Gossip Shortens Life.

"Read good books and don't gossip about your neighbors," is the advice Mrs. Jane Beam, of Patterson, N. J., gives to those who wish to achieve a happy old age. She is now 102 and happy and she declares that in all her life she has never talked ill of anyone, tasted liquor or done anything of which she should be ashamed. Seven books has contributed much to her happiness and she reads these constantly.

Mrs. Beam was born in Ramapo, N. J., September 1, 1808. Her husband and children are all dead and her great grandchildren are now ministering to her wants, which are few.

"Ever since I was a little girl I liked to read," says Mrs. Beam. "I've read Dickens and Thackeray and the newspapers and believe they have done me much good. But the book that has helped me most is the Bible. In addition Surgeon's Sermons, Philosophy, the Pennsylvania Pilgrim, the Unnoticed Things in Scripture and the Holy Land are the books that have helped me reach my present age."
