The Ebenezer Presbyterian of the Southern Presbyterian Church will convene at the Presbyterian church here, beginning Tuesday night. This meeting promise to be one of unusual interest, inasmuch as the laymen meeting will be held in connection with it. Several celebrities have been invited, among whom is Gen. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville. The Presbytery will open Tuesday evening with a short session. Wednesday will be devoted to the laymen's meeting, with a banquet to the laymen, Wednesday night. Thursday the Presbytery will resume its work, closing Thursday night.

The formal opening of the M. F. C. took place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in the College chapel, which was well-filled. The larger part of the audience was made up of ladies. Short addresses were made by Rev. W. A. Switt, retiring pastor of the Methodist church, after which Dr. Fisher, president of the College, made a short talk and some important announcements. Rev. J. D. Redd, the new pastor of the Methodist church, also made a short address. The boarding department of the school is entirely filled, and if others come they must take lodging outside of the College. The domestic science department is one of the new features of the school, and many of the young ladies of the town will doubtless take advantage of this department. The College will also conduct a lyceum concert course, the first number of which will be given in October. The institution is opening under brilliant prospects, and this bids fair to be one of the most successful years from every point in its history.

Fall Festival Next Week.

The Fall Festival, under the auspices of the local tent of Maccabees, will begin Monday. The Kraus Carnival Company, one of the best in the country, has been engaged for the occasion and the week promises to be one great round of pleasure.
 This year, as in each year past, the Kraus Carnival Company has added new attractions and surprises for the public, found and perfected only by great labor, patience and skill and with the outlay of a great deal of money.
 The repertoire of new ideas and novelties advanced are above the old stereotyped carnivals of a few years ago. The new attractions, new riding devices, the new fun factories are of the most unique and sensational absolute from all others and are receiving enthusiastic praise from the press and public. The motto of the Kraus Shows has ever been: "Cleanliness and Morality," and this season it will be no exception to the rule. Nothing of a rough or rowdy nature is permitted on the carnival grounds.
 The free attraction will be Miss Emma Maier, the champion lady swimmer of the world who will give an exhibition of fancy swimming and diving after which she will mount a ladder 75 feet in the air and dive into a tank containing three and a half feet of water. Miss Maier is said to be the most daring lady in the world.
 Miss Maier will give her exhibition of swimming and diving afternoon and evenings, during the week.

G. R. Keller Succumbs After Short Illness.

"After an illness of only a few days, Green R. Keller, editor of the Carlisle Mercury, and Representative in the State Legislature from the Nicholas-Robertson District, died at his home in Carlisle, Wednesday evening, at 6:30 o'clock. He was one of the best-known newspaper men in this section of the State. Mr. Keller was stricken suddenly ill Tuesday afternoon. He was soon in a serious condition and his physician and relatives had no hope of his recovery from the start.
 Mr. Keller was born in Harrison county on May 7, 1845. He was the son of Noah and Elizabeth Keller and received his education in the common schools to the county. For a number of years he was a resident of Paris and was identified with the newspaper business. He represented Bourbon county in the Legislature during the first administration of Governor James B. McCreary thirty-six years ago, and has been the Clerk of that body several times since. Last year he was elected as representative from the Nicholas-Robertson District.
 Mr. Keller was the founder of the Cynthiana Democrat, which he subsequently sold and embarked in the newspaper business in Paris. His first venture here was Saturday Night, published first in 1876. Later he was engaged in the publication of a newspaper and in partnership with the late W. A. Johnson.
 Mr. Keller, in connection with the late J. M. McCann in 1876 edited and published a history of Paris, which contained many interesting sketches of the early history of the city, and a copy of which is still preserved in the News office. In 1882 Mr. Keller purchased the Carlisle Mercury which he has owned and published ever since.
 At the outbreak of the Civil War the sympathies of Mr. Keller went to the Southland. In September, 1862, he enlisted in Company C, Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, the company being formed by Capt. Harry Bedford. He was in the brigade of Gen. Buford, but was later transferred to the command of General John H. Morgan. Being brave and fearless he was always at the front in all of the engagements in which his command participated. He followed his leader through Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio, and was taken a prisoner at Buffington's Island where the command, overwhelmed by Union troops, surrendered after one of the most daring raids in the history of the struggle.
 With his comrades, Mr. Keller was confined in a Northern prison for a period of fourteen months. Following the close of the war he returned to his native State. He has always been prominently identified with the interests of the Confederate Veterans and did much toward the establishment of the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, and was also prominent in the efforts to secure a pension for the aged ex-confederates.
 Mr. Keller was the Democratic nominee in the Third District in 1897 and was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Auditor before the Music Hall Convention in 1899. In 1870 he married Miss Fannie Holton, of Mason county. He was a member of Daugherty Lodge No. 65, F. and A. M., and of the Christian Church. The funeral services will be held at the home on Main street Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and the Masons and Confederate Veterans will have a prominent part in the services.
 He was the only surviving son of Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Cynthiana, who is eighty-seven years of age, and who was at his bedside when he died. Two sons—Mr. Stanley Keller, of Carlisle, and Dr. Harvey Keller, of Louisville, also survive.

