PROMINENT SURGEON WILL LOCATE IN THIS CITY

Dr. John Mason Williams, who was in this city last week looking over the field with a view of locating here, has decided to open an office in Paris and will move with his family to this city in a few days. Dr. Williams, who practiced surgery with much success in Louisville, where he gained quite a reputation, has been in the West on account of the health of his wife, returned to Kentucky several weeks ago. He is a very intimate friend of Dr. W. T. Brooks, of this city, and while a visitor in Paris last week was a guest at his home on Duncan avenue.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

—Miss Ella Welsh is ill at her home on Williams street.
—Miss Maude Wood has returned from a delightful trip to Panama.
—Miss Kate Alexander will leave next week for a visit in Louisville.
—Rev. W. E. Ellis was a visitor in Cincinnati several days this week.
—Mrs. Rebecca Hughes is improving after an illness of several days.
—Miss Rosina Elder has returned from a visit to relatives in Richmond.
—Mr. Eugene McCulloch, of Louisville, is a guest at the home of Dr. C. J. Clarke.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander will leave next week for a trip to Chicago and New York.
—Mrs. Jesse, of Versailles, has returned home after a visit of a month with Mrs. L. C. Haley.
—Mr. John Hildreth, of New York, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Carrie Fisher, on High street.
—Mrs. E. Daum, of Lexington, has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Everett Peterson, in this city.
—Miss Bessie Lee Ewalt has returned to her home in Shawhan after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. A. T. Crawford, in Louisville.
—Mrs. Henry Craig, of Georgetown, has been the guest for several days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davis, at their home in this city.
—Hon. Cassius M. Clay, of Bourbon, underwent a slight operation at the St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, Saturday, from the effects of which he is recovering rapidly.
—Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Mangum, Mrs. W. H. Clark, Misses Hattie Clark and Tillie Larue attended the meeting of the Kentucky Baptist Association in Lexington Wednesday.

—Mrs. Rebecca Freeman, Mrs. C. J. Clark, Messrs. Dennis Snapp and W. C. Gentry attended the wedding of Miss Katherine Campbell to Rev. O. B. Crockett, at Nicholasville, Wednesday night.
—The following handsomely engraved invitations have been issued:
Mrs. Joseph M. Hall invites you to meet
Mrs. William Keane Ferguson
Mrs. William Allen Clarke
Wednesday, November the nineteenth from three to six o'clock
124 Duncan Avenue Paris, Ky.
—Miss Irene Bramblett, the bright and attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bramblett, will entertain the members of the Junior Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, in White Addition from one to three o'clock. After the entertainment at the home the children will be given a party to the Alamo Theatre.
—Mrs. Joseph M. Hall has issued handsome invitations for a reception which she is giving on the nineteenth to compliment two lovely young brides of the month—Mrs. William Allen Clarke, of Cincinnati, who was the popular and attractive miss of the house, Miss Martha Waller; Mrs. William Kenney Ferguson, who was the beautiful daughter of our neighboring county of Scott, Miss Sue Ford Offutt.

—James B. Haggan, master of Elmdorf farm, in Fayette county, purchased Wednesday the noted racer, Ballot, winner of the American and English Stakes, valued at over a million dollars, by Victor, out of Sorrento, from John E. Madden, of Lexington, for $50,000, and from Barney Schrieber, of Spring Valley, Mo., the imported English stallion, Sain, for $5,000. Both horses will be placed at Elmdorf Farm, where three years ago Haggan had nearly a thousand thoroughbred stallions, mares and colts. Mr. Haggan will re-enter thoroughbred racing on a large scale. He formerly was the most extensive horse breeder in America, but sold all his horses to English, German and Argentine turfmen.
—Anna Louis and Prston White entertained with a Hallowe'en party on Friday night, Oct. 31, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, on the Lexington pike.
The guests were disguised as witch and hosts and many games carrying out the Hallowe'en idea were participated in. One happy feature of the evening which was greatly enjoyed was the fortune-teller, one of the guests, Miss Lola Gray, disguised as a witch. It is said that each child was told things concerning their past history that not one of them doubted the fortune teller's prophetic phrases.

The home was attractively decorated for the occasion with pumpkins and jack o' lanterns all over the house in the game of hearts Thomas McClintock won the first prize, a box of candy, and the second prize was awarded to Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Lexington.
