Construction Workman Injured.

Wm. Perkins, an employe of the Price Construction Co., which is engaged in double-tracing a section of the L. & N., met with a painful accident early yesterday morning, while engaged in assisting other workmen to set a boiler for a steam drill in the Duncan avenue cut. The heavy boiler in some unaccountable manner slipped, rolling upon Perkins. He sustained a severe cut over the right eye and was bruised about the head. His escape from serious injury was miraculous. He was taken to the office of Dr. Wm. Kenney, where his injuries received attention.
