Burns Cause Death of Child.

Her body burned in a horrible manner as a result of her clothing igniting from a piece of wood with which she and a little sister were playing in a fire, caused the death of Mary Frances Earlywine, aged five years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Earlywine, who reside on the farm of Mrs. I. N. Brown, near Millersburg.

The accident occurred Wednesday about noon and the child lived until six o'clock when death ensued, relieving the little sufferer.

Mrs. Earlywine, who was in another part of the house, had left the eldest daughter to care for her little sister, about one year of age, while she attended to some household duties. In the room where the children were playing was a stove, the door of which was opened by the child, who with a small piece of wood began playing in the fire.

The mother was attracted by the screams of the little girl and rushing into the room found her entire body enveloped in flames. The small piece of wood lying near the stove told the story of how the accident occurred. Mrs. Earlywine made a frantic effort to extinguish the flames which had almost consumed the clothing on the girl and in doing so was burned considerably about the hands and arms.

The body of the child was burned almost to a crisp. Its hair was burned off, its face seared and while crying in its agony it had inhaled the flames from the burning garments.

Dr. Dailey from Millersburg, was summoned to the home and administered to the suffering child, but to no avail, and it expired a few hours later.

Mr. and Mrs. Earlywine moved to Bourbon from Nicholas county recently and have been tenantry the farm of Mrs. Brown. The body of the infant will be taken to Nicholas county for burial today.

Russell President of Grassers.

At a meeting called by Captain William Neal, of Louisville, who resigned his position last fall as president of the Blue Grass League, at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington yesterday, Thomas M. Russell, of Maysville, was elected president, and Thomas Sheets, president of the Lexington club, was elected secretary and treasurer. Captain Neal retains his position as director of the league. At the last meeting for this purpose, William Blanton, of Frankfort, was chosen president but declined to accept.

All of the directors reported their clubs to be in fairly prosperous condition, and assured the others that they would be in a league stronger than ever this year. The matter of placing teams in Louisville and Covington, making an eight club league, was again brought up, and it was decided to continue efforts toward these two cities.

Those present at the meeting were William Neal, Louisville; James Summers and Thomas Russell, Maysville; William Shire, Paris; A. B. Coleman, Frankfort; J. Grider, Richmond, and Thomas Sheets, Lexington.

The selection of Mr. Russell to head the Blue Grass League is highly gratifying to the Paris base ball fans, who have the highest regard for the integrity of the new official and with his thorough knowledge of base ball he is well equipped to control the affairs of the league.

In accepting the position to which he had been elected Mr. Russell thanked the league magnates for the compliment they had bestowed upon him and stated he was not in the game for the money that could be made out of the position as president. Mr. Russell stated that if the directors would elect a secretary who would act in that capacity without a salary he would readily turn the salary which he was to receive as president into the league treasury. The selection of Mr. Sheets as secretary followed (with the understanding there was to be no salary attached to the office) and Mr. Russell's generous offer was accepted.

DEATHS.

BOWEN.

—All that remained mortal of Mr. George W. Bowen, was consigned to its last resting place in the Paris cemetery Wednesday following a beautiful service at his late home on Fourth street, conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the Christian church.

The service was largely attended, friends of the deceased gathered to pay their last respects to the fine old gentleman soldier, farmer, official and Christian. The life of Mr. Bowen, which had passed four score and five years, was one of vicissitudes and varying fortune, but every change, under its duties and obligations, was met with quiet dignity and unwavering adherence to principle, enduring every hardship like a good soldier.

Rev. Ellis paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mr. Bowen, who as a soldier, neighbor and Christian gentleman, was true and loyal.

At the funeral a quartette composed of Mrs. Fannie Sutherland, Miss Julia O'Brien, Dr. Frank Fithian and Mr. Rav Clark sang sweetly "Lead Kindly Light," and "Some Sweet Day."

A number of Confederate veterans were in attendance, and the casket was covered with exquisite floral tributes, some of the designs being in red and white, and a Confederate flag was placed among the blossoms.
