Winchester Man Fined.

George T. Sebb, of Winchester, was fined $10 by Judge January Saturday afternoon, at the conclusion of the ball game between Paris and Winchester, for exceeding the speed limit. A few weeks ago Tebb came to Paris to attend a ball game and when returning home after the game drove his automobile up Main street at a high rate of speed. A warrant was issued for his arrest but was not served until he came to Paris Saturday afternoon. Judge January assessed the fine which Tebb paid before leaving the ball grounds.

Narrow Escape.

Awakening to find their residence a mass of flames Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burke, residing on their farm on the Leesburg and Newtown pike, barely escaped with their lives shortly after midnight Friday morning. Mr. Burke was awakened by Mrs. Burke, who was almost suffocated from the smoke that filled the room, and in their night clothes they made their exit through a window.

Mr. Burke broke in their front door and managed to save part of the parlor furniture. Just how the building caught fire is a mystery as the fire in the kitchen range had long before died out.

Fine Harness.

Our line of fine buggy harness, saddles, whips, etc., is complete. In fact we have everything in the way of harness and supplies.

LAVIN & CONNELL.

Weber's Band.

One of the most pleasing features of the Bourbon Fair which is to be held in this city September 6-10 inclusive, will be the music which is to be furnished by Weber's Military Band of Cincinnati. Last year the musical program greatly pleased the patrons of the fair and the officers of the society this year secured the services of Weber and his celebrated band to furnish the music.

—The following appeared in the society notes from Olympian Springs in Sunday's Lexington Herald: "It takes Mrs. Bosworth to get up the old time Virginia reel and lancers. Never was there assembled in the famous Olympian ball room a more attractive set of dancers of the old school than were here last week."

"Mrs. Bosworth invited all the mother and older guests of the hotel to take part, and all entered into it with a vim."

"Five sets stretched across the floor at intervals, and to the giddy strains of 'Turkey in the Straw,' courted to one another and swung their partners to the left—it was a sight never to be forgotten. The immense crowds (for the hotel is simply packed in every available nook and corner) applauded the masterly way in which they danced. So enthusiastic was the applause that a grand march followed the 'first set,' the leaders being Miss Nellie Highland, of Paris, and W. H. Warner, being honored as the most graceful couple in the lancers, and led it upon the decision of the judges appointed."

Sweepstakes For Saddlers.
