When it comes to tough looking things, an automobile that has been used for five years, and a corset that has been worn for five months are tied for first prize.

This is a queer world. We are all willing to lend money to a millionaire who doesn't want it, but we won't lend any to a poor man who needs it.

GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Odd Fellows convened in Frankfort, Tuesday morning, with about four hundred delegates in attendance. Grand Secretary R. G. Elliott had everything in readiness, and the session started off without delay. The following delegates attended from Bourbon Lodge No. 23, of Paris: Judge E. B. January, Messrs. P. J. McCord, A. L. Burley, Geo. M. Rose, J. T. Hill, Geo. W. Judy, S. J. Brown and Bishop Hilber.

The session was opened with an address of welcome by Major Joseph Rupert, which was responded to by Mr. Beckham Overstreet. Mr. Paul Gaines delivered a welcome in behalf of the local lodges, which was responded to by Judge M. M. Logan.

The 150 children from the Widows' and Orphan's Home, arrived Tuesday afternoon, and were extensively entertained at the Odd Fellows' Temple. At night the children gave a play for the Grand Lodge and the public at the Capital Theatre.

The next meeting will be held at Dawson Springs.

Among the important business transacted was the adoption of a twenty-cent per capita amendment and for the establishment of a home for aged and indigent Rebekas and Odd Fellows. This latter was a measure that was favored by Judge E. B. January, of this city, and has been earnestly advocated by him for years. Judge January was elected a member of the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Home at Lexington.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: M. M. Logan, Brownsville, Grand Master; Virgil P. Smith, Somerset, Deputy Grand Master; V. G. Gregory, Mayfield, Grand Warden; R. G. Elliott, Lexington, Grand Secretary; B. J. Durham, Danville, Grand Treasurer; J. Whitt Porter, Bowling Green, Grand Representative.

MASSIE HOSPITAL NOTES.

Mrs. Roy Taylor was operated on at the hospital Sunday and is getting along nicely.

Dr. George L. Rankin, who was operated on at the institution recently for appendicitis is improving.

Miss Drusie Elliott, of the county, a typhoid fever patient, is improving.

Mr. David Knox, whose foot was crushed in the L. & N. railroad yards early Wednesday morning, was brought to the hospital, where the member was amputated by Drs. Chas. G. Daugherty and A. H. Keller.

Mrs. J. H. Richards, of White's Addition, was brought to the Hospital Tuesday morning and was operated on for tumor Wednesday night by Drs. Barclay and Herrin, of Lexington, assisted by Drs. Huffman, of Millersburg, and Kenney, of Paris. The operation was successful and Mrs. Richards is getting along very nicely.

Miss Elizabeth Powell, one of the most popular members of the nursing corps of the Hospital, will leave this week to spend her vacation at her old home, Winchester.

STOCK AND FIXTURES

FOR WHAT THEY WILL BRING.

We are compelled to make great sacrifices, as our time is limited (and time is money). Remember, we have just laid in a fresh stock of winter goods, consisting of Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Men's, Boys and Children's Clothing, Ladies', Men's and Children's Shoes, Ladies' and Children's Cloaks, Millinery, Dry Goods and Notions, Comforts, Blankets and Rain Coats.

EVERYTHING MUST GO QUICKLY, REGARDLESS OF COST!

You can't afford to miss such a great money-saving opportunity. Do not wait for your neighbors to get all the bargains, and for you to pay high prices elsewhere after our stock is gone.

We have marked down everything so low as to make short work of it. Our loss is your gain.

PARIS AND MT. STERLING TO MEET ON GRIDIRON.

The football teams of the Paris and Mt. Sterling High Schools will meet on the gridiron field at the Fair Grounds Park, in Mt. Sterling, tomorrow. The game promises to be a hotly-contested one, as the teams are evenly matched and there is a great deal of rivalry between the two teams. The probable line-up of the teams for the struggle to-worrow will be:

Mt. Sterling—VanAntwerp, center; Blevins, right tackle; Kelly, left tackle; Oldham, right guard; Wyatt, left guard; Coleman, right end; Robertson, left end; Daniels, quarter back; Dehaven, left half; Nesbitt right half; Dale, fullback.

The team will be accompanied on the trip by a large number of High School "rooters."

HEAVY RAINFALL.

One of the heaviest rains in the month of October began to fall in Paris, Monday and has continued almost unceasingly since then with little prospect of relief. Government reports show that since the rain began approximately 3/4 of an inch has fallen every twenty-four hours.

The streams in the county have risen rapidly and are now bank full and running over and when the water comes down from the headwaters of Stoner, there will be a young flood in prospect.

Whatever the result may be the farmers are to a certain extent prepared. The tobacco crop has been housed and a large acreage of the corn crop is in the shock. Cattle and all kinds of stock are reported in excellent condition for the approaching winter.

