The World-Renowned and Only Absolute Smoke Consuming Stove on Earth. The Wonder of the Age.

THE HOT BLAST
AIR-TIGHT

FLORENCE

PATENTED JUNE 13, 1899.

Patent Sustained by U. S. Circuit Court July 5, 1905. Patent Sustained by U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals March 6, 1906.

Beware of imitations and unscrupulous people who claim to have a stove like or just as good as the Florence. Do not be deceived by such false claims and find it out when too late. Examine the Florence carefully before you buy.

NO SMOKE! NO SOOT! NO DIRT! NO CLINKERS!
EVERYTHING IS CONSUMED.

At the end of a season's use with soft coal, there will be no soot in the pipe or flue.

THE ZENITH OF STOVE PERFECTION!

The only jointless leg bottom and base with full radiation and large ash pan that is on the market or has ever been made in the history of the stove industry.

The jointless leg bottom and base make the stove air tight below the grate, which is the only true fire keeping principle. It will be as good a fire keeper twenty years hence as it is today.

The Hot Blast Air-Tight Florence will heat twice the space that can be heated by any other stove on earth at half the cost.

The only perfect floor heater that has ever been made. All the features are patented, and no stove manufacturer, dealer or user can copy or use same for seventeen years from date of patent without incurring liability for an action for damages.

If the FLORENCE is operated according to directions:

The No. 21 will heat one small room all winter with 2 tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 49 or No. 23 will heat 2 or 3 small rooms all winter with 2 3/4 tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 51 or No. 25 will heat 3 or 4 small rooms all winter with 3 tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 53 or No. 27 will heat 5 rooms all winter with 4 tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 55 will heat a large store or school room with 6 tons of slack or lump coal. For a church less coal will be required.

Will burn a ton less coal than a hard coal base burner of the same size and heat twice the space.

THE HOT BLAST AIR-TIGHT FLORENCE burns soft coal or slack and all the smoke and gases. No filling up the stove, pipe or flue with soot. No dirt inside or outside the house. It will burn hard coal and all the gases which escape from the hard coal base burner. It will burn wood and sawdust, wet or dry. It will produce one-half less ashes than any other stove on earth with any kind of fuel and leave no clinkers or half-consumed fuel.

Proper Way to Seek Virtue.

One ought to seek out virtue for its own sake, without being influenced by fear or hope, or by any external influence. Moreover, that in that does happiness consist.—Diogenes Laertius.

Nothing Uglier.

Nothing is uglier in American life than the tendency to delight in tearing down reputations. We consider the old Romans brutal because they gazed with pleasure on wild beasts tearing men to pieces. We bend not back our thumbs as we behold the rending of things that are more precious to a man than his body.—New York Globe.

The Cost of a Soul.

A recent query sent out as to the cost of saving a soul in Chicago brought some interesting answers. It was found that the Mormons figured on spending $1,500 for every person converted, whereas the Volunteers of America set the cost as low as $5. These were the highest and lowest prices named.

A Toast to Happiness.

Here's to happiness, the fountain of life, the builder of tissue; it never fails to dispel the blues; for it's the antidote to vapors of melancholia; it's the sun's rays piercing the cloud of darkness, the message of love of life, health and contentment; in its absence nothing can thrive; it's the soulmate, the symbol, of a clear conscience.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a nerve-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. MENTAL DISCORD.

An Uncompromising Enemy to Happiness and to Health.

It is a law that every state of mind, whether good or bad, affects every cell in the system and is outpictured in the body, says Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine. We are thus the arbiters of our fate through our thoughts, emotions and passions.

The time will come when we shall know how to refresh ourselves by mental chemistry—that is, by holding in our minds the antidotes of the things that have wearied us or vexed us, by holding the mental attitude which will neutralize the thought enemies that have thrown our bodies into confusion.

There is nothing so deadly to happiness as mental discord. It paralyzes the thinking ability and destroys the power of concentration and effectiveness.

All diseases and sickness of whatever kind are the outpicturing of some form of discord. If the mind is kept as happy as possible it is difficult for discord to get a foothold in the body. A happy mind is the best possible health producer, disease killer and discord destroyer.

For centuries man's happiness was looked upon by many earnest, thinking people as a condition largely beyond his control. They seemed to think that it depended mostly upon the temperament one happened to develop and that there were other things of so much more importance that we should not consider it too seriously or take precious time to cultivate it directly.

We are beginning to find, however, that even as an economical investment it pays immensely to make a business of being happy and being just as good to ourselves as possible, although not in a selfish way. We could not be good to ourselves in the higher sense by being selfish.

POET OF MANY VERSES.

An Anecdote of Pellegrin, an Eighteenth Century Bard.

The impeccuous French poets of the middle eighteenth century used to consort at the cafes, where sometimes they would pick up customers. One of the worst and at the same time the most facile of the bards was Pellegrin, of whom a characteristic story is told in "An Eighteenth Century Marquise." One day a newcomer entered the cafe and began complaining that he was going to be married and had no epithalamium for his wedding. Pellegrin hastened to offer one of his own compositions. A deal was soon arranged, and the price agreed upon was 20 sous a verse. The poet disappeared. The bridegroom was presently accosted by a stranger, who began a conversation on various subjects and suddenly said:

"By the by, my friend, what price are you paying Pellegrin?"

"Twenty sous a verse."

"H'm."

"Is that too dear?"

"No"—doubtfully—"not if you fixed the length of the poem."

"I never thought of doing that."

"When is he to bring your epithalamium?"

"Tomorrow morning."

"Tomorrow morning!" cried the stranger. "Why, you must be rolling in money!"

"What do you mean?"

"That you will have to pay for at least a thousand verses."

"Oh, what a fraud!" exclaimed the bridegroom and rushed off to find Pellegrin in his attic. The versifier had just completed his hundredth verse.

A Sartorial Freak.

Food is "chow" in the east, meals are "tiffin," and an I. O. U. is a "chit." China and India making these additions to dietetic nomenclature.

The most shocking sartorial thing visible in the east is the dinner jacket of white duck affected by the British and, alas, by some expatriated Americans. It is cut very short, barely reaching the suspender buttons, and flares widely in front. High collar and black tie complete the abominable combination. Yet no Briton can eat his evening meal without being thus garbed. White duck "pants," of course, cover the unmentionables. The white suits of Mark Twain and Frank Vanderlip which once excited New York are outdone and quite as a matter of course.—New York World.

Barrett Wendell's Pun.

When Professor Wendell of Harvard entered upon his Sabbatical year he remained in Cambridge some weeks after his leave of absence began and persisted in taking part in the departmental meeting. The head of the department protested.

"Sir," said he, "you are officially absent. You are not est."

"Oh, very well," replied Professor Wendell; "a non est man is the noblest work of God."—Success Magazine.

A Matter of Choice.

An old darkey servant devoted to General Jackson waited on him in the general's last hours. Right after the general's death a preacher asked Rastus if he thought Jackson would go to heaven.

"I doan' know, boss, ef 'e'll go foah sure, but he can ef he wants to," replied the darkey.—Independent.
