Paris Downs the Lawmakers.

Paris pulled down another game yesterday from the Champions at Frankfort. The score was 3 to 2, which shows that it was a good game of ball. Quinlan and Elgin was the battery for Paris.

It will now be only a few days until we are knocking at the door of the leaders. We are now at the head of the second division and only twenty-nine points from third place. Keep your eye on us for we are getting our gait. The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Paris	0	0	0	1	2	0	0	0	3
Frankfort	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	2

Winchester shut Lexington out yesterday by a score of 4 to 0. No game between Richmond and Shelbyville on account of the latter team missing connection at Lexington.

Paris and Shelbyville broke even in a double-header Wednesday on the latter's grounds, the second game being called at the end of fifth inning. The first game was in favor of Paris by score of 11 to 2, and the second in favor of Shelbyville 2 to 1.

Shelbyville had three new men in their lineup, Thomas, short stop, Wolf, third base; Long, pitcher. The Paris boys had their batting eye with them and forced Livville to be taken from the box in seventh inning, Shelbyville replacing him with Hornback, who did little better.

The features of the game for the Paris team was Ochs, Felix, Hannigan and Barnett at the bat, and Scott stopping two line drives which looked like would be two hits. The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Shelbyville	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	2

Two-base hits—Wolf, Doherty, Hannigan, Barnett, 2. First base on balls—off Winchell 4; off Hornback, 2; Livville 4. Struck out—by Hornback 2; Livville 1; Winchell 3. Double plays—Grusenisen to Kuhn 2. Umpire—Rasche.

The second game was called after the ending of the fifth inning. The following being the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5
Shelbyville	0	0	0	2	0	0	2

Two-base hits—Barnett, Thomas, Hornback, Grusenisen. Struck out—by Winchell 3; by Hornback 2. Double plays—Wolf to Grusenisen to Kuhn. Time of game—1:25. Umpire Rasche.

NOTES.

Today's games are as follows: Paris at Frankfort; Shelbyville at Richmond; Winchester at Lexington.

Paris has developed into the best baseball town in the Blue Grass League. The games draw larger crowds here than at any of our sister cities.

The following is schedule of next games in Paris: Frankfort Saturday, 3:30 p. m.; Richmond, Sunday, 3 p. m.; Richmond Monday, at 10 a. m. and at 3:30 p. m.

The grounds at Shelbyville were in a horrible condition, being very sloppy, several loads of sand had been spread over the diamond, but instead of being a benefit proved to make them worse.

Winchell pitched both games at Shelbyville, and under the unfavorable condition of the grounds, pitched great ball. He was supported in great shape, the Bourbonites not making an error in either game.

This "winning habit" that the Bourbonites are developing is very popular with the fans.

Shelbyville has released Hogarty, Ellsworth and Damasky.

It is the opinion of a number of fans that a pitcher should never be allowed to pitch a double-header. The public is always "mighty" proud of him if he wins one game a day.

Pitcher Poole, of the Evansville, Ind., Central League team, has been signed by Manager Schmidt, of the Paris team. He is a six-footer and a left-handed twirler and considered phenomenal in the box.

Guinn and Swearingen have been released by the Paris manager.

Winchell, Dugger, Poole and Quinlan, the pitching corps of the Paris team are considered as four "buddies" that will make the best of them take notice.

Manager Schmidt will get in the box himself as soon as the weather warms up and show you a few things himself. "Smittie" is alright.

"Cy" Young, of Cleveland, who is one of the greatest pitchers in the country was never a "strike-out" pitcher but let batsmen hit the ball. Young is now pitching his twentieth year.

Candidate for Governor.

The Jessamine News in a strong editorial in Wednesday's issue, is urging the announcement of Col. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, for the Democratic candidate for Governor. Col. Young is a native of Jessamine county and belongs to a family that has always figured prominently in the history of that county.

Troops Recalled.

Acting Adjutant General Garnett Ripley has ordered the detail of four militiamen who have been stationed at the Benson quarries below Frankfort relieved and they have returned to their homes in Lexington. Private detectives have been put on duty in order to ascertain if possible who is responsible for the threatening and warning notices which have been received by the negroes employed at the quarries. The soldiers were on duty about two weeks.

Makers of Notes Must Pay.

