.

DEATHS.

The burial services over the remains of Charles T. Hanson, who died in Oklahoma, were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Paris cemetery.

The body arrived on a special Interurban car and was accompanied by his aged mother, the widow of the late Richard M. Hanson, formerly of this city, Mrs. Jennie Hanson Helm and brother, Richard Hanson, and a number of other relatives and friends.

After the singing of an appropriate hymn, Rev. George W. Clarke offered a prayer and the body was consigned to its last resting place beside that of his honored father.

"Lucky" (E. J.) Baldwin, the famous turfman, died at his home near Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday. He was past eighty years of age and had been sick for some time. He was a big stockholder in the Santa Anita track and owned a large stud of thoroughbred horses. He was reputed to be a multi-millionaire.

Court Day.
There was a large crowd in attendance yesterday on March court day. There were at least 150 mules on the market. The trading lagged in the early part of the day, the buyers refusing to give the high prices then asked for their mules, but about 3 o'clock in the afternoon trading became lively and many mules changed hands at prices from $125 to $210.

Auctioneer A. T. Forsyth sold at public outcry the following mules for Capt. G. W. Wilder:
Pair 4-year-olds to John B. Donaldson for $275; one 4-year-old horse mule to H. C. Thompson for $132.50; pair 3-year-olds to W. O. Butler for $100; pair 5-year-old big horse mules to J. H. Fuhrman for $380; one 3-year-old mare mule, over 16 hands, to Wm. Cantrell for $130.

W. G. McClintock bought yesterday of Sidney G. Clay a team of mules for $265; pair of Brooks Clay for $350; pair of Caywood & Thomason for $330 one of same for $180. He sold to Mr. Ashcraft a pair for $370; to Chas. Thompson, of Lexington, a pair for $310 and two single mules for $365. Caywood & Thomason sold five pair of mules at from $330 to $410.

Thos. McClintock, of Millersburg, sold three horses at from $100 to $165; pair mules for $300 and a pair for $375.

At M. J. Murphy's pens there were about 150 short yearlings, about half of them were sold at $30 per head.

PRICE & CO., Clothiers.

Purchases Bourbon Saddlers.
Mr. J. Z. Keel, of Keel & Sons, exporters of grain of Gainsville, Tex., has been in Kentucky for the past ten days buying fine saddle horses. He bought seven head, three of them being gaited stallions by "Bourbon King." The horses were: "Bourbon K." a sixteen-hand-high chestnut three-year-old show horse. The dam of "Bourbon K." is by Highland Denmark and second dam Harrison Chief. "Bourbon K." was bought of Mr. Oscar Carrick, of Georgetown.

"Sterling King," a handsome sixteen-hand-high bay three-year-old, by Bourbon King and dam by Sterling Denmark, from Mr. Wm. Jones, of North Middletown.

A show mare, three years old, "Vanity," by Bourbon King, and the chestnut stallion "Star," by Bourbon King, from Young Bros., of North Middletown.

The others were highly bred and were purchased from Messrs. Alley Jones and C. L. Kerr, of Lexington. The horses were shipped yesterday to Gainsville.

Art Pottery.
See J. T. Hinton's window display of art pottery to be sold Thursday, March 4th, at 10 a. m. at 98 cents each. Former price $2.75.

Events of the Week.
All other events of the week will be overshadowed by the inauguration at Washington of William Howard Taft, twenty-seventh President of the United States. But while Mr. Taft is the central figure of imposing ceremonies on Thursday, a considerable degree of unofficial interest must follow on that day the movements of two other men, who long have challenged public attention and admiration. In the hour that President Taft graces the ball that will bring the inaugural programme to a brilliant close, Mr. Roosevelt, relieved of the burdens of State, will be surrounded by his neighbors at Oyster Bay, and Mr. Bryan, guest of honor at a dollar-dinner in Pittsburg, will reiterate, it is believed, the convictions upon which he contested the presidency.

Will Remain in Kentucky.
The eight Democratic Senators who Friday broke the quorum in the Tennessee Legislature and fled to Kentucky to prevent their arrest, have abandoned their intention of returning to Nashville, and say they will remain in Hopkinsville until the General Assembly adjourns. Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms Yeaman arrived yesterday under strict surveillance. The Senators yesterday held a long conference with Gov. Patterson's private secretary and with Austin Peay, his political manager.

Remembered by Brother.
Ex-Governor Caleb W. West, formerly of Cynthiana, who died in San Francisco three weeks ago, left $10,000 life insurance to his sister, Mrs. Wm. Noorse, of Cynthiana. He also left her about 20 nice building lots in Salt Lake City Utah, considerable cash in bank, and his half interest in the Bridwell House in Cynthiana, which they owned jointly.

Notice to Post Card Lovers.
To assist in the proper and safe delivery of post cards, sent through the mails, we quote the following taken from the report of the Postmaster General:
"Cards bearing glass, metal, tinsel or other similar substances are unmailable except when enclosed in envelopes tightly sealed to prevent the objectionable substances from being rubbed off or injuring the persons handling same."
"Such envelopes with or without writing are available at the first class rate which is two cents and the stamps must be affixed to the envelope and not placed on the cards."
"All cards not conforming to the above cause are treated as unmailable and sent to the deadletter office."

Mr. Wallis Highly Complimented
Mr. Frederick A. Wallis, of New York is here with his wife, who for several months has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Henry Clay, on Pleasant street.

The nomination of Mr. Wallis as Superintendent of insurance of the State of New York, the favorable comments on Governor Hughes' selection; the subsequent introduction by Senator Grady of a resolution of inquiry calling for copies of correspondence on file in the Insurance Department; Mr. Wallis' letter to Governor Hughes requesting the withdrawal of his (Mr. Wallis') name; the request of Mr. Wallis that he be permitted to appear before the Senate Committee on Insurance with reference to vague rumors concerning certain correspondence called for by the Senate Insurance Committee; the favorable impression Mr. Wallis when, by the courtesy of the Senate Committee, he was granted a public hearing; the unanimous adoption by the Senate Committee and by the Senate of a resolution vindicating Mr. Wallis—all these are indications in a recent interesting chapter of the insurance history of the State of New York.

Mr. Wallis was complimented highly by every newspaper in New York on the many answers he gave to every question asked him when before the Senate Committee. The committee was satisfied that Mr. Wallis had disproved the charges and that he should not have withdrawn.

Lecture Course at Paris High School.
There will be a lecture course in the auditorium of the Paris Public School building, the first number of which will be given Friday evening, March 5, by Dr. S. M.
