

Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

SAVES LIFE OF BOY; WANTS HERO MEDAL

Yet Cleveland Lad Would Take "Three Bucks" or Life Saver's Job Instead.

Cleveland, O.—"Here's my chance to be a hero and get a Carnegie medal," said Frank Patterson, twelve years old, as he threw off his coat, jumped into the Cuyahoga river at the foot of Main avenue and saved four-year-old Willie King from drowning the other afternoon.

Instead of hurrying home to change his clothes after making the rescue, Frank ran to the West Twenty-ninth street station and notified Sergeant O'Donahue of the accident.

"You're a brave lad," was O'Donahue's comment. "It's a cinch I'm a brave kid, all right, but where's my Carnegie medal?"

al?" Frank answered with chattering teeth. "Don't I get it?"

O'Donahue then explained that he would notify the Carnegie hero medal commission and advised the boy to hasten home.

"Well, don't I even get three bucks for it?" Frank asked. "I understand when a kid saves another kid he gets three bucks. How about it? I'll tell you what.

"You can keep the medal and the dough if you fix it up for me to be a regular life-saver. I always wanted to be a life-saver. I'm a good swimmer," he added as he left.

With several companions the King boy was playing on a sand scow tied to the Sycamore slip when he lost his balance and fell overboard. Frank leaped from the scow and pushed the boy aboard.

MATRON LASHES A SHERIFF.

Woman Retaliates for Arrest by Chastisement Before Durango, Colo., Pedestrians.

Durango, Colo.—The pedestrians on the main street of this city, late the other afternoon, were entertained with a horsewhipping affair when former Deputy Sheriff Frank Wilkerson of La Plata county received a beating at the hands of Mrs. A. Webb, a former resident of Animas City, but now of the Fort Lewis Mesa near this city.

Wilkerson had the woman arrested on the charge of having stolen some implements and clothes. Mrs. Webb was acquitted in a justice's court and a short time later she met Wilkerson on the street. She drew forth a short piece of rawhide which she had concealed in her clothing and Wilkerson, anticipating what was coming, grabbed her by the arms. He had no sooner let go of her than she dealt him a vicious blow across the face with the rawhide and followed it up with a second.

Deep red lines marked the course of the rawhide across Wilkerson's face as he walked away with a smile. He did not attempt to defend himself and did not strike back.

Your Dollar Buys More

When you buy a Studebaker-E-M-F "30" or Studebaker-Flanders "20" you get more for your money, dollar for dollar, than in any other car built.

There may be other good cars—but what is their price? That's the rub. If they really are good cars, they necessarily cost more because comparatively few are built. Some poor cars, you know, are high priced too, so that the dealer can fool you by cutting the price. What a car is really worth, not what it costs, should be your standard.

The Studebaker Corporation has the largest and best automobile factories in the world. We could build and sell any competing car today for less money than its present price. In your Studebaker-E-M-F "30" or Flanders "20" you get full value, because the biggest factories and the best brains in the industry build these cars.

Studebaker-E-M-F "30" Touring Car, standard equipped, f. o. b. Detroit $1100. Equipped as above with Top, Windshield, Prest-O-Lite Tank and Speedometer, f. o. b. Detroit $1190.
