Painfully Scalded.
Stanley Case, an employe of the Paris Gas and Electric Co., was painfully scalded about the face and arms when he threw into the cinder pit, which was filled with water a quantity of hot coals. Case is employed as firman at the gas plant and was removing the cinders from beneath one of the retorts, thinking another of the employes had removed the water from beneath the boiler. He dropped the hot cinders in the water and the steam emitting caught him before he could get away and he was painfully scalded. His injuries are not dangerous.

Campaign Against the Fly.
In co-operating with the American Civic Association, the civic committee of the Paris Literary Club will, during this season, wage an active warfare against the housefly and will make every effort to prove that the practical extermination of this dangerous pest is by no means an impossibility. To this end, the committee asks the cooperation of every citizen in making a vigorous attack upon their breeding places. The committee will also put up fly posters in conspicuous places, visit the schools and interest the children in the importance of the campaign against this common enemy, distributing literature, and use every effort known to prevent the breeding of these dangerous pests that leave the seeds of death in their path.

W. C. T. U. Convention Held Here.

The Seventh District Convention of the W. C. T. U. was held in this city Tuesday. The sessions were held in the auditorium of the Christian Church and about fifty delegates were in attendance. Not all of the unions in the district were represented, those being represented and visitors from Chillicothe, Lexington, Arlington, Winchester, Cynthiana, Lexington Y. P. B., Carlisle, Lexington Central and Paris. The opening hours of the convention were taken up with devotional exercises words of welcome and response, reports of the officers, the president's message, and appointment of committees. At 1:15 a. m. Miss Laura Clay State Superintendent of Franchise, delivered an address upon suffrage. After the prayer service, at noon the meeting adjourned for lunch, which was served by the Womens Society of the Christian Church in the spacious dining room and parlor of the church.

After the devotional exercises at 1:30 p. m. the first order of business was the election of officers, which was postponed from the morning session, and resulted in the re-election of the official board.
Miss Linda Neville, of Lexington, was then introduced and spoke for fifteen minutes in regard to the work of the Kentucky Society for the prevention of blindness, and told also of the fine results of the clinics, which have been held at the W. C. T. U. Settlement School at Hindman, Ky., by Dr. J. A. Stucky and his corps of assistants.

Mrs. Sallie Jessee of North Pleasureville, was next introduced, and read an excellent paper on "The Cooperation of Missionary Societies and Temperance," a new department in the state work.
Mrs. Beauchamp then took up the school methods and discussed the different lines of W. C. T. U. work, explaining and asking and answering questions.
After the reports of the committees and discussion the meeting adjourned until 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Stuckley presided at this session also, and led in the devotional exercises. Elder J. T. Sherrard offered prayer, and an unique collection speech was made by Mrs. George Milligan, of New York, who for several months has been in Lexington.

The State President, Mrs. Beauchamp, was the speaker of the evening. The music for the evening meeting was under the direction of Prof. A. H. Morehead and good hymns and a beautiful anthem were rendered by his strong choir, with Miss Betsy Ray organist.

Dear Amy:—
When you go out into company, you want to know that you are tidy, don't you?
I never knew until I got one to use every day, what a help a dressing table was. If you haven't got one yet, Amy, go buy one. Bob will give you the money if you ask him. He, too, can then see how his clothes look before he goes out. Isn't it nice to have a husband who gets you what you want?
As always,
Lou.
