BANNER DAY OF THE FAIR

Thursday's Attendance Largest in History and Exhibitions are Good.

SWEEPSTAKES BIG EVENT.

Marvel King the Winner With Teddy Roosevelt a Close Second Choice.

With a crowd in attendance which is variously estimated at from between six and seven thousand the third day of the Bourbon County Fair passed into history as one of the largest in point of attendance since the reorganization of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society six years ago, and the exhibitions, which were of the highest class delighted the large gathering.

The oppressive heat had little or no effect on the people as a means of keeping them away from the fair and early yesterday morning thousands thronged the streets of the city long before the opening of the gates, ushering in one of the most successful days of the week.

While the figures are yet incomplete, there is no doubt but that the receipts of yesterday will go to the high water mark. From early in the morning until Cel. Geo. D. Speakes announced the close of the day's program the grounds and amphitheatre were thronged with people, and the promenade of the stand was a moving mass of humanity.

Not since the organization of the Society has there been such an enormous crowd on the grounds. By noon the amphitheatre was filled, the majority of which were people from the country and visitors from other towns and counties. The major part of those who went early took their noon lunch which was spread upon the ground after the fashion of the fairs of the olden days, while others took advantage of the splendid dinner which was set by the Bourbon County Hospital League.

This, coupled with the extremely large number from the city, the majority of which waited until the afternoon to go to the grounds, swelled the crowd enormously and at no point in the stand, even in the aisles, was there scarcely a passing room.

The stock exhibit surpassed anything of the kind ever held in the State, due entirely to the fact that the Society offered the most liberal premiums, which had the effect of bringing out a large number of exhibitors. Mr. C. A. Webber carried away practically all of the blue ties with his prize herd of Jersey cattle, which were in the pink of condition for the exhibition.

The feature event of the third day which attracted largely and brought together the finest blood in show horses, was the sweepstakes for harness horses. This ring brought out six entries and a finer exhibition was never witnessed in this city. The horses competing were Teddy Roosevelt owned by Collins & Remon, of North Middletown, and driven by W. G. Shropshire, Jack Straw, owned by the same firm and driven by G. D. Shropshire, Col. Young, the prize show horse, which has taken premium after premium at the fairs throughout the State, recently sold by Collins & Redmon to Tennessee parties, was driven by Wm. Collins.

Allie Jones of North Middletown, drove his entry, Marvel King, and Roberta King, owned by Ward & Ward, of Georgetown, was driven by Carey Ward, while Ed Watson, of Lexington, had entered an unnamed coach mare.

After much deliberation the judges passed Col. Young and the Watson entry, the remaining four competing for the blue tie, which was awarded to Marvel King with Teddy Roosevelt second, Jack Straw third and the Ward entry, Roberta King, fourth.

The winner of this event never showed to a better advantage being in perfect condition and carrying himself with elegant style and a perfect stride.

Teddy Roosevelt and Marvel King met in the ring following and in the saddle class which resulted in the awarding of the blue tie to the entry of Collins & Redmon to which Mr. Jones' horse was second.

The ring for filly colts brought out six entries and in this event much difficulty was experienced by the judge in making his selections for the first and second premiums, which were both awarded to Sanford Carpenter, of Millersburg.

Ferguson's Stock Barn Burned.

A large stock barn on the farm of J. W. Ferguson, a few miles from Paris on the Hume & Bedford pike, was destroyed by fire about 8:30 o'clock last night, together with its contents, entailing a loss of $1,500 with no insurance.

The barn contained a large quantity of feed and work harness. Also in the barn was a team of show horses which was to be exhibited at the fair to-day. The animals were in that part of the building where the fire originated, and were saved by heroic efforts.

No cause for the fire can be assigned other than that some of the men employed at the barn were seen smoking a short time before the fire was discovered, and it is supposed a lighted match or spark from a pipe or cigar fell into the heavy bed of straw under the horses.

Insure your barn with Thomas & Woodford.

SECOND CONTEST TODAY

Paris and Winchester Meet in Second Championship Tilt This Afternoon.

SCHENEBERG TO HEAVE.

McKernan and His Men Will Put Up Best—Game Here Tomorrow Afternoon.

"We can't always tell what will happen as base ball is very uncertain," said Manager McKernan, just before the club left this morning for Winchester for the second game of the championship series with the Hustlers there this afternoon, "but rest assured we will do our best to win the second game of the series this afternoon. I am confident we have our rivals for the pennant honor outclassed when it comes to ball playing, but a break of ill luck may turn the tide in their favor."

Manager McKernan will pin his faith in "Cyclone" Jack Scheneberg to deliver the goods for the locals this afternoon, and is confident the big fellow will put up an assortment of benders that will completely mystify Coleman and his hustling Hustlers.

Since his advent in the Blue Grass League this season Scheneberg has won twelve straight games, coming out the best in every contest he has pitched, and it is hoped the proverbial "thirteen" will overlook the star twirler of the local aggregation this afternoon.

All of the Paris players are in the best of condition and a day of rest yesterday should have put their batting eyes in such condition as to make it extremely uncomfortable for the Hustler hurler who will officiate in the second game of the series.

In all probability Coleman will send Friedley, the star hurler, acquired from the Maysville club, to the mound this afternoon. In the last tilt of the regular season Friedley was pitted against Paris but went down in defeat by a score of 5 to 0.

Tomorrow afternoon the first game of the championship series will be played on the local grounds, when it is expected Hauser will be on the mound for the locals.

Wants Estate Settled.

Robt. C. Talbott, of Paris, administrator of the estate of the late Isaac N. Ranck, of near Paris, filed a petition in the Payette Circuit Court asking the matter be referred to the Master Commissioner to advertise for the report on claims, hear proof on same and to settle the accounts of the administrator.

Bacon Calls Russell.

President J. W. Bacon, of the Paris club of the Blue Grass League, has addressed the following letter to Mr. Joe Nolan, sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

Paris, Ky., Sept. 8, 1911.
"Joseph Nolan, Sporting Editor The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Friend Nolan—As there seems to be some little controversy in regard to a proposed series of games between the Maysville club and the Paris team I am writing you to straighten out the matter.

"I was told that Mr. Russell, the President of the Maysville club had stated to Mr. George S. Varden, of the firm of G. S. Varden & Son, that he would bet $1,000 that his club could beat the Paris team three games out of five on neutral grounds. I at once put up $500 with Mr. Varden, and feel sure that Mr. Russell knew this was a fact. However, I saw in yesterday's Enquirer that Russell's money was up and that our money was not up.

"Now, I am enclosing you a certified check for $1,000, and make this proposition: We will play the Maysville team a series of best three in five for $1,000 a side and the entire gate receipts, all games to be played on neutral grounds, Lexington or Cincinnati preferred. Games to be umpired by Steve Kane, the old National League umpire. The players that take part in these games are to be the ones that finished the season with their respective teams. Games to be played after the present series with Winchester are finished. I trust this will not inconvenience you in any way. With best wishes for you personally, I am

"Your friend,
"J. W. BACON.

CUNNINGHAM ARRESTED

Upon a warrant charging manslaughter Robert Cunningham, of Lexington, who drove the ill-fated automobile in the wreck of which Glenn Elkins was killed and Howerton Gratz probably fatally injured, was arrested in Lexington this morning.

The warrant was issued from the Bourbon Court and Cunningham was placed under arrest by Detective D. B. Veal who came to Paris with his prisoner on the 11 o'clock car.

Cunningham executed bond in the sum of $500 with his father, C. D. Cunningham as surety. His trial is set for next Wednesday.