In the city the downpour has caused a great deal of discomfort, but no damage. The sewers have been equal to the task of carrying off the surface water, and the new street has received a thorough flushing.

"ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY A CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION."

In view of the charitable cause of the American Red Cross Society are pleased to announce the Adams Express Company will issue their money orders free of charge, when they are sold for remittances to the American Red Cross Society, Washington, D. C. and the money orders made payable to the above society.

Respectfully,
C. E. OLLIVER, Agt.

PALMER SCHOOL HONOR ROLL.

The following students at the Palmer School are on the honor roll, as a result of work done during the month of September:

Florence Pate, general average, 95; Lorraine Brannock, 91; T. B. Brannock, Jr., 92; Jossie Brannock, 90; Thelma Brannock, 90; Luica Smith, 90; Hedgie Taylor, 90; Helen Speakes, 90; Wallace Pate, 90; Owsley Palmer Speakes, 90.

"WE TOLD YOU SO!"

The W. C. T. U. at their State convention in Winchester, Ky., have not only just gone on record again favoring "State-wide" prohibition of distilled and fermented liquors, but have passed a resolution urging State-wide prohibition of tobacco on "the same ground that it is injurious to the human system." Many think this is logical and fair.

Tobacco next!

Things are coming around to a point where a suffragette can have you arrested if you say she is effeminate.

THE ASHLAND DISTRICT EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

Those vitally interested in the educational work of the city and county are eagerly awaiting the convening in this city of the first session of the Ashland District Educational Association, which meets here Friday and Saturday, Oct. 23 and 24, in the auditorium of the City School.

Prof. T. A. Hendricks, Superintendent of the Paris Public Schools, is President of the Association; Prof. C. Prentice Lancaster, Vice-President, and Miss Mabel Robbins, Superintendent of County Schools, is Secretary-Treasurer.

The program, which has been in course of preparation by Superintendent Hendricks, embraces a variety of entertaining features.

The first days' session on Friday, Oct. 23, will be opened with invocation by Dr. O. E. Mangum, pastor of the Paris Baptist Church. Addresses will be made at the morning session by President Hendricks; Prof. R. S. Eubank; Prof. H. C. McKee, of Frankfort; Prof. M. B. Hifner, of Versailles.

At noon the guests will be tendered a luncheon by the teachers of the county schools.

The afternoon session addresses will be delivered by Prof. J. C. Waller, of Georgetown; Miss Jessie O. Yancy, County Superintendent of Schools of Mason County; Judge Harmon Stitt; Prof. T. J. Coates, of Frankfort. The High School Orchestra will furnish a program and musical selections.

The evening session will be devoted to musical program by the High School Orchestra, a vocal solo by A. L. Boatright, Choral Director of the Christian Church Choir; an address by Dr. J. G. Crabbe, President of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, and at the conclusion of the session a reception will be tendered by the teachers of the Paris Public School.

The Saturday morning session will be opened with an invocation by Rev. George Harris, rector of St. Paul's M. E. Church. The program to follow comprises addresses by President Henry S. Baker, of State University; Prof. O. V. Jones, of Owenton; Prof. Edgar C. Riley, of Burlington; President R. H. Crossfield, of Transylvania; Prof. E. F. Darnaby, of Winchester. The visitors will be entertained at luncheon at noon by the members of the County School Improvement League.

The afternoon session will be devoted to an address by Prof. Ligon, of Lexington; instrumental solos, an address by President M. B. Adams, of Georgetown College; election of officers, and the report of the Secretary-Treasurer.

The program will be published in a later issue of the News, as several details are yet to be filled out.

JAMES ALLEN SAYS.

"As an instance of what a railroad can do to a town, the discontinuance of the 'dinky' trains between Cynthiana and Paris will cause seven families of railroad employes to remove from Cynthiana.

"At Paris an evangelist is lambasting modern dances. After the war when everybody is required to disarm, maybe the boys can be persuaded to take their arms off the girls.

"You have often heard of excellent ploughboys being ruined to make mighty poor preachers and first-class carpenters transformed into jack-legged lawyers, but misfits you have with you in greatest multitudes always are perfectly good bachelors who are turned into rotten husbands.

"The Lexington Leader says 'every blast from Edward P. Morrow's bugle horn is worth a thousand votes' to the Republican party. Ed's bugle must be built like a German seige gun."

McCHESNEY A SPELLBINDER.

There is no more popular Democratic speaker in Kentucky than Harry McChesney, former Secretary of State. He is accompanying Governor Beckham and wherever he has appeared the local Democracy has been delighted with his speeches. His exposure of Gov. Wilson's administration of State affairs is one of the most instructive and entertaining chapters in the political history of Kentucky. Mr. McChesney's arraignment of Wilson was so severe that the Republican Committee refused to permit any more joint debates if McChesney was going to appear.
