DRIVE FOR PYTHIAN HOME ENDOWMENT FUND.

Rathbone Lodge, No. 12, Knights of Pythias, of this city, is putting on a big drive to raise its allotment of the $100,000 Pythian Home Endowment Fund. It is the purpose of the committee to see as many as possible of the members in the next few days, and secure their pledges or the cash, as they may choose to give. They are planning to end the drive with a big rally and a banquet on the night of Thursday, November 20.

At that time the committee hopes to be able to report Rathbone Lodge as having "gone over the top," and that instead of having to ask for contributions it may be a victory celebration. Every member of the order and their wives are expected and invited to attend this banquet, whether they have contributed or expect to contribute or not. It will be a real "get-together" meeting, and a good time awaits all who attend. The committee is composed of P. J. McCord, J. K. Cahal and Chas. W. Fothergill.

GALVINI SCORES HIT WITH PARIS PEOPLE.

With the exception of Paris' own Edward Boone, no hypnotist has ever scored a success here equal to that of Galvini, who opened an engagement at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday night, to an audience which filled every available inch of space and overflowed into the lobby. Galvini's work is different from that of any hypnotist ever seen here, and we have had many. His introductory remarks are to the point; he takes the audience into his confidence, disillusionizing them of many of the popular but false ideas of the mystic art, explaining to them in language the most illiterate can understand.

Galvini's mind reading tests were done in a manner that convinced the most skeptical of his extraordinary powers. In his hypnotic tests he does away with the time-killing and boring by-play of many so-called artists in his line, and works quick and with convincing results. It is safe to say that on Wednesday night he convinced many skeptical persons in the audience of the reality of hypnotism, and while his performance is amusing in the extreme, it also tends to give cause for deep thought on the part of the student of human nature.

Galvini's engagement here will close with the performance to-night.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

J. B. Peterson recently purchased of Newton Herrington the 32 1/2 acre farm, located near Black's Cross Roads, in this county. Possession will be given about January 1. Mr. Herrington will move to the farm of 111 acres near Burlington, which he purchased a short time ago.

The Johnson & Lee real estate agency of Cynthiana, sold for W. M. Collier, of Bourbon, his farm of sixty acres, located on the Ruddles Mills pike, to Wm. Ferguson, for $19,000. The same firm also sold for Dawson and Rankin, a farm of twenty-eight acres, located on the Ruddles Mills pike, to Chas. Harney, for $6,500.

Everett Hopkins, of the Little Rock vicinity, purchased of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Pendleton, through the W. Hoffman Wood real estate agency of Mt. Sterling, their farm near Stepstone, in Bath county, containing 76 1/2 acres, at a private price. The purchaser will get possession on March 1, 1920.

—Carlisle Mercury: "Mrs. S. W. Willett has returned from a visit to friends in Paris. Mrs. W. T. Crump is visiting friends in Cynthiana and Paris. Miss Lillie Martin has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Martin O'Neill, at Paris. Mrs. A. L. McDuffee has returned to her home in Paris, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Schwartz."

The Paris Realty Co. conducted the sale at public auction yesterday afternoon, of the Ed. Stump property and the brick house belonging to Mrs. M. A. Paton, both located on Mt. Airy avenue. The sale was held on the premises, with Auctioneer C. E. Vanhook officiating. The Stump property, a two-story frame house of seven rooms, was bid to $2,300 and withdrawn. The Paton residence, a two-story brick, of eight rooms, two doors above the Stump property, was purchased by W. P. Fisher, for $4,750. Possession will be given in sixty days.

HORTENSE NELSEN AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Hortense Nelsen appeared at the High School auditorium in this city last night in a series of impersonations, short talks on voice culture and physical training, in addition to scenes from Shakespeare and Henrik Ibsen's great play, "A Doll's House." Miss Nelsen was greeted with a large audience and delighted both students and auditors with her versatility. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to High School purposes.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP STATE FROM STEM TO STERN.

The Winning Ticket.

The successful Republican candidates who will conduct the affairs of Kentucky in all its departments during the next four years are as follows:

Governor—Edwin P. Morrow, Somerset.
Lieutenant Governor—S. Thruelsen, Louisville.
State Auditor—John J. Craig, Covington.
Attorney General—Chas. I. Dawson, Pineville.
Secretary of State—Fred A. Vaughn, Paintsville.
Clerk Court of Appeals—Roy B. Speck, Bowling Green.
Commissioner of Agriculture—W. C. Hanna, Shelbyville.
State Treasurer—James Wallace, Irvine.
Superintendent of Public Instruction—Geo. M. Colvin, Springfield.

With ten counties missing out of 120, unofficial returns last night gave Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, a majority of 28,000 votes over Governor James D. Black, Democrat, in the race for Governor of Kentucky.

