JUDGE STOUT GRANTS DIVORCE TO MRS. ANNIE SHARP HOPKINS

Judge Robert L. Stout in the Circuit Court Friday granted Mrs. Annie Sharp Hopkins, of Sharpburg, Bath county, an absolute divorce from her husband, Henry T. Hopkins, of Little Rock, this county. The couple were married in Lexington, October 10, 1910.

In her petition Mrs. Hopkins prayed for an absolute divorce and asked the court to revert to her such property belonging to her as was in the hands of her husband. She alleged that during the three years of their married life Hopkins had spent upwards of $20,000 of her estate.

Before the case was submitted to Judge Stout amended petitions were filed by the plaintiff in which a portion of the allegations were omitted and a financial settlement effected out of court.

Mrs. Hopkins is a daughter of the late Walter Sharp, for years a prominent merchant of Sharpburg, Bath county.

Wallis, manager of the local office of the company, and one of the most prominent ex-Kentuckians now residing in the metropolis. Mr. Wallis, who is a former Paris man, and who was secretary of the Kentucky State Society for several years, received a magnificent desk set as a gift from the members of his staff."

News items from Winchester are as follows:

"Misses Bernadotte Brannon and Elizabeth Gregory and Messrs. Leo and Thomas Brannon and George Toohy motored to Winchester this week to be the guests of Miss Anna Mae McCourt and her attractive guests, Misses Mary Brannon and Margaret Toohy.

The dancing class of Mrs. White Varden gave a delightful german Saturday afternoon at the Elks' Hall. The occasion was one of the most beautiful of the season, and was attended by the members of the class. Invitations were issued only to the parents of the pupils, a large number responding.

The german was led by Mr. Ireland Davis and Miss Katherine Wilson and many new and attractive figures were introduced and gracefully executed. Each of the dancers carried wands of daffodils.

The colors were yellow and white, and were prettily carried out in the decorations.

Misses Stevenson, Calvert and Parrish presided at a beautifully appointed table decorated in yellow and white jonquills and violets, and served frappe.

Mrs. Edward Prichard and Miss Elizabeth Steele presided at the favor table. The favors were tiny chickens, baskets, rabbits and other Easter articles. Those present were:

"Misses Mary Brannon and Margaret Toohy, of Paris, are guests of Miss Anna Mae McCourt. Miss McCourt entertained on Wednesday evening with an informal reception in their honor. BROKEN TROLLEY WIRE MELTS GAS PIPE IN JEWELRY STORE

A trolley wire which broke and came in contact with an electric light service and grounding in a combination chandelier, caused considerable excitement in the jewelry store of A. J. Winters & Co. yesterday afternoon. The gas pipe in the chandelier was melted in several places and the gas was ignited. It was accompanied by a slight explosion which alarmed those in the store, but no damage was done. The burning gas mounted to a height of about two feet and the service was cut off until the damage could be repaired.

ESCAPES FROM PEST HOUSE; CAPTURED IN NICHOLAS CO.

Harvey Kennedy, a Nicholas county boy, escaped from the pest house near this city Friday and made his way back to Carlisle. He was just recovering from a case of small pox and was wearing the clothing that he had used about the pest house. Judge C. A. McMillan notified Judge James Mitchell, of Carlisle, who with the assistance of Dr. Spencer and C. C. Dunn, Chief of Police, located Kennedy in Dorseyville, a suburb of Carlisle. He was returned to the pest house here. The presence of the boy in Carlisle caused considerable excitement there as there has not been a case of small pox in that city in a great while, and it was feared that before he could be taken he would have come in contact with a large number of citizens.

THE FAIR STORE.

We have been in this community and in this same store, which we named "The Fair Store," now 21 years, and old-fashioned honesty is still the best policy, or we would probably not be here today. But we are still here, and will offer the entire week, or as long as they last, heavy 10-quart size Galvanized Iron Pails at 10c. each; 12-quart size at 12c. each; 14-quart size at 14c. each. Don't you want to make your home more attractive? Then why not select your wall paper now, and let one of our expert hangers put it on before the rush season is on? We still have on hand a select line of attractive patterns, bought from the National Five and Ten Cent Store, and we are disposing of them at just about half of their actual value.
