becomes even better. And even an inexperienced one can get satisfactory results. If the "girl" doesn't turn out good biscuits, bread or cake, don't blame her at once. It may be the flour. Order a sack of PURITY FLOUR to-day and note the result. It's dollars to doughnuts she will do better with her first baking from it.

Special Judge Named.

A special judge to preside in the Franklin Circuit Court in the trial of the damage suit of Mrs. Net Hazlett against Riley Harrod and others, Gov. Willson appointed S. M. Wilson of Lexington. Judge R. L. Stout fined the lawyers for Duncan for trying to swear him off the bench in this case, but he vacated the bench in spite of the fact that he denounced as false the charges made in the affidavits. The case will not come up until the January term of court. Mr. Wilson is well known as a lawyer, and has had experience on the bench.

Aurora Borealis Makes Trouble.

Violent electrical earth currents, believed to emanate from the aurora borealis, Saturday disturbed the telegraph service over the entire country and for a time stilled the ticking of the Morse instruments in the offices of the great telegraph companies.

Conference of the M. E. Church.

The Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has had a busy session since being called to order on last Wednesday morning, and completed their arduous duties yesterday at noon.

Bishop Hoss has shown that he possesses much executive ability in the way he has managed and conducted the conference. We noticed in last edition the principal business that was done up to Friday.

On Friday morning the Conference was called to order promptly at 9 o'clock by Bishop Hoss and business proceeded with the call of districts. The character of each minister and the report of his church being heard and all favorably acted upon.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society then made their report of the year's work, the conference being addressed by Mrs. Edward Grubbs, of Winchester, and Mrs. J. J. Dickey, of Perryville. Dr. Gross Alexander, of Nashville, Tenn., then addressed the conference on the work of the quarterly review and was followed by Dr. J. D. Hammond on the same city, on the subject of Ministerial Education.

One of the first acts of the conference Friday morning was to present Rev. J. D. Walsh, of Paintsville, who was placed on the superannuated list, with $50 in gold raised by dollar subscriptions from among those present.

Greetings were received from the Christian church conference at Lexington and the conference acknowledged receipt of the same by extending greetings.

The Association of Laymen of the Kentucky Conference was organized with officers as follows: John A. Johnson, Covington, President; John Vern, Ludlow, Vice President, Covington District; A. M. Dreher, Barbourville, Lexington district; Harold Means, Ashland district; A. L. Bennett, Louisville, Louisville district; Secretary, J. H. Richardson, Treasurer Joshua P. Shaw, Lexington.

It was voted that all churches in the Kentucky conference give all the collections taken up for the American Bible Society to the fund of $500,000 donated by Mrs. Russell Sage upon condition that the church raise an equal amount.

The principal feature of Saturday's session was the election of clerical and lay delegates to attend the general conference to be held in Asheville, N. C., in May, 1910.

The first choice of the conference fell to Dr. E. G. B. Mann pastor of the First Methodist church of Lexington, and editor of the Central Methodist. Rev. J. L. Clarke, Presiding Elder of the Covington district and secretary of the conference was the second delegate elected, and Dr. J. O. A. Vaught presiding elder of the Frankfort district, as third. The lay delegates selected were Mr. Henry A. Power, of Paris, Judge Ed C. O'Rear of the Kentucky Court of Appeals and Mr. Ben J. Durham of Danville.

Rev. Geo. D. Prentiss of Burnside, and Rev. O. B. Crocket, pastor of the Park Avenue Methodist church in Lexington, two young ministers who had completed the two year probationary term, were admitted to full conference.

The following young ministers were admitted to the conference on trial: W. S. Vanderpool and R. A. Selby, West Liberty; W. B. Campbell, Nicholasville; W. V. Cropper, Flemingsburg, and J. R. Hollon, Campton.

The report of the committee on temperance provoked more discussion than was looked for, several speeches being made in support of the committee's finding in modification of the report.

The conference after much discussion objected to any policy that would commit it to any political party, and approved the anti-saloon league upon the ground that it was non-partisan.

Dr. J. L. Webber, of Mt. Sterling, was granted a transfer to the Memphis conference where Dr. Webber goes as pastor of the First Methodist church of that city. Dr. Webber is one of the most distinguished men of the Kentucky conference, having served the congregations at Winchester and Mt. Sterling and for a number of years was president of the board of trustees of Wesleyan College.

On Sunday morning, Bishop Hoss preached at the Methodist church before the largest congregation ever assembled in that church, there was standing room only. His theme was taken from First John, third chapter, first and second verses. His sermon was profound and eloquent and made great impression on the large concourse of people who heard him.

The pulpits of all the protestant churches were occupied by ministers of the conference at both the morning and evening services.

At 3 o'clock p. m., the memorial services were held at the Methodist church in memory of Rev. F. M. Hill, Missionary secretary of the conference, who accompanied by Mrs. Hill lost their lives September 29, 1908, while crossing Caplin river. Rev. E. C. Savage, who died at Simpsonville, and Rev. J. C. Minor, an aged minister residing at California, Ky.

At 7:30 p. m., a large congregation heard the Rev. Mr. Willard Uram, a returned missionary from Korea, who preached an excellent discourse on Korean missionary work.