That the maker of a note is responsible for its payment, though it may have been sold after being deposited as collateral, was held by Judge Matt O'Doherty, of Louisville, under the negotiable instrument act of 1904, which is the source of many new decisions. The finding was in a case where the note was deposited in bank to secure a loan, and later, the depositor became a bankrupt. The note was sold by the bank and the original maker of the note sought to be relieved from payment. The endorsers, the bank and the depositor resisted payment, but the court decided as above.

We have just received a large shipment of berry cups that we are going to sell cheap.

Eastern Star Chapter.

Davis, of this city, were among those who took the degree. The ladies served an elegant dinner before the work was begun. This is the women's chapter of Masonry and this chapter is one of the oldest in the State. There was a class of twenty to go through Thursday but only ten of them made their appearance. The Grand Chapter meets in Paducah in October.

Lorimer Elected Senator.

Congressman William Lorimer, of the Sixth Congressional District of Illinois, was elected United States Senator at Springfield Wednesday by the joint session of the General Assembly and the long contest over the Senatorship was closed. The election came about through a coalition of Democratic assemblymen and anti-Hopkins Republicans through the hours preceding the close of the deadlock was crowded with a host of politicians. Strong efforts were made by former Senator Hopkins' aids to head off the break to Lorimer, but they were unavailing. The break in the deadlock was accompanied by several exciting incidents. In all fifty-three Democrats voted for Lorimer.

"Jack the Peeper" Here.

Shortly after nine o'clock Monday night a burglar, "Jack the Peeper" or burglar, was seen on a ladder at a window in the second story of a residence of Mrs. Minnie Wilson, on High street. Thomas McDonald, a near neighbor, was notified, and upon reaching the scene took a shot at the would-be intruder, who descending the ladder rapidly, jumped and made his escape in the darkness. The ladder is in use at the Grand Opera House and had been carried to the residence. The police were notified and believe the man was one of a gang that usually follows a circus exhibition.

Withdraws Resignation.

Adj. Gen. P. P. Johnston has withdrawn his resignation as head of the State militia at the request of Gov. Willson. After a short vacation on his Florida plantation he will return to Frankfort and again take up the duties of office.

The Paris Grand.

The crowds continue to flock to the Paris Grand to see the good bills that are being presented nightly. Notwithstanding the rainy weather, the attendance for the first half of the week which closed Wednesday night, was far above the average.

Fred Jarvis, monologist was a scream from start to finish, and with a line of talk, such as he "gets off" can not help but please the most particular audience.

Hawley and Olecott presented an unusually smart skit "Just Married a Week," in which they draw away from the regular cut and dried pattern and work along lines of their own and attain results which would otherwise be impossible.

Last night there was an entire change of program composed of Fred Hamilton, eccentric pantomime acrobatic jumper. Mr. Hamilton is late of the John Robinson circus and seldom do you have an opportunity to witness an act of this kind on the local stage, his act is one of the most original entertainers of this kind and his "silence and fun" cannot fail to amuse you.

Possibly the best act of the week is J. Theo. Murphy and Lillian Washburn, "The Comedy Boomers." They have a routine of jokes and short talks that are agreeably funny and keeps the audience in high good humor. Miss Washburn is a sister of the famous Washburn sisters, singers. She has an unusually elaborate wardrobe and changes costumes for each performance.

Miss Nellie Lovely rendered the illustrated song "A Little Cozy Flat" and received the usual applause, which is always accorded her. The motion picture, "In Old Arizona" and Sandy McPherson's "Quiet Fishing Trip" were very realistic and created a great deal of enthusiasm.

It seems that each bill is better than the one previous and it is not an unusual thing to see the same crowds over and over again. At this popular amusement place, for to stay away might mean missing one of the many rare treats that are being offered nightly.

The New Grand Commander.

Mr. Joseph Ewalt, of Bourbon, is the new Grand Commander of Knights Templar of Kentucky, and Mr. Wm. E. Board, of this city, is the new Grand Standard Bearer. Both of these Bourbonites are enthusiastic Masons, fine gentlemen and splendid fellows. Mr. Ewalt is a member of Cynthia's Commandery, still Bourbon claims him and is proud of the honor bestowed upon him and Mr. Board.

Ex-Bourbon Gets Consulship.

