Johnny Was There.

"Now in order to subtract," explained teacher to the class in mathematics, "things have to be of the same denomination. For instance, we couldn't take three apples from four years, nor six horses from nine dogs." A hand went up in the back of the room. "Well, Johnny?" smiled the unsuspecting teacher. "Please madam," shouted the boy, "can't you take four quarts of milk from three cows?"

Scarcity of Rabbits.

There is a great scarcity of rabbits throughout the State according to reports received. One reason advanced is that the severe hail storm last spring slaughtered most of them. In the West end where most of the shipments come from, the hail was extremely severe. The extremely wet weather about brooding time killed off the young quail in appalling numbers, and hunters report a scarcity of all kinds of game.

Enjoyed His Thanksgiving Dinner

Sated with the "passum dinners" and elaborate banquets he was forced to face on his recent trip, President Taft sat down Thursday afternoon to a family Thanksgiving dinner. The piece de resistance was a mastodon turkey that had been raised on a Rhode Island farm. When the dessert was served, Mr. Taft leaned back in his chair.

"Thank goodness," he sighed, happily, "I've had a dinner at which I haven't been compelled to make speeches and where no reception committee lurked in the background. I've enjoyed food, real food, and I haven't had to work to get it."

Madden Buys Soprano.

At the Fasig-Tipton Old Glory horse sale at the Madison Square Garden in New York Thursday Soprano, a three-year-old trotter, with a record of 20:8 3/4, was bought by J. E. Madden, of Lexington, after spirited bidding, for $7,000.

Mr. Madden declared that he bought the chestnut filly on the advice of his fifteen-year-old son Edward, who had seen the mare and told his father to buy her at any price.

"Edward thinks she is the only mare that can take the place of Hamburg Belle," said the Elder Madden, "and he is a pretty good judge of horses. I got her cheap." The mare will be sent to Hamburg place.

Buried in One Casket.

Hundreds of prominent public men of Missouri and many from outside the State joined with the citizens of Butler, Mo., Friday paying respect to the memory of the late Congressman De Armond, who met a tragic death there last Tuesday in a vain effort to save the life of his favorite grandson. All Butler was in mourning. The bodies of both victims were buried in the local cemetery in one casket following simple ceremonies at the Methodist Episcopal church. Among the distinguished mourners besides members of the Congressional Committee were Speaker Cannon, Governor Hadley, of Missouri and Senators Warne and Stone.

A Warm Time.

Out at Centralia, Mo., the pastor of the Methodist church and the editor of a local paper are having troubles of their own. The pastor wrote a notice of a meeting of the Epworth League and advised the young ladies to be sure and bring their bibles with them. When the notice appeared in print the word "bibles" had been changed to "babies," and now the pastor and editor are using a lot of valuable space in trying to explain the unfortunate error.

A Remarkable Case.

August and Augusta Reschke, brother and sister, are confined in the Ohio penitentiary, the first time, it is said, anything of the kind has ever happened. The former will serve two and a half years and the latter three years. They were sent up from Cuyahoga county; the brother is 25 and the sister 21 years of age. They were born in Germany, coming to Milwaukee where they married and have three children. They quarreled with an uncle and he told the story of their relationship.
