MATRIMONIAL.

HEDGES—SCOTT.

A beautiful event of Wednesday was the marriage of Miss Mattie Hedges and Mr. James Scott, both of Lexington, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clendenin, near Paris, Mrs. Clendenin being a sister of the bride. The attractive home was tastefully decorated with smilax and quantities of jonquils around on the mantels and over the doorways and windows. For the ceremony the bride and bridegroom stood in front of a mound of handsome growing plants, which formed a beautiful setting for the party. The house was darkened and softly lighted with yellow shaded candles.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hedges, who were prominent citizens of Bourbon county, and is a sister of Messrs. Ollie and Walter Hedges, of Paris.

She is a young woman of many graces of character, and possesses a large number of friends, both in Paris and Lexington, where she has made her home for several years. She wore a becoming blue cloth tailored suit, with hat to correspond, and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. The groom is a young business man of Lexington, a brother of Mr. Dorie Scott, of Paris, and of Messrs. George, Will and Ernest Scott, of Lexington. The couple were preceded into the parlor by two beautiful children, Mary Louise Clendenin and Mary Elks. The bride entered on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Clendenin, and was joined by the groom, who entered from a side door. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Ellis, after which Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for a trip and on their return will reside in Lexington. They were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful wedding gifts.

PARRISH—BRITTON.

A license was issued by County Clerk Paton Saturday, to Miss Nellie K. Parrish, of Winchester, and Mr. Edgar L. Britton, of Lexington, and the young couple were united in marriage at the Christian Church parsonage by Eld. W. E. Ellis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. R. H. Parrish, of Winchester, and is connected with the Cumberland Telephone Company, in that city. Mr. Britton is a young business man of Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Britton will reside in Lexington.

MATTOX—FEEBACK.

Miss Mattie Feedback and Mr. Albert Mattox, both of near Millersburg, were united in marriage by County Judge Rice, at Maysville, Friday afternoon.

McNAMARA—WEATHERALL.

Miss Margaret McNamara, of Covington, and Mr. Clarence Weatherall, of this city, were united in marriage late Monday evening in Cincinnati. The marriage was more of an elopement and came as a great surprise to the friends of both parties in this city.

Mr. Weatherall, accompanied by Mr. Leo Keller, went to Covington Monday morning and called on Miss McNamara, when the young woman informed her mother that she desired to make a trip to Paris to visit a friend. Accordingly arrangements were made for the trip.

Afterwards the three visited Cincinnati ostensibly to attend the picture shows, and after crossing Mr. Weatherall and Miss McNamara decided to get married, and they went at once to the home of a priest where the ceremony was performed.

The bride is pretty and attractive, and has frequently visited in this city. Mr. Weatherall is a son of Mr. J. F. Weatherall, of Paris, and is an industrious and deserving young man. He is at present engaged in business in Middlesboro, where they will reside.

DEATHS

KIMBROUGH.

Henry C. Kimbrough, 55 years old, died at his home in Lexington, Sunday evening, of tubercular trouble. Mr. Kimbrough had been ill since December 1, and for two months prior to the last few weeks spent at home, has been receiving treatment in a Louisville hospital. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. M. C. Bell, his wife and four sons. Burial was at Carlisle.

Mr. Kimbrough was formerly Master Commissioner of Nicholas county, which position he held for 16 years. Four years ago his leg was injured in a railroad accident, practically disabling him, which was lately the cause of much suffering. He was a son-in-law of Judge N. H. McNew, of Carlisle.

Mr. Kimbrough was for many years proprietor of the Kimbrough Hotel, in Carlisle, and was well-known to Paris people.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. Claud Poe and Miss Jennie Cobb.

STIVERS—ORR.

Mrs. Lula Stivers, of Latonia, and Mr. Frank Orr, of this city, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hendricks, in that city. Rev. H. C. Runyan, officiating.

Mr. Orr is an employe of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, with headquarters in this city. He is a brother of Messrs. W. E. and T. F. Orr, of Paris, and Ernest Orr.

The bride is a pretty and accomplished woman. They will reside in this city.

RELIGIOUS.

The Hutchison Sunday School, including the Home Department, will hold an After-Easter service next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. One hundred missionary eggs will be opened and the contents announced, which is to support a native worker in China. Everybody welcome at all services at the Chapel.

A BASE BALL FAN'S LAMENT.

At this season of the year when the dailies are full of the news of the spring training camps, and the opening of the big leagues only a day or two off, the minds of the local fans turn to the thoughts of baseball and mourning for the ill-fated Bluegrass League. It is a great pity that the League could not have kept up its financial end, and continue a perpetual joy. We were all spoiled by the summer ball of four seasons we had a team, and its loss is a continually mourned subject.

GOOD OPPORTUNITY.

H. F. Hillenmyer, the well-known Lexington fruit tree man, says the recent cold snap did little or no damage to the crops, and predicts large crops this year.

THIS IS THE LIMIT.

Men have rescued girls from drowning and then married them, rescued them from burning buildings and married them, stopped run-away horses and married them (not the horses, the girls), but it remained for a Paris Ky., man to give a girl the smallpox and marry her. That is about the limit in romance.—(Cynthia Democrat.

OHIO HORSEMAN BUYS FINE SADDLE MARE.

W. M. Jones & Son, of North Middletown, have sold to Dr. James P. Norton, of Bellevue, Ohio, the saddle-bred mare, Katherine Campbell 8350. She is a 4-year-old, about 15.3 hands, five-gaited and nicely mannered. She is by Brilliant King, who is a full brother to Bourbon King. Katherine Campbell is a half sister to King Boy, by Bourbon King, which Mr. Norton also bought from Jones & Son, and with which Mr. Norton won the five-gaited championship at Detroit, Mich., in 1910.

EXPENSIVE LUXURY!

According to a report compiled by J. Quincey Ward, Executive Agent of the Fish and Game Commission, the quail served by the Phoenix Hotel, at Lexington, in the fall of 1912, cost the hotel in fines and costs about $1,500. The hotel company was indicted for violation of the fish and game laws.

A man can forgive his enemies, but can't quit knocking them.
