Suti Grows Out of Accident.
The Lexington Herald of Friday contained the following:
"C. M. Best of Bourbon County, was made the defendant in a $5,000 damage suit filed in the Fayette Circuit Court Thursday afternoon, by M. P. York of Fayette county, who alleges that on February 26, he was seriously injured by being run down with an automobile. York states that he was exercising proper care for his own safety and was crossing North Broadway to catch a street car when Best by and through his servant and agent ran the car against him, knocking him to the ground. He alleges that Best was running the automobile at an excessive rate of speed. Wallace Muir is attorney for the plaintiff."