Republican State headquarters predict that complete returns from the ten missing counties will give Morrow a total majority of 30,000 votes.

The vote on the Statewide prohibition amendment was available from but thirty counties, unofficial figures showing an adverse majority of 15,511. The vote stood: Against, 25,340; for, 9,829. Twenty-two counties favored the amendment and eight were against it.

Jefferson county, which includes Louisville, cast 22,827 against the amendment and 7,541 for it.

The Senate fight over the League of Nations entered into the Kentucky contest to some extent, Governor Black declaring for the League in his campaign. The Republicans also will control the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature, while the Democrats will control the Senate.

The wet and dry issue also entered into the Kentucky contest, a Statewide prohibition amendment apparently having been beaten decisively.

The "wets," the pro-Germans, the belief that he should have removed some of Governor Stanley's appointees, the "Armstrong affair" and, lastly, the President's action with reference to the coal miners' strike are attributed by Governor James D. Black, in a statement issued yesterday, as the causes for his overwhelming defeat by Edwin P. Morrow.

The Governor said his defeat was not a surprise and declared that he had confided his apprehension to several recently.

The Governor says: "The saloon-keeper and his patron were against me," which was evident from the overturn of Campbell and Kenton counties, normal Democratic majorities.

Lee M. Russell, Democrat, was elected Governor of Mississippi by the usual majority. He was opposed by a Socialist, who polled about 10,000 votes; the Legislature will be solidly Democratic.

In New York State, the election turned on judges of the Supreme Court, Tammany Hall candidates suffering complete defeat. In the city, Representative F. H. LaGuardia, Republican, was leading Robert L. Moran, the Tammany Democrat, for president of the board of aldermen, but an official count may be necessary.

In Philadelphia, Representative J. Hampton Moore, Republican, scored an easy victory for Mayor and in San Francisco, James Rolph, Jr., was swept into office as Mayor for the third time in a non-partisan fight, defeating former Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz.

The election in this city and county passed off very quietly Tuesday and no disorder of any kind was reported from either. The parties had out their full vote and previous to the casting of the ballots and all day during the election their workers were busy at the polls and on the outside.

The only bright beam in the general disaster for the Democrats in the county is the fact that Bourbon county increased its majority by 402 over that cast in the Stanley-Morrow race in 1915. In that year Stanley's majority was forty-two. On Tuesday, Bourbon gave Black a majority of 444. The vote in the county for Governor was as follows: Black, 2,256; Morrow, 2,112. The remainder of the ticket was in about the same ratio.

With all the precincts in the county heard from the prohibition amendment carried by a majority of about one hundred. The vote on the amendment was rather confusing to many, the close proximity of the "Yes" and "No" answers on the

THEY LICKED US—NO USE TO CRY!

There's no use crying over spilt milk. The Republicans whipped the very stuffing out of us and we are ready to take our medicine like little men and good soldiers. There will be a lot of postmortem explanations, reasons and such by both winners and losers, and we all reserve the right to tell how we thought the result might have been different.

It looks like the Legislature will be Republican, too, and, as far as most of us are concerned we hope it is, if the State administration has to be Republican, for it will give Ed. Morrow a real chance to make good on the many promises he has made, to make the old State a better place in which to live.

Here's hoping he may do so, but we doubt it. Political promises are usually made to get the offices with.

By the time the State campaign is over the poor newspaper men is so tired, worn and weary with hearing or reading the charges, countercharges, arguments, speeches, predictions, prognostications and street corner confabulations, that he does not care much which side has won just so the whole thing is over, and the world has a chance to settle down to business again.

FALL HUNTING SEASON.

The fall hunting season will open on Saturday, November 15. There very few quail or pheasants in this section, and none of them should be killed this fall. By laying off on them a few years they would be given a chance to multiply and become more plentiful. There are plenty of rabbits in this vicinity, and they are pretty good sport and pretty good eating when properly cooked. Go after the rabbits and give the quail a rest. And be sure to have your hunting license with you when you go. If you haven't it the County Game Warden will get you, sure.

ballot making many vote just their opposite sentiments. A small vote was cast on the constitutional amendment No. 1, but it has carried by a safe majority.

The bond issue of $60,000, to be used in the construction of a sewer system in East Paris, met an overwhelming defeat.

James H. Thompson, Democratic nominee for Representative in the Legislature from Bourbon county, was elected without opposition, his Republican opponent, N. A. Moore, having withdrawn from the race a few weeks ago.

In the city election, A. B. Hancock, John F. Davis and J. Sims Wilson were elected members of the Board of Education without opposition. The same was true of the seven candidates for members of the Board of Council: First Ward—J. J. Williams, N. F. Brent and James H. Moreland; Second Ward—Catesby Spears, Ed. Burke and Hugh Brent; Third Ward—George Doyle.

