COMMERCIAL CLUB HOLD REGULAR BUSINESS SESSION

The regular weekly session of the Paris Commercial Club was held in the court house Tuesday night, with an attendance of fifty enthusiastic members, all ready for the work of the future. The meeting was called to order by President John T. Collins, who introduced S. B. Featherstone, president, and C. F. Dunn, secretary, respectively, of the Lexington Board of Commerce. Mr. Collins stated that as yet he knew very little about the commercial club game, and would give way to men who did.

Mr. Featherstone told of the good work their organization had done for Lexington, and what a real live Commercial Club could accomplish for Paris. He closed by saying Lexington would do anything in its power to help put the Paris organization on a working basis. Mr. Dunn discussed the formation of a Commercial Club from every angle, and told of the things that would be necessary to insure the success of the Paris Club. A smoker was held, during which short talks were made by John J. Williams, Henry A. Power, N. Ford Brent, Mr. Glass, of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., Earl Curtis, of the G. P. Pack Co., E. H. Gorey, C. L. Steebergen, G. K. Thomas, Wm. O. Hinton, A. B. Hancock, I. L. Price, Rudolph Davis and President John T. Collins.

The establishment in Paris of a mattress factory, to employ from ten to fifteen workmen, was brought before the Club by A. T. Lucas, of Perryville, Okla. It was stated that the factory would be one of a modest character at first, but that its capacity would be enlarged from time to time. The proposition was discussed but no action taken. The Club will hold its next regular weekly meeting on Tuesday night, when other important business projects will be brought up.

MILLERSBURG CITIZENS PROTEST SALE OF M. M. I.

At a meeting of the County Board of Education, a protest against the conversion of the Millersburg Millinery Institute into a County High School was presented by a committee of citizens from Millersburg, headed by W. D. McIntyre, who acted as spokesman. All the Board members were present except W. R. Tuttle.

County Superintendent of Schools J. B. Caywood, refused to put to a vote the question of selling the M. M. I., recently purchased from Col. and Mrs. C. M. Best, and further action was deferred until tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. The county bought the property for $40,000. Citizens of Millersburg are bitterly opposed to giving up the school, and at a mass-meeting decided to offer the county a net cash profit of $7,000 on the property, or sever acres of land valued at the same figure, as a site for the County High Schools, the buildings to be erected as soon as plans can be prepared. It was stated that a Tennessee educator had offered to buy the property with the assistance of Millersburg citizens, and continue the school. If the proposition is accepted Millersburg will retain the two colleges, and still have the County High School.

BE PATIENT WITH US.

THE NEWS trusts that its readers will understand our policy during the present paper shortage. We want to be accommodating to our advertisers, and at the same time give as much space to local happenings as the pressure of advertising will permit. We have been compelled to omit from time to time good news items, but necessity knows no choice, and it had to be done. The newsprint shortage forces us to hold the paper to eight pages, though many more could readily be filled with good reading and advertising matter. Under the circumstances we ask our advertisers to get their copy for changes of ads in the office at the very earliest possible moment.

DEATH SUMMONS COMES SUDDENLy TO AGED CITIZEN

W. C. McCracken, aged about seventy, died suddenly at his home on South Main street, in this city, about 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night. His death was attributed to apoplexy, superinduced by overexertion.

Mr. McCracken had been in his usual good health the afternoon before his death, and had spent the larger part of the day working in his garden. After supper he spent a short time in some work about the garden and the house, and retired apparently in good health. Several hours after retiring Mrs. McCracken was awakened by her husband's groans, and found him suffering intensely. He asked for help, but before medical aid could reach him death came to his relief. Coroner Rudolph Davis was summoned and conducted an investigation, developing the facts as stated.

Mr. McCracken was a former resident of Carlisle, where for many years he was manager of the Singer Sewing Machine office, and was well-known to almost everyone in Carlisle and Nicholas county. He was a veteran of the Civil War, serving in the Union Army. Besides his widow, he is survived by five children, four sons, Robert McCracken, of Mt. Sterling, Lindsay McCracken and Dawes McCracken, of Carlisle, Earl McCracken, a member of the Paris fire department, and one daughter, Mrs. Max Bradley, of Paris.

The body was taken in charge by Undertaker Hiram Ewing, of Carlisle, and taken to the deceased's old home at Carlisle. The interment took place in the Carlisle Cemetery, yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. W. F. Crouch, pastor of the Carlisle Christian church.

P. H. S. EXERCISES CLOSE SUCCESSFUL TERM.

With the exercises held by the Senior Class of the Paris High School at the Christian church yesterday morning the school term for 1919-20 came to a close, and the pupils were dismissed for their summer vacation. Diplomas were presented to the class of 1920, composed of twenty-four young men and women, one of the largest classes in the history of the school, by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. Rev. Ellis' remarks to the graduates was pronounced one of the choicest bits of oratory ever addressed here on a similar occasion.

The real "wind-up" of the commencement season was the P. H. S. Alumni banquet and social session held in the Y. M. C. A. last night. The big dining hall was filled with the students of former days, who came back to pay their respects to the memories of old school days. Mr. Robert Friend, '99, of Irvine, presided as toastmaster. The following program was observed: Welcome Address, Oscar T. Hinton, '08; Response, Miss Elizabeth Shapp, '20; Music, Orchestra; Address, "To Old Associates," Dr. W. M. Brown, '13; Song, Mrs. David Bachrach, '09; "Carry On," Mrs. Leon Frankel, '01; Cornet Solo, Wm. M. Talbot, '09; "To Common Things," Wayne Cottingham, '14; Alumni Male Quartette; "To Our Athletes," Robert Lavin, '18; Song, Mrs. Edward Prichard, '04; Address, "What An Alumni Association Should Mean To A City Public School," Dr. A. W. Fortune, Transylvania College; "Reminiscences," Mable Templin, '18.

The banquet, which was served in the dining hall of the Y, comprised a menu tempting in its selection and artistic in its arrangement, as follows: Broiled spring chicken, new potatoes, pea timbles, tomatoes stuffed with cucumbers, cheese balls, hot rolls; ice cream; strawberries; cake; coffee; mints. Over one hundred guests were seated around the tables.
