No More Cold Hands
PERFECTION
SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

A woman often does not notice what a cold day it is so long as she is bustling around the house. But when she sits down to her sewing and mending, she soon feels chilly.

It is then she needs a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater. Its quick, glowing heat warms up a room in next to no time.

That is the beauty of a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater. It is always ready for use; you can carry it wherever you please; and you light it only when you want it.

The Perfection Oil Heater is smokeless and odorless—a patented automatic device insures that. It is reliable, safe and economical—burns nine hours on one filling. Handsome, too—drums finished either in blue enamel or plain steel, with nickel trimmings.

when the astounding claims were first made for Bucklen's Arnica Salve but forty years of wonderful cures have proved them true, and everywhere it is now known as the best salve on earth for burns, boils, scalds, sores, cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, eczema, chapped hands, fever sores and piles. Only 25c at Oberdorfer's.

Windows in Umbrella.
An umbrella with windows is the latest in Paris. The reason given for the innovation is the difficulty of getting about on account of the danger caused by traffic, especially in wet weather.

Hose or Hosiery.
A New Rochellite whose yard needed fall attention, called at the hardware department of a New York store "I am in need of some lawn hose," he said. "Try the hosiery department, second floor," responded the young lady in charge.

Disastrous Curiosity.
The curiosity of some peasants as to what was inside an unexploded shell they found in a field near the artillery station at the village of Milosna, near Warsaw, the other morning, proved disastrous. When they attempted to open the shell it exploded, killing three of them and wounding 16.

More Home-like.
"Yes," said the soda fountain man, "since I have put a rail along the front of the counter and another on the floor for a footrest a lot of my customers seem to drink with much more comfort and satisfaction."

That Held 'Em.
Tourist—So you've stopped motor car speeding? How did you do it? Heavy fines? Native—Nope. Every fellow who was pinched had to take the judge's old maid daughter out for a 5-hour ride.—Puck.

Help Yourself.
If you want to become intelligent you must take your own little pitcher to the well of knowledge and dip it in yourself.

Shun Personalities.
Keep clear of personalities in general conversation. Talk of things, objects, thoughts. The smallest minds occupy themselves with personalities.

New Heroines.
The novelists of the day are taking the "new" women for their heroines; women whom life has struck blow after blow until they have learned the art of laughter; women who know how to jest in the face of disappointment; women who have a comforting sense of humor.

APE ON BIG SPREE WRECKS HOTEL BAR

"Dare-Devil Spike," a Native of South Africa, Raises the Devil Generally.

FIREWATER HIS FINISH

Monkey Takes Liking to Liquor and Gives Good Imitation of a Pittsburgh Millionaire on an "O Be Joyful."

New York.—John Hampton, a prosperous auto dealer, recently returned from South Africa, bringing a large ape, which he christened "Dare-Devil Spike." He and Spike found accommodations at Ike Hirschorn's hotel here, and one day Hampton let Spike "set 'em up" for everyone in the hotel bar. This gave Spike his first drink, and gave him the desire for it. Nobody minded much, however, until the monkey drifted downstairs from its master's room shortly before dawn and gave a good imitation of a Pittsburgh millionaire on a spree.

One morning recently before the bar room was opened for the day the ape appeared to have a thirst of the sort which only seasoned drinkers are supposed to possess. Spike sneaked out of Hampton's room, slid down the banister and deftly entered the bar room through an open transom. When Carl Hassenfleck, Hirschorn's lunch-counter man, appeared on the scene shortly after 5:00 a. m. he found Spike in the state of exhilaration peculiar to some college students after winning a football game.

Spike greeted Hassenfleck with a shrill cry of welcome, followed by a heavy tumbler, which missed the man's right ear only because Hassenfleck had learned to dodge in his youth. Jimmy Samponi, a porter, went to the lunch man's rescue, with the result that the two men passed an unenviable time hiding behind the lunch counter in a storm of falling steins, bottles, plates, knives, forks, and other objects. Several of Spike's outshoots, Hassenfleck said afterward, would win for him a place in a major league. Hampton was aroused from bed by employes of the hotel, who observed the excitement from afar. He entered the saloon, and Spike, delighted at fresh sport, took aim at him with the largest glass left standing.

"O, nix on that!" Hampton exclaimed. "Come on! I'll buy you a regular drink!"

The monkey instantly let a plate fall and leaped joyfully toward its master, who seized him tightly and transported him to his room to sleep off the effects of the spree. Hirschorn then took an inventory of his loss, which he conservatively estimated at "more than $50." Hampton said if he couldn't make Spike pay he'd pay himself.

Funeral for Live Corpse.

Pottsville, Pa.—Relatives of Peter Magal, who was an inmate of the Schuylkill county almshouse, several miles south of this place, were notified of his death and made preparations for his funeral. When the undertaker received the remains at Shenandoah the mourners crowded around in tears. When the casket was opened it was found the body was not that of their relative. Indignant, the family of the dead man sent the undertaker to the almshouse to get the right body. When he reached the institution he found Magal hale and hearty. The body shipped in mistake was that of Charles Gardin. It was promptly sent back and consigned to the anatomical board.

Ladies Swipe R. R. Towels.

San Francisco, Cal.—Twenty-one thousand dollars' worth of towels were "lost" by the Southern Pacific railroad last year and from that reason women who ride on its trains and boats will be compelled to furnish their own towels hereafter.
