A Modern "Bluebeard."

Frederick Gebhardt, alias Mueller, the self-confessed Isip, Long Island murderer, may have a claim on the title of "bluebeard" according to a statement made Wednesday night by Captain Coughlan, of the Brooklyn detective force. Two other mysterious murders of women are to be investigated before the prisoner is put on trial for his life and the police believe that two and possibly three additional cases where women disappeared will be cleared up.

It was reported that the prisoner confessed to the coroner that he killed two other women, but this could not be confirmed, Capt. Coughlan said.

"Gebhardt admitted enough to put several new clues at our command," according to the police Gebhardt served nine years in Sing Sing, for swindling a New York woman out of $40, on a promise of marriage. He went to prison under the name of Scharferlein in 1896 and was released in 1905.

At the time of his trial for this offense, it was shown that he already had a wife in New York and at least one wife living in Germany. The prisoner is said to have operated under six aliases, while other marriages as yet not proved absolutely sure in his record.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness, caused by catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Ealls' Family Pills for Constipation.

Policy Unchanged.

Japan's policy toward Korea will remain unchanged by the assassination of Prince Ito, who as Resident General of Korea worked out the plan for that kingdom's reformation. This much was made known in a statement issued by the Japanese Foreign Office. Prince Ito's body is now at Darian and will be borne to Tokio on a warship.

Frankfort People Mad.

Assistant Attorney General Lockett filed suit yesterday in the Franklin Circuit Court to prevent the sale of the Frankfort and Cincinnati railroad to the L. & N. The citizens of Frankfort are said to be up in arms at the proposed reget at a meeting of the Business Men's Club offered strong resolutions condemning the sale.

Up Before The Bar.

N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." Foe Chills, Constipation, Billiousness or Sick Headache they work wonders. 25c. at Oberdorfer's.

Generally.

Every little while the public gets greatly excited over the discovery of a poem by some dead poet who did not consider the thing worth being included in his collected works. Generally we find, in spite of the public's hurrah over the discovery, that the dead poet exercised pretty good judgment.

Smashes All Records.

As an all-round laxative tonic and health builder no other pills can compare with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They tone and regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, strengthen the nerves, cure constipation, dyspepsia, Billiousness, jaundice, headache, chills and malaria. Try them. 25c at Oberdorfer's.

CHILDREN

In disorders and diseases of children drugs seldom do good and often do harm. Careful feeding and bathing are the babies' remedies.

The Scrap Book

Obedy the Law. When Benjamin F. Butler lived in Lowell, Mass., he had a little black and tan dog, says the Saturday Evening Post. One morning as he was coming down the street, followed by the dog, a policeman stopped him and told him that, in accordance with an ordinance just passed, he must muzzle the dog.

A POLICEMAN STOPPED HIM.

"All right," snorted Butler. "It is a fool ordinance, but I'll muzzle him. Let me pass."

Next morning the policeman was on the lookout. "I beg your pardon, general," he said, "but I must arrest you. Your dog is not muzzled."

"Not muzzled!" shouted Butler. "Not muzzled! Well, look at him."

The policeman looked more carefully at the dog and found a tiny toy muzzie tied to its tail.

"General," he expostulated, "this dog is not properly muzzled."

"Yes, he is, sir," asserted Butler—"yes, he is. I have examined that idiotic statute, and I find it says that every dog must wear a muzzie. It doesn't say where the dog shall wear the muzzie, and I choose to decorate the tail of my dog instead of the head with this infernal contraption."

Success.

Success is the hand trained to do its work. The eye that sees that the lines run true, The ear that hears when the truth you speak, The brain that conceives old truths anew.

Success is the strife with the heart slow. The effort we make for our fellow man. The pride that laughs at the outer show. The soul that fulfills its highest plan. —E. H. Ellsworth in New York Independent.

A Dull Scholar.

A negro boy was up for the fifth time on charges of chicken stealing. This time the magistrate decided to appeal to the boy's father.

"Now, see here, Abe," said he to the darky, "this boy of yours has been up in court so many times for stealing chickens that I'm tired of seeing him here."

"Ah don't blame yo', sah," returned the father. "Ah's tired of seein' him here too."

"Then why don't you teach him how to act? Show him the right way, and he won't be coming here."

"Ah has showed 'im de right way, sah," declared the old man earnestly. "Ah has suttently showed 'im de right way, but he somehow keeps gettin' caught comin' 'way wid dose chickens!"

One of the Advantages.

A pretty, highborn English girl engaged herself to a young tradesman and never wavered in her determination to marry him despite the gloomy forecasts of her friends, who predicted lifelong misery for her.

"My child, do be advised," urged one of these well meaning ladies, calling to see the radiant bride on the very eve of the wedding. "I am an older woman than you and have seen more of the world, and it always makes me sad to hear of a nice girl marrying beneath her station. It is social suicide."

"Then from a social standpoint consider me dead," smiled the light hearted girl, "for I shall certainly marry Tom tomorrow. We reckoned up the situation long ago and found a whole host of advantages, but not a solitary thing could we discover to place on the disadvantage side."

"Then you couldn't have searched very far, my dear," said her counselor icily. "Take my own case. Much as I love you, I shall be unable to visit you when you are married. Have you bargained for that?"

The bride blushed. "Oh, yes, indeed!" she answered hastily. "We put that down first of all."

Cheerful and Hopeful.

The men whom I have seen succeed best in life have always been cheerful and hopeful men, who went about their business with a smile on their faces and took the changes and chances of this mortal life like men, facing rough and smooth alike as it came.—Charles Kingsley.

Consolation.

A young probationer was preaching his trial sermon in a church in one of the inland villages of Scotland. After finishing the "discourse" he leaned over the pulpit and engaged in silent prayer, an act which rather surprised the congregation, who were unaccustomed to such procedure. Suddenly the young preacher felt some one slapping him gently on the shoulder, and on turning round he beheld the beadle, who said: "Hoot, toot, man, dinna tak' it sae muckle to heart. Ye'll maybe dae better next time."
