Will Not Accept Street.
By order of Mayor J. T. Hinton, City Attorney Chas. A. McMillan yesterday officially notified the National Bitumen Co. of Indianapolis, that the city of Paris would reject the repair work which is about completed on the Main street and which has been in progress for the last two weeks. Workmen are now engaged in repairing the street. The city authorities are of the opinion the work is inferior and will not accept the repairs made upon it in the past few days.

Paris Team Hits its Stride at Last.
After suffering defeat after defeat, the Paris team seems to have again come back to its stride and the prospects are now that the aggregation will pull out of the hole and within the next few weeks are expected to be at the top battling for first honors.
With the addition of several new men the locals are putting up a genuine article of ball and the fact was demonstrated at White Park yesterday afternoon when in an excellent exhibition they took the Hustlers into camp by a score of 4 to 1. Blankenship was on the mound for Paris and while he exhibited a little wildness he pitched a masterly game, holding the opposing team to three hits. Two of the total number came in one inning, which counted the only run, and after that he was invincible.
With the addition of Erhard, who was sent here by "Red" Snears, and Preston, from Huntington, the team has been strengthened to a considerable extent. Today there will be another player in uniform, a catcher, who was secured in Baltimore.
The game yesterday was transferred from Winchester, and the game scheduled here today will be played off in that city this afternoon. Wednesday and Thursday the Rivermen will be the attraction at White Park and the local management has designated Wednesday as ladies' day, when all the ladies will be admitted free.
With the Paris team playing good ball the club is deserving of the patronage of the lovers of the sport in this city. Of late the game has been played at a loss, and the pride of the local fans is appealed to that the club may keep its head above the water. Baseball, as a matter of fact, has not Paris on the map, and it should not be permitted to die out for lack of attendance. Our club is in the league to stay as long as it is sustained by the receipts. If the club must live interest should not cease. With the opening of the series with Maysville let there be one of the old-fashioned crowds in attendance. A winning team will be provided if the patronage will warrant it, and those who favor a winning team should not let the matter of a few games lost stand in the way of attendance. Let's get together and boost and win another pennant.

Mr. E. D. Baldwin, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. H. Karr, for the past two weeks, left Friday for his home at Maysville.

Mrs. K. B. Hutchings, of Lexington, arrived Friday to be present at the birthday celebration of her mother, Mrs. Belle Taylor, which took place Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Urban Swinford, of Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie ShROUT, of Owingsville, arrived Sunday as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, and to be present at the funeral of their uncle, Mr. W. F. Carpenter.

Mr. W. F. Carpenter, aged 66, died Sunday at 11:30 a. m., after a protracted illness from a complication of diseases. He was the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, and the greater part of his life has been spent in Bourbon county, two miles north of Millersburg on the farm of his father, now owned and occupied by his brother, Mr. J. H. Carpenter. He was one of the best known horsemen in Kentucky. When quite a young man he ran a farm for a few years near Fern Leaf, Mason county, with his brother, Mr. J. H. Carpenter. Later he moved to Carlisle and was engaged in the hotel business in that city, and was married early in life to Miss Howard, sister of Mrs. John W. Mock, of Millersburg. After a time he purchased a farm near Middletown, where he resided for a number of years, and made a considerable fortune. It was here that his wife died. Some fifteen years ago he sold this farm and moved to Millersburg, where he identified himself with his brother, J. H. and S. C. Carpenter, who are extensive dealers in horses and other live stock, and also the Carpenter livery business. From the time he went to farming he became interested in horses and had practically made his life since. Some twelve years ago he was again united in marriage to Miss Katherine McNamara, of Paris, who survives him. He is also survived by one married daughter, Mrs. Claud Ratcliff, of Carlisle. He has been three times elected as a member of the Millersburg City Council, which position he held at the time of his death. This makes the second member of the council who has died since last July, Mr. J. H. Warford dying on that date. Mr. Carpenter is one of six children and is survived by three brothers, Messrs. J. H. and S. C. Carpenter, of Millersburg, and Mr. Edward Carpenter, of Florida, one sister, Mrs. Mollie Conway, of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Hiram Carpenter, a brother, dying in Paris about ten years ago.
Funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, Elder Thomas Smith, pastor of the Christian Church will officiate. Interment in Millersburg cemetery.

Paris and Lexington met at White Park Friday afternoon and the locals showed some improvement in the playing, the game resulting in a score of 8 to 4 in favor of the Bourbonites. Hausler seemed to have struck his old time form and, pitching well at all stages, held the visitors at his mercy. He was very effective, striking out ten men, and kept his hits well scattered. Errors were directly responsible for three of the runs scored by the visitors. The Bourbonites hit the opposing pitcher freely and in most instances their hits were well placed and secured at opportune times.

At Lexington, Saturday, the Bourbonites accomplished another defeat over the Colts, winning in a ninth inning finish by a score of 7 to 6. The Colts were leading up to the ninth inning four runs to the good when the locals fell on to Vallandigham and pounded in six runs. Popken and Koehler pitched for Paris, and when Vallandigham weekend Cannitz went in to finish the game for the Colts. Both Eddington and Goodman secured home runs in this game, the former getting two, while in the last inning Goodman sent one over the fence for a home run, scoring one man ahead of him.

Sunday afternoon Paris and Lexington met in the final game of the series, which took ten innings to decide, the score being a duplicate of that of the day before, only Lexington was at the long end. Ellis brought the game to a close in the tenth with a home run, ending the agony. Paris came from away back and tied the score in the eighth, after the Colts had assumed a good substantial lead of four runs in the first session and two in the third. Errors were frequent on the part of the Lexington team, which greatly assisted the locals. Harold scored the run which put the contest in doubt by putting the ball over the fence for a home run. The Bourbonites showed some improvement over their form of the week past, hitting the ball freely and at times when hits count the most.
