THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.
Joe Guinchiglani, Jr., lives in Richmond, and Harry Giovanelli and Miss Buchiagnani live in Lexington. We are sure glad.

HAPPY NEW YEAR.
Some say it is old-fashioned sending greetings New Year's Day. But some of us still cling fondly to the good old-fashioned way. Then accept old-fashioned wishes for the sake of old lang syne. A happy, happy New Year. Good luck to thee and thine.

CLAY'S SAUSAGE.

SALOON ROBBED.
Thieves forced the front door of Harry Saloshin's saloon, on Seventh Street, Christmas night, and secured five dollars and several bottles of whiskey. The money drawer contained $5.20. The thieves kindly left the twenty cents for a nest egg for the next day's business.

WILL LIVE IN PARIS.
Mr. Robert Collier, of Mt. Sterling, who is a member of the Bourbon Lumber Company, will with his family, remove to this city about the first of January to reside. Mr. Collier is an excellent citizen, and the business men of Paris will gladly welcome him.

THE NEW CASH SHOE STORE.
Just received a new line of Nettleton shoes in all leathers, tan, vici and chrome calf. Newest in English lasts—new shoes, new styles.

FOUND DEAD.
A colored laborer named Nelson Pickens was found dead in his bed in the negro suburb of Claysville, Friday night. He has been ill for several days. Coroner Rudolph Davis investigated the case and found that death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

THANKS.
I desire to most heartily thank each and every person who spent a nickel with me during 1914. I also solicit their trade during 1915 and hope that they may all be prosperous during the new year.
(11) J. ELVOVE.

TEACHERS ON VACATION.
A well earned vacation is being enjoyed by the teachers of the North Middletown Classical and Business College during the Christmas holidays. Prof. and Mrs. L. C. Anderson are in Richmond, Ind., Miss Ruby Redwitz went to her old home in Harrodsburg, Miss Lillian Mason was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mason, in the county; Miss Lena Talbott is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lanceford Talbott, near North Middletown; Elder and Mrs. Christopherson decided to spend the holidays quietly at home.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.
We desire to express our thanks to the public for a most liberal patronage during the past year, especially since we have been in our new store room. We have endeavored to give full measure and weights of the best that the market affords to our patrons. We wish everyone a happy and prosperous New Year. We solicit and invite new customers to our new store and guarantee courteous and fair treatment.

TO KEEP OPEN HOUSE.
Good cheer and 1915 hospitality will be dispensed by Bourbon Aerie No. 1781, at their club rooms on next Friday, January 1. The Eagles are not niggardly when it comes to playing the host, and their "Open House" on New Year's Day will be marked by genuine good fellowship, and an abundance of the good things of life that cheer the traveler along the rugged paths and make the way smoother and the going good.
The reception committee will be made up of the following members: Judge C. A. McMillan, C. K. Thomas, George Doyle, A. S. Thompson, Geo. McWilliams, J. O. Marshall, J. S. Wiggins, M. A. Cahal, O. H. Peddicord, Wil Shire, P. Nippert, Jr., R. T. Spencer, Howard B. Carr, A. H. Morehead.

LADIES PLANNING "PANTRY SHOWER" FOR HOSPITAL.

The ladies of the Massie Memorial Hospital Board are planning a "pantry shower" for the benefit of the Hospital to be held on Friday and Saturday, January 1 and 2. They are requesting the co-operation of the good citizens of Paris and Bourbon County, and ask for contributions of jellies, preserves, and in fact delicacies of the kind that usually grace the pantry shelves. All desiring to help this worthy cause may send whatever they desire to contribute to the groceries of Logan Howard, Lavinia & Connell, or N. A. Moore & Co's., if they do not send them direct to the Hospital. This will be the first time in the history of the city, probably when such an appeal has been made, and they feel that the response will be immediate and generous. They wish to state in advance that every contribution made will be greatly appreciated.

Collins, of Bourbon.

—The Cynthiana Log Cabin says:—
"Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reickel happily celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding on last Saturday, Dec. 19th. The celebration was in the nature of a family re-union and their children were all present to enjoy the elegant family dinner on that day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Reickel, Mrs. Carrie Reickel Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Felix, of Cincinnati, Mrs. George Foster, and Mrs. John L. Robinson. Mrs. Reickel was formerly Miss Mary Hite and married Mr. Reickel at Paris, Ky., on Dec. 19, 1854. They came to Cynthiana in 1857, since which time they have resided here and have won for themselves a high place in the esteem of the people of this community.
Mrs. Reickel was a sister of the late Mr. W. A. Hill, of Paris, and Miss Mattie Hite, now residing in Cincinnati, and of Wm. O. Hite, and John W.

Hite, both deceased, and well-known residents of Paris.