The majority for the Democrats in the county race was a big victory for them, as they had figured on but 250 majority. The returns from all the precincts were in, considering the vast amount of clerical work imposed upon the clerks by reason of having four ballots to handle. Every voter was given ample opportunity to get in his vote, and not one was turned away. The officers of the election did their duty well, and Bourbon has just cause for pride in the fact that there was not a hitch of any kind at the polls.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Social Committee of the Y. M. C. A. announces a Phonograph Concert at the "Y" Gymnasium on Friday evening, November 14. A number of the dealers have loaned their machines and some of the best records for the occasion. All friends and contributors of the Association are invited to attend.

On account of the American Legion Banquet to be held in the "Y" Gymnasium on Tuesday, November 11, Armistice Day, the Women's Gymnasium Class will meet on Wednesday evening instead of Tuesday.

Plans are under way for organizing the Bourbon County "Y" Religious Work Committee. It is proposed to have the ministers, the Sunday School Superintendents, and one additional layman from each church make up the committee. Religious matters of interest to the entire community will be taken up. Meetings will be held monthly. The first meeting has been set for two o'clock Monday afternoon, November 10, at the "Y" building.

The week of November 9-16 has been set apart by the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Association as the Week of Prayer. All churches and associations throughout North America are called upon to unite in its observance. Last year special prayer was "for the men of our Army and Navy and of the Allied Forces."

This year special prayer is asked of Christian people for the success of the coming Y. M. C. A. International Convention to be held at Detroit, November 19-23, and that "the spirit of Jesus Christ may prevail in the councils of those whose decisions are determining the social, economic and industrial issues of the present time."

The different gym classes will begin practice at once for the next athletic demonstration. The date for this show has been set for Friday evening, December 5. The public is invited. Admission free.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY

While you are out "window shopping" just take a peek at the show window of THE NEWS office. There is on display an elegant line of samples of individual Christmas and New Year greeting cards, calling cards, etc., that will be sure to appeal to the taste of the most fastidious. These samples are from the largest and best engraving house in the Middle West, the Jenner Company, of Louisville, and represent the very highest degree of skill and taste in the engravers' art. They are neat, artistic, classy and tasty. Now is the time to place your order for these goods, so as to give the engravers plenty of time to fill the order. Stop and look at the window display. Only takes a little time and may help you to make a decision. Stop, look and invest!

BOURBON FISCAL COURT

The November term of the Bourbon Fiscal Court convened yesterday morning with County Judge Batterton presiding and a full board of Magistrates present.

County Road Engineer Ben F. Bedford read his report for the month of October, which was received and filed. A large number of claims against the county were allowed and ordered paid.

County Treasurer S. E. Bedford was authorized to borrow the sum of $5,000 for use of the Turnpike Fund, and to execute his note payable January 1, 1920, and bearing interest at six per cent. from date.

County Road Engineer Ben F. Bedford was directed to advertise for bids on the Wyatt dirt road after conferring with the Harrison County Fiscal Court.

A committee composed of Magistrates R. H. Burris, A. L. Stephenson, County Attorney D. D. Cline and County Judge George Batterton was appointed to investigate and report back to the Court as to the advisability of allowing the Cumberland and Home telephone companies to maintain the same rates as at present for one year from December 1, 1919.

The Court adjourned until December 4.

NEXT CEREMONIAL OLEIKA TEMPLE.

The next ceremonial will be "pulled" on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, in Lexington. The hot sands will be trod by 100 novices at 2 p. m. in the auditorium, Woodland Park. At 8 p. m. a five-course banquet will be served at the Phoenix Hotel. Arrangements have been made for 700 plates. The visiting ladies will be entertained by a committee of ladies appointed by Theodore Jones, Potentate of Oleika. Lunch, picture shows and automobile rides will be given them, while their "hubbys" are "gettin' theirs" at the auditorium. On November 6, at the regular meeting of Oleika Temple, several important measures will be brought up and a large attendance is expected. The ceremonial session and banquet is free to all Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, their wives and sweethearts.

STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES

True economy does not consist of buying articles because they are low priced. Frequently the purchase of a low priced suit may prove to be the greatest extravagance. The measure of economy is to be found in the measure of value.

There are are no clothes made where the measure of value is greater than in STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES—where you will find such a complete and satisfying combination of tailoring, style, high quality of material, and all other factors that enter into genuine worth.

We know, from our long experience in the clothing business, that we could offer you no better clothes at any price. No better are made. And it is a great source of satisfaction to us to be able to offer such clothes at prices you would ordinarily expect to pay for clothes of inferior quality.
