THE SACRED SEA OF GALILEE

Fishermen Work Similarly There Today as They Did in the Time of Christ.

Jerusalem, Palestine.—No sheet of water in the world has such sacred and historic associations as the sea of Galilee in Northern Palestine. It is also known as the Sea of Tiberias, Lake Gennesaret and in the Bible other names designate it, while the Arabs know it as Bahr Tubariyeh. It is situated north of the Dead sea and is connected with that body of water by the Jordan. The Sea of Galilee was the scene of Christ's ministry and of many miracles and on its shores were many cities and villages, almost all of which now, with the exception of Tiberias, are uninhabited.

From the hills surrounding Tiberias one can look down upon the Sea of Galilee, a blue lake, pear-shaped in design, and hemmed about with a vast ring of green hills. The waters of the lake abound now as in New Testament times with a variety of excellent fish, and boats almost as primitive as in the days of Christ are employed in catching them.

Solitary fishermen may also be seen wading out in the blue waters. These men carry a circular net of fine twine, small in the mesh and weighted with pieces of lead around the edge. To the center of the net a long cord is fastened. The fisherman holds the net over his left arm and wades waist deep in the water. When he spies a shoal of fish he casts the net over them and the leaden weights cause it to sink. Then the rope is pulled and the leaden weights are drawn together, imprisoning the fish in the net.

CHICAGO POLICE MONUMENT

Stands in Memory of Those Killed in Haymarket Riot Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Chicago.—Most readers probably have read of the Haymarket riot which occurred in Chicago twenty-five years ago. During this trouble the first bomb was thrown in Chicago. Seven policemen were killed and many persons injured. The death sentence was given to four men and three were sent to prison. Shortly after a monument of a policeman was erected in memory of those who lost their lives. The inscription carved on the side of the monument reads:

Chicago Haymarket Memorial.

"In the name of the people of Illinois I command peace."

That this sentence is not taken very seriously by the present day bomb throwers can readily be seen from the fact that in the past five years more than 100 bombs have been exploded in Chicago, causing thousands of dollars in damage and no one has been convicted for these outrages. The police attribute some of the bombs to rival gambling organizations, others to labor troubles and the greater portion to the "Black Hand."

Headless, Man Runs Fifty Feet.

Oakland, Cal.—With his head practically severed from his body, Prosper Dasque, a restaurant employe in Oakland, ran for a distance of 50 feet through the halls of a lodging house, dropping dead on a rear porch of the place. The police investigated the gruesome case and learned that Dasque had hacked his head from his shoulders with a huge carving knife. He ran through the halls virtually headless in the agony of death.

ODD FARM BUILDING

Queer Structure Constructed by Kansas Farmer.

It Resembles an Ocean-Going Steamer and Contains Bathrooms, Beehives and the "Den" of the Farm's Owner.

Topeka, Kan.—Visitors to the farm of George S. Bennet, a wealthy farmer who lives near Hall's Summit in Coffey county, this state, are first impressed with what appears to be the outline of an ocean-going steamer. It is just such a caprice as might appeal to a retired sea captain, but Mr. Bennet never followed the sea, and its resemblance to a steamship is accidental.

The structure stands a short distance from the Bennet farm home, which is one of the finest in the county. It is equipped with galleries, which resemble decks, and which run entirely around it, one on the ground floor and another about fifteen feet higher up. From the top of the second deck rise two large tanks which resemble smokestacks, but which really supply water to the bathrooms below. In the second deck, also, Mr. Bennet has fitted up a den in which he spends much of his time. This gallery, or deck, is screened, and makes an ideal place to spend summer days and evenings and to sleep.

Between the upper deck and the ceiling of the lower there is a space separated by a partition of Portland cement, and this Mr. Bennet has divided into sections for bees. About thirty swarms are housed there.

The Bennet farm house is the largest in the county and is the scene of many unusual experiments. There is a farm water plant and the farm home is equipped with every water convenience.

He started to build an immense barn and had men working for nearly a year on the foundation alone. The foundation still stands but the barn has been abandoned, at least for the time being, for some other fancy.

The Bennet farm has the largest pond in all the country around. The owner constructed a 15-foot stone dam for it, working on the job about two years.

Aside from his interest in his farm, Mr. Bennet has strong religious convictions. A short time ago he conceived the idea of hiring the town band to march and play Sunday morning and evening to induce the inhabitants to go to church.

Mr. Bennet recently has been hauling straw to points over his farm. He intends to cover several acres and in the spring will burrow in the straw and put in a large quantity of soil. In it he will plant melons. He expects to have melons growing all over the straw stacks and believes this method will do much to protect the melon from ripening to full maturity.

The "ship," or prairie house, in which he sits and views the work on his farm, is built of lumber and cement and with its equipment and furnishings cost nearly $4,000.

INSIST ON DEVIL CHASERS

Gall Stones of Cattle Eagerly Purchased by Chinamen for Good Luck.

Chicago.—The market quotation on gall stones remains at $100 a pound at the stock yards here, where the article is sold as Chinese devil chasers.

A. J. Little, head of the selling department of one of the large meat packing firms, said his concern marketed about eight or nine pounds a year from the cattle slaughtered. Some of them are as big as walnuts, but most of them are no bigger than peas. They are light and few beehives have any.

All of them are bought by Japanese, who won't use them. They ship them back to Japan to be manufactured for the Chinese trade. The Chinese, beset by devils, carries a piece of carved gall stone in his pocket. He believes no power can withstand the gall stone once it has been fashioned into a sufficiently terrible shape.

Children of Fourteen Are Married.

Orange, N. J.—The romantic plans of Arthur Edward James and Ruth Jane Day, fourteen, who eloped from South Orange, were crowned with success through the capitulation of their parents. Hunger and homesickness compelled them to return, but their parents consented to their union, which was accomplished in orthodox fashion.

Success at Sea.

A youthful Canadian, who is possessed of the romantic idea of "going to sea," is meeting with much parental opposition.

"The sailor never amounts to anything, my boy," urged his prosaic father. "He works hard, has few holidays and never achieves great success."

"That's where you're mistaken," exclaimed Young Canada, triumphantly. "Look at King George! He started out as a sailor, and now he's got to be the head of the empire."—Kingston Whip.

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard therefrom.

As well known, the Daily Enquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. Each issue is alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

Solicitors for subscriptions make a handsome profit and increase the good influence of The Enquirer in the uplift of morality and industry, and for the betterment and welfare of the community. For terms write to The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.
