

THEATRICAL.

THE COLUMBIA.

Quite a furore in the film circles was created when the Mutual Film Corporation advised the Columbia that they had been given the exclusive right to present all and any of their releases in this city.

This corporation releases the Than-houser, Reliance, Kay-Bee, Broncho, and others, and produce such pictures as "Custer's Last Fight," "The Invaders," "Women in White," "Hazel Kirk," "His Squaw," and other similar subjects.

All of these pictures have been or will be shown at the Columbia Theatre or are booked for future presentation.

For Thursday, December 19, "The Invaders" will be shown for the first time in this city. This is a three reel feature picture by the Kay-Bee Company, and produced on the same stupendous scale as "Custer's Last Fight," which was made by the same company.

For Friday, December 27, the great religious picture, "The Star of Bethlehem," is to be presented with special music and singing. This picture is pronounced by the clergy as being the greatest picture of the kind ever presented. It is made by the Than-houser Company which alone guarantees perfection. This picture will be shown in this city exactly three days after it is released, thus showing that the management is leaving no stone unturned to give the lovers of high class pictures the best to be had in motion photography.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—A large tobacco barn containing 7,000 pounds of tobacco, belonging to Mike O'Connell, of Carlisle, was destroyed by fire Friday night. Loss about $1,500 with $550 insurance. When the blaze was discovered citizens of Carlisle thought one of the large loose leaf warehouses was on fire and intense excitement prevailed.

—Speculators all over the Burley belt are active and many sales in every county are noted at from 9 to 15 cents per pound.

—Dressed chickens sell at 20 cents per pound. Dressed turkeys have reached the record price of 30 cents per pound retail.

—Bohon & Young, of Lebanon, sold to the Hudson Mule Company, of Atlanta, Georgia, last week 70 fat cotton mules at $217.50 per head.

—It is estimated that the turkey crop of Owen county this year will bring over $50,000. This business has grown to this dimension within the past few years, so one that was regarded as precarious pin money for housewives.

Leather Couches.

A leather couch would make an ideal Christmas present for the wife. Have one put aside.

AARON MCCONNELL.

The cadets of M. M. L., assisted by Misses Ruth McClintock, Martha Smith, Nettie Hurst and Elizabeth Ingels put on the drama, "Diamonds and Hearts," at the drill hall Friday evening to a large audience. It was interesting and was well played by the cadets. A brief informal reception in the hall followed the play.

Don't fail to see our line of Christmas candies, nuts and fruits. Our candies cannot be duplicated elsewhere for the money. Headquarters for confections.

M. P. WELLS.

A large audience was present at the special services held at the Methodist church, Sunday night. Presiding Elder Southgate made a short address and a pleasing musical program of vocal solos, choral work, violin solos and duets was rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller were given quite a surprise Friday afternoon from three until five by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Best, their niece and nephew, who reside with them, the occasion being the forty-first anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. Relatives and a number of friends had been invited to the Miller home at the hours named by Mr. and Mrs. Best without the knowledge of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. It was a happy event and was much appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Miller. The first of January Mr. Miller retires from the firm of Miller & Best, and will be succeeded by Mr. E. C. Hawkins.

Miss Ethel Dewitt, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dewitt, near this city, and Mr. Rufus L. Mr. Craig has also secured the agency of a well known car which he will handle in connection with his other business.

To Cut Fire Risks.

Many of the familiar Christmas decorations, which have been used for generations in New York, will disappear this year as the result of a decision by the New York Board of Fire Underwriters. A letter is to be sent this week to every holder of fire insurance policy in the city, which reads: "Your attention is called to the fact that the introduction about premises of Christmas greens and other inflammable materials, such as cotton to represent snow, constitutes an additional fire hazard and will not be permitted."

—Prof. J. M. Scott, of Jacksonville, sold a crop of tobacco last week at 15 cents a pound.

RELIGIOUS.

—Mrs. Carrie A. Lehman, of Louisville, who is in the city in the interest of the Howard Association of Chicago, spoke at the close of the sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and at the Christian church in the evening.
