Henry French Dies of His Injuries.

Mr. Henry French, of this city, the Louisville and Nashville switchman whose right leg and arm were cut off beneath a freight car in the South yards Thursday morning died Thursday night at the St. Joseph's Hospital. An effort was made to save his life by an operation soon after he reached the hospital Thursday morning but his condition was practically hopeless from the time he reached the institution.

His remains were brought to this city Friday afternoon in Hinton's ambulance and taken to his late home in Henry Addition.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at the residence, services being conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. The remains were interred in the Paris cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Dr. Wm. Kenney, Dr. C. G. Daugherty, Messrs. J. H. Moreland, Ollie Bishop, C. B. Alexander and Thos. Woodall.
