—Mrs. M. E. Pruitt has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bevel Chanslor, at Stanford, for the past week. In company with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Williams, of Stanford, she left Wednesday for a ten-days' visit to relatives and friends at Noblesville, Indianapolis and Jolietts, Ind.

—NOTICE—We kindly ask all persons having guests in their home for a few days who are receiving mail to please notify us of the same, in order that we might see that they get their mail, and have it put in your box, in the postoffice, or by delivery. Mail often comes to visitors that is unclaimed, which would be received if you would inform us of the same.

J. B. CRAY, Postmaster.

—Dr. C. B. Smith while returning from Lexington, Tuesday afternoon, in his car, with Mrs. W. A. Butler, and little son, Master William Butler, collided with a truck coming out of a field near the Haggin home. Dr. Smith's car and the truck were considerably damaged. Master William Butler received two slight cuts about the face and head, which made it necessary to take a few stitches. The little fellow is doing nicely at this writing.

TAX COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

Wishing to correct a mistaken idea that seems to be current relative to the law governing listing of taxes, we wish to notify the public that the law is the same as last year, and it is each one's duty to report in person, if possible, at our office in basement of Court House. You will kindly note this and call at your earliest convenience.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued yesterday morning from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, to Wm. L. Burris, 18, of near Paris, and Miss Ethel McPheeters, of Paris.

—The following marriage licenses were granted Wednesday by County Clerk Pearce Paton: Edward Traylor, 28, and Miss Pearl Douglass, 33; Howard W. Hamilton, 27, and Miss Ava Lee Neal, 23. Both couples are residents of Bourbon county.

DOUGLAS—TRAYLOR.
—At his residence, at the corner of Main and Tenth streets, in this city, Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock, Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. Edward Traylor, of Paris, and Miss Pearl Douglass, of the county.

LANCKART—JACKSON
—D. L. Jackson, 21, a young farmer of Bourbon county, and Miss Sue P. Lanckart, 24, of Fayette county, secured marriage license Wednesday afternoon from the County Clerk of Fayette county. They were married in the court house shortly after by Rev. Dr. J. W. Porter. They will reside at the home of the groom, near Hutchison.

NEAL—HAMILTON
—Rev. H. C. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church, officiated at his home, on Pleasant street, at six o'clock Wednesday evening, at the marriage of Mr. Howard W. Hamilton, of Cincinnati, and Miss Ava Lee Neal, of Paris. The ceremony was witnessed by Miss Hattie Neal, sister of the bride, Robert Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Stoner Keller, of Paris. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left for Covington, where they will go to housekeeping.

Mr. Hamilton is identified in a business way with a large steel manufacturing plant in Cincinnati, and is well-known here. His bride is an accomplished young woman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gillard Neal, of 1709 South Main street, in this city.

McPHEETERS—BURRIS.
—The marriage of Miss Ethel McPheeters, and Mr. Wm. L. Burris, both of Paris, was solemnized at ten o'clock yesterday morning, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The attendants were Misses Louise Daniels, of Lexington, and Elizabeth Wheeler, of Paris. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burris left for a short wedding tour. On their return they will reside at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burris, on Cypress street, in this city.

The bride is a handsome and charming young woman, the daughter of Mr. I. F. McPheeters, of the A. F. Wheeler & Co. furniture stores, in this city, and the groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burris, is a young business man of the city. Both young people have a host of friends here and in the county who are extending congratulations.

reside at the home of the groom in Centerville.

Mrs. Welsh is an attractive and very popular young woman, daughter of the late William Lenihan, of Paris. For several years she occupied a position as member of the Paris High School faculty, in which she was faithful and devoted and proved her capacity as an educator. She is a sister of Miss Margaret Lenihan, of Paris, Mrs. W. J. Dodd, Misses Irene and Mary Lenihan, T. C. Lenihan, Dan Lenihan and Frank Lenihan, all of Lexington, and William Lenihan, of Detroit, Mich., former residents of Paris.

Mrs. Welsh is senior member of the firm of W. A. Welsh & Co., who conduct a general merchandising business at Centreville, in the stand occupied for many years by Jerre Sullivan, now in the wholesale grocery business in Lexington. He is a son of the late John Welsh, of the Centerville vicinity, and a brother of Misses Mary and Anna Welsh, James and John Welsh, of Centerville; Mrs. Thos. Gleason and Mrs. John Mallancy, Paris, and Mrs. Richard O'Donnell, of Cincinnati.

The bride wore a handsome traveling costume of blue linolete, with hat to match. The attendants were Miss Catherine Gannon, of Lexington, a cousin of the bride, and James Welsh, of Paris, brother of the groom.

by his mother, Mrs. Ben Holt, and several brothers and sisters in this city, and in other parts of the country. His brother, Wm. Holt, residing in Salt Lake City, Utah, left for Seattle immediately upon receipt of the news and will accompany the body back to this city where the interment will take place on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The funeral arrangements will be made after Mr. Holt has been heard from.

BEHRMAN

—Following a brief illness resulting from a complication of diseases, Mrs. Frances T. Behrman, aged seventy-three, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bacon, on Cypress street, in this city, Monday night, about eight o'clock. Grief over the death of her daughter, Miss Alice Behrman, who died in a Cincinnati hospital several months ago, following an operation, is said to have hastened the death of the aged woman.

Mrs. Behrman was the widow of the late Henry W. Behrman, a prominent merchant of Newport, and was a sister-in-law of the late Gideon Tucker, one of the pioneer dry goods merchants of Paris. Mr. Behrman was a brother of Mrs. Tucker. Mr. Behrman was one of the early settlers in Newport, and was one of the founders of Evergreen Cemetery, in that city. Mrs. Behrman came to Paris three weeks ago for a visit to her daughter and Mr. Bacon, and had been ill since the day of her arrival.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Bacon, of Paris, and Miss Gussie Behrman, of Newport, and two sons, Albert Behrman, Newport, William Behrman, of Cincinnati. She was an aunt of Mrs. Horace M.

Collins and W. Ed. Tucker, of Paris. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bacon, on Cypress street, Tuesday afternoon, at five o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. W. S. Cain, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church. The body was taken to her old home on Monroe street, in Newport. The interment was held in Evergreen Cemetery in that city Wednesday afternoon.
