—Bourbon College was the scene of a brilliant society event, Saturday evening, the occasion being a reception tendered by the young ladies of the junior class; and while the gathering was very enjoyable yet there prevailed a spirit of regret that this was the last social affair to be given within these walls which have echoed so many times with laughter and music on similar occasions, for this time-honored institution will soon close its doors, and those who have passed so many happy hours there and have mingled in so many gala events will be separated, and the links which have bound them to this community will be broken. The house was brilliant with lights and decorated with tropical plants and pink and white flowers. Receiving the guests were Mrs. M. G. Thompson, Mrs. Alice Ware, Misses Elizabeth Clay Mason, Myra Jacoby, Rebecca Redmon, Helen Stivers, Mary Stagg, Gladys Markham and Mabel Estes. More than one hundred guests enjoyed the delightful evening. Brick ice cream, individual cakes and mints in the party colors, were served, and the favors were artistic hand-painted cards, the work of one of the students, Miss Wash, of Frankfort.
