MUSICAL PLAY FOR BENEFIT OF PRESBYTERIAN AID SOCIETY.

There is nothing, perhaps, which stimulates the interest of the home folks more than an entertainment given by local societies or churches, with a cast including a number of musicians and players. The fact that the ladies of the Pastor's Aid Society have arranged to stage the musical fantasy, "FIFI of the Toyshop," makes it very apparent that they are alive to the likes of Paris residents. "FIFI" is now being rehearsed by Mr. J. Franklin Lewis, of Philadelphia, who states that the talent in Paris is very good, and expects to stage "FIFI" at its best. The fantasy "FIFI" is somewhat on the order of "Babes in Toyland," "Peter Pan," and other spectacular successes. Its presentation at the Paris Grand Opera House will allow ample opportunity for effective and elaborate setting. The date set for the production is January 30.

"FIFI" is a dream of a toyman's daughter, who goes to sleep and dreams that everything becomes animated. The live dolls afford many laughs and beautiful dances, the music being very catchy.

C. M. CLAY DISPERSAL SALE IS HELD WEDNESDAY

W. R. Shackelford and T. J. Curtis, executors of the estate of the late C. M. Clay, sold Wednesday the stock, crop and farming implements at the country home, "Auvergne," on the Winchester pike. The sale was one of the best ever held in Bourbon county.

A large crowd from a half-dozen or more counties was in attendance, despite the piercing cold wind which blew almost a gale throughout the day.

The sale commenced soon after 9 o'clock, with Mr. Thomas Chenault, of Richmond, acting as auctioneer, and Mr. W. G. McClintock, of Paris, clerk. The bidding from the beginning was spirited, and the following are some of the prices realized:

Twenty-two head of work mules, most of them old, brought from $8 to $160 per head; fourteen black cows, $60 to $115; 150 shoats, average 120 pounds, 9 cents per pound; eleven horses, from $10 to $120; 600 sheep $5 per head; thirty cattle, $74.50 per head; thirty cattle, $75; thirty cattle $77; and thirty-three cattle, $57.50 per head; nine black yearling steers, $62.50 each; seven black heifers, $60 per head; 3,000 bushels 1913 bluegrass seed sold for 67 cents per bushel corn, $3 per shock; wheat, 90 cents per bushel; sixty tons baled hay, $16 per ton.

Farming implements of all kinds were sold, but the prices realized from them were very low.

When you loan a book you might as well make it a gift and get credit for generosity. Lending and giving a book amount to the same thing.
