SCOTCH BAND CONCERT

The concert given at the Paris Grand Opera House, Monday night, by the famous Royal Highlanders Band, under the auspices of Bourbon Post, American Legion, drew a full-sized audience.

The side street near the opera house was filled with automobiles, in which "patriotic" citizens sat and heard the entire concert, consequently the League's revenue from the engagement was considerably reduced.

MAKES REMARKABLE FIND

James Manson, a Nicholas county farmer, made a remarkable find when he got out of his machine near Paris to repair a punctured tire.

Thinking the accident had been caused by a tack, nail or piece of broken glass, Mr. Manson got out and examined the tire. To his amazement Manson discovered deeply embedded in the tire a gold stick pin, mounted with three small diamonds.
