The Secret of Youth

Do you ever wonder how you can remain young, or why other women older than you, look younger than you do? The secret can be put in a few words: "Preserve your health, and you will preserve your youth."

By "health" we mean not alone physical health, but nerve health, as, sometimes, magnificently strong-looking women are nervous wrecks.

But whether you are weak physically or nervously, you need a tonic, and the best tonic for you is Cardui.

It builds strength for the physical and nervous systems. It helps put flesh on your bones and vitality into your nerves.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"My mother," writes Mrs. Z. L. Adcock, of Smithville, Tenn., "is 44 years old and is passing through the change of life."

"She was irregular and bloated and suffered terribly. My father stepped over to the store and got her a bottle of Cardui, which she took according to directions and now she is up, able to do her housework and says she feels like a new woman." Try Cardui in your own case.

Madame Sherry at Lexington.

The New Amsterdam, New York's largest playhouse, and remarkable for its great successes, is proving entirely too small to hold the tremendous crowds which nightly clamor for admittance to view "Madame Sherry," the delightful French vaudeville which has set a new standard for musical comedy in America. This phenomenal success of Chicago and New York will be presented at the [Lexington] Opera House matinee and night, January 16, with a cast of metropolitan favorites, with all its engaging comedy, all its haunting melodies, all its beauty of chorus and ensemble, all its magnificent stage settings and its special orchestra. Otto Hauerbach and Karl Hoschna are the author and composer of this phenomenal success, adapted from a French original that has charmed Paris, Berlin, Vienna and London. In theme and construction it is decidedly novel, and it has been unanimously pronounced the musical sensation of the decade.

A Restroom.

A room the woman of the house calls the "restroom" is papered in soft gray and has green hangings. The furniture is light oak with green sofa pillows here and there, and the big sofa is upholstered in green. The window shades are dark enough to subdue the light. Thus the room is in the most admirable taste and soothes the nerves. When the woman of the house is tired she runs to the rest room for a few minutes and gets her mental balance.

The Arcadians at Lexington.

Charles Frohman's latest and best musical comedy, "The Arcadians," which comes to Lexington matinee and night, Saturday, January 14, direct from the New York Theatre, where it just ended its second year of the most extraordinary run of any musical comedy of recent years. The same great cast of principals, the most beautiful costumed and highly trained chorus; set to the most elaborate settings ever heard of or seen with a musical comedy, will be offered to the theatre-going people of this city. The company carries their own orchestra, which insures a proper rendition of the music which is so important in a musical play of such as "The Arcadians."

Something.

"Can you keep anything on your stomach?" the ship's doctor asked. "No, sir," he returned, feebly, "nothing but my hand."—Ladies' Home Journal.
