Narrow Escape.

Mrs. Joseph Coons and her sister, Miss Ella Ogg, of Mt. Sterling, narrowly escaped drowning while trying to cross Brushy Fork Creek, near Carlisle Saturday. The creek was swollen from the heavy rain that was falling, and not being acquainted with the ford, the ladies who were in a buggy, drove in before they were aware of the depth of the water.

As soon as they struck the heavy current the horse and buggy began to wash down the stream toward a water gap, and timely assistance is all that saved them. They were not injured. The water was over the horse's back and all of the buggy submerged except the top.