—Mrs. Wm. Dodd, who has been seriously ill for several months at the home of her sisters, the Misses Lennhan, on Seventh Street, is convalescing nicely and will be able to return to her home in Lexington this week.
—The glad Christmas time is generally signalized by the holding of family re-unions, where close relatives are brought together for the first time perhaps in months. These events are always of an interesting character.
—Dr. John Adair has returned to his home in Texas, after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in this city and county. Dr. Adair is practicing dentistry, and says his town is one of the liveliest burghs in the whole State of Texas, where prosperous towns are as thick as dead leaves on the ground.
—Prof. C. Muller, who conducted a dancing school in the old Odd Fellows Hall several years ago, was in Paris yesterday looking up prospects for organizing a dancing class and incidentally renewing acquaintance with many former pupils. Prof. Muller is now a resident of Lexington.
—One of the cheeriest of the Christmas entertainings was that given by Dr. William Kenney on Christmas night at his apartments in the Doyle building. Christmas decorations of holly and poinsettias were artistically distributed through the rooms and Christmas cheer of a substantial sort was in evidence. The guests were several with frappe, eggnog and cakes.
The old Kiser home place at Kiser was the scene of one of these delightful re-unions Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. Walker Kiser were host and hostess to a large gathering. It has been the custom of the Kiser family to have their annual re-union at the old place, and the one held this year was fully equal to those of former years. There was an abundance of the good things of life on the big dining table, around which about forty gathered for the annual feast. It was a day of enjoyment and pleasure.

WHY THE BLUES?
Every one loves the sky, with its brightness, warmth and softness. Hundreds have written of it in glowing terms of praise, while the inarticulate millions have felt what they expressed. Who does not love a pair of blue eyes? Laughing blue eyes, true blue eyes, tender blue eyes, Irish blue eyes. The men who follow the sea love her every mood and hue, and yet 'tis her sparkling sapphire cloak they would have her don on the happiest occasions. It is impossible in our condition of society, not to be sometimes a snob," wrote Thackeray—not to have a heart that would relish pumping a little blue blood along with the red. But when our thoughts are dull, depressed and drear like an unkind wintry gray sky, we are in the blues. Why this paradoxical defatation of the color which is associated with so many of the fair and pleasing things of life? If we must vilify a color, there are yellow, canaries and jaundice, there are red, devils and danger. Why the blues?
HOW WE GET THE NEWS.
Day before yesterday a perfectly nice Paris lady called us up and in a tearful voice reproved us for not mentioning in The News the fact that she had a friend visiting her last week. We told her that she had not let us know anything about it and that therefore, we did not know she had a visitor. Then she said, "Well you should have known. I thought you were running a newspaper." Wouldn't some people think that an editor ought to be a cross between Argus and Anna Eva Fay. They seem to think that our five senses are augmented by a sixth that lets us know all that happens, even if we see, hear, feel, taste or smell it not. Dear lady, editors are only human or at least, almost human. If you are going away, or have returned from a visit out of town, if Johnnie falls and breaks his arm, if your husband chops his toe instead of a stick of wood, if anything happens that makes you glad, or sad, happy, or mad, call us up. Tell us about it. That's the way to get it in the Bourbon News.

NEWS OF SECRET ORDERS.

Grand Chancellor Arn, of Maysville, Grand Vice Chancellor Young, of Winchester, and Grand Keeper of Records and Seal J. W. Carter, of Lexington, will attend the meeting of Rathbone Lodge, K. of P. Thursday night, and will take part in conferring the Page Rank on several candidates. All members, especially the Pythian Home Class of Squires, are requested to be present to meet the Grand Lodge officers. The Knight Rank will be conferred on Thursday night, Jan. 10. At the Odd Fellows Widows' and Orphans' Home, in Lexington, a delightful Christmas entertainment was given Thursday afternoon. Songs, recitations and plays comprised the program, after which Old Santa Claus distributed a nice present to each of the 159 children. The Christmas tree and its decorations were beautifully and artistically arranged. Judge E. B. January, of Bourbon Lodge, attended the exercises, and turned over to the Home nearly fifty dollars, which was contributed by members of Bourbon Lodge.

THE BEST THING YET.

During the past few months the attention of the News has been repeatedly called to the many freak growths in the vegetable kingdom on exhibition in various store windows in Paris—freak tomatoes, kershaws, pumpkins, cucumbers, sweet potatoes, etc. and we have been requested by the owners thereof to be sure and make mention of them, so that the people could see them. Some of these have even asked us to take some of these freaks in exchange for a year's subscription to the News. But the only acceptable thing in the freak line for which we are willing to exchange our signature is a well-worn two-dollar bill that has been in circulation long enough for the people to get acquainted with its general appearance. Now is the time for the good people to subscribe for 1915.