Samuel McClintock, a former Millersburg boy, and a brother of John McClintock, of Lexington, was on Wednesday appointed United States Consul to Tegucigalpa, Honduras, at a salary of $2,500 a year. Mr. McClintock went to Chicago several years ago and had been connected with the University of Chicago for some time, where he had been preparing himself for entering the Consular service. It is not known when he will take charge of his post.

Southern Floods.

Reports indicate that the loss from present high waters in Alabama and Mississippi will be considerable. The railroads have suffered much loss and reports are that much damage has been done to private property in the flooded district. Practically every river and creek in lower Alabama and Mississippi is at flood stage, resulting in practically drowning all the lowland crops, the destruction of much cattle and loss of timber.

Ill Two Hours.

W. P. Smoot, superintendent of turnpikes of Mason county, died at his home in Maysville Wednesday night after an illness of two hours of acute indigestion.

Funeral of Trained Cockroach.

A Boston, Mass., special says: "Alonzo," the trained cockroach, the pride of the rich young Harvard students who make Holworthy Hall their college home, is dead. His owner, Karl S. Gate, and his fellow students at Holworthy conducted a ceremony in memory of Alonzo, the chief mourners were F. P. Farquhar, T. S. Green and Captain Currier and Manager Cable, of the baseball team, the men who were responsible for much of Alonzo's training.

Green taught Alonzo to balance himself on the edge of a pipe; Currier and Cable laid out a small baseball diamond and taught Alonzo to slide to bases, and Paine, student taught Alonzo to lie down and play dead when he cried "Yale." All these tricks were mournfully related yesterday's ceremony. The Holworthy Hall cat was the cause of Alonzo's taking off.

Taxing Burned Whisky.

Taxes must be paid to the State of Kentucky on the 70,000 barrels of whisky destroyed by fire at the Greenbaum Distillery at Midway, just the same as if there had been no fire, and the 2,000,000 gallons had not gone up in a blue blaze and killed all the fish in Elkhorn creek.

That litigation may result over the collection of this tax is the belief of those in the office of Auditor James, and the novel question may have to be settled by the courts.

Under the Kentucky law whisky is valued by the Board of Valuation and Assessment by the barrel. The tax is paid to the Auditor. The valuation fixed for the last several years has been $8 per barrel. The tax is charged when the whisky is withdrawn from the bonded warehouse. The rate was raised this year to a valuation of $9 per barrel.

The whisky destroyed had been in the bonded warehouse for several years, and the total tax is paid when the whisky is withdrawn. Under the law the whisky destroyed will have to pay the tax the same as if it were withdrawn. At least that is the ruling of the Attorney General, who was asked for an official opinion by Auditor James.

Why the Rib Was Used.

Why Eve was made from the rib of Adam has been explained by a witty sage of old. If she had been created from his mouth, she would have talked too much; if from his feet, she would have gone about too much; if from his ears, she would have listened too readily. But she was made from a rib, which is near the heart, to show that she must always be dear to man.—New York Tribune.

Too Great a Reward.

"You have saved my life!" said the old man whom the young hero had just pulled out of the river at Blackfriars. "As a reward you may marry my daughter there."

The hero glanced at the daughter, then bent again over the old man.

"What are you doing?" asked the perplexed father.

"Going to drop you in again."—London Telegraph.

A Society Composition.

The professor seated himself airily at the piano and announced in a far-away voice, "Song mitoudt vordis."

He rendered a few dreamy chords, and then Bertie Flippe told Mrs. Dashiell a screaming story, and a bunch of debutantes in the corner quarreled about a handsome actor.

The professor roused. "Song mit vordis—lots of vordis," he corrected.—Puck.

A Public Benefactor.

Some years ago Mr. Benn Wolfe Levy, the noted public benefactor, was visiting the London hospital, and seeing men in red fannel dressing gowns, he asked Mr. Sydney Holland why they were so dressed. Mr. Holland told him that they were prepared for operation, but owing to the fact that there was only one operating theater it was doubtful whether there would be time to do all the operations. The cruelty of preparing men for operations with all the anxiety involved to the patient and then having to postpone them appealed to Mr. Levy, and he at once drew a check for £13,000, which he was told would build five theaters, and ultimately increased the amount to £15,000.—London Bystander.