Work Progressing Rapidly.

Work of improving the room in the Schwartz building, at the corner of Sixth and Main street, which will be occupied by the Peoples' Bank, is progressing rapidly.
 The work on the interior is being pushed and yesterday workmen began tearing away the brick front, which will be replaced with white brick, giving it an attractive appearance.
 A call has been issued to the stockholders for ten per cent. of the amount of stock subscribed, to be payable Saturday. Mr. Sias Bedford, cashier of the bank, is ready to receive the money from the stockholders.

Nineteen Miles a Second

without a jar, shock or disturbance, is the awful speed of our earth through space. We wonder at such ease of nature's movement, and so do those who take Dr. King's New Life Pills. No gripping, no distress, just thorough work that brings good health and fine feelings. 25 cents at Oberdorfer's.

Thousands Attend Democratic Rally.

Yesterday was a glorious day for Kentucky Democracy, when thousands from all parts of Kentucky assembled at Lexington to attend the opening of the campaign. The hosts began to arrive early in the morning, special trains from all parts of Kentucky carrying large delegations, rolled into the Fayette capital.
 Among the distinguished visitors who were heard on the speakers' stand were Speaker Champ Clark of the National House of Representatives; United States Senator Thos. P. Gore, of Oklahoma; Senator-elect Ollie M. James, Congressman Swager Sherley, Ben Johnson, J. Campbell Cantrill, A. O. Stanley, Gov. McCreary, Lieut. Gov. McDermott, former Congressman W. P. Kimball, John S. Rhea and others.
 Bourbon county sent a large delegation to the gathering, it being estimated that four hundred Democrats took advantage of the opportunity to attend the rally, which was pronounced to be the greatest ever held in the State.
 Headed by the High School Band, a large number went on the early morning cars, while each car following was crowded to the guards. The gigantic parade was the feature of the gathering, and after forming a march was made to Woodland Park, where the marching thousands found plenty to eat in the shape of barbecued meats and burgoo.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—The attendance at the State Fair for the entire week was 98,430, an increase of 9,421 over last year.
 —Owing to the prevalence of scabies and foot rot in Ohio, Live Stock Inspector William Mitchell, of Mason county, has received instructions not to allow any sheep from that State to cross the Ohio river into Mason county. Reports from the Ohio side of the river say that the disease is spreading, although it has not made its appearance in that county. Inspector Mitchell is keeping a close eye on shippers of live stock and has notified them of the quarantine.
 —GEORGETOWN COURT — The News reports, Georgetown court as follows: "Yesterday was 'mule colt' day in Georgetown and the number of colts on sale exceeded any former September court day; for a number of years past. While a good many of the colts were unsold at the close of the day, yet the vast majority of them changed hands at fairly good prices. There was a scarcity of the real toppy kind, and this class was brisk and sold at strong prices, bringing from $85 up to $115 per head. The second class mules brought from $60 to $75, while the common grade that found buyers were disposed of at from $45 to $55.
 "There was about 250 head of cattle on the market. Anything with quality from calves to feeders, bought good strong prices, but the majority of the offerings were the 'foreign' kind, and on this kind the bidding was not so brisk."

Pacing Kings.

The Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association seems to have done wisely in offering a guaranteed stake of $3,000 for pacers of the 2:05 class, for it is now almost certain that for the first time in 1912 there will be a meeting of the four cracks, viz: Joe Patchen 2nd, Batrden Direct, Jones Gentry and King Onward, the latter being the only horse that has defeated Joe Patchen 2nd during the season.
 Jones Gentry is unbeaten; Joe Patchen 2nd has lost but one race; Batrden Direct but one, and that through an accident, and many of the Canadian contingent stand ready to back the wonderful pony King Onward against any one of the three. This will certainly be a race among Kings, and moreover as the four Kings of the year have not yet met, the battle will be a royal one and worth going many hundred miles to see. This race and the Kentucky Futurity are carded for October, the first day of Lexington's great trots.
