

RAZING LANDMARK MADE FAMOUS IN STORY

Razing this week of the cupola on the old church at Ripley removed a landmark of antebellum days made famous by the story of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It became unsafe and was torn down by workmen who are now building a belfry to inclose the steeple. The building formerly was the property of the Presbyterian congregation of which the Rev. John Rankins was pastor, and who, with members of the church is said to have concealed a number of slaves for safe keeping until they could be sent North to a place of safety. It was there, it is claimed, that "Uncle Tom" found a friend in the Rev. Mr. Rankins and was shielded from slave traders until after the emancipation proclamation was issued by President Lincoln. The Presbyterian congregation later sold the edifice to the Christian church, which still worships there. It is said Rev. Mr. Rankins had used the cupola as a lookout on a number of occasions, as it commanded a view of the Kentucky hill.

NEW RED CROSS BUTTON

The Red Cross button for the fourth roll call is a lithograph metal button similar to the one used last year, the figures 1921 being substituted for 1920. It is hoped that the button will be generally worn during the coming roll call, for there is no factor of the enrollment of members more helpful than the universal display of the Red Cross emblem. Chapters and chapter workers are urged to see that every member enrolled at the coming roll call is provided with and wears the 1921 Red Cross button.

EDITORIAL FLINGS AT THIS, THAT 'N TOETHER

We suspect that many a husband who doesn't know any more than to use the guest towel will presume to tell his wife how to vote.

Mighty funny it's so hard to get a load of coal into the cellar these days when the teller hold so much attraction for everybody else.

It may be better late than never, but what do we gain by finding out in August from Washington statistics that prices declined in July?

Bernard Schmedes, Cincinnati policeman, suspended for refusing to wash towels, evidently did not want to be classed with the Prohibition candidate.

With everything else going up it is not surprising that an American contestant in the Olympic games should have to jump higher than usual this year.

A Muncie, Ind., man claims he found the word "Harding" spelled in the rind of an orange he had eaten. We'll agree to swallow that story if the Muncie man will swallow the rind!

The "added attraction" at the Opera House some days ago who gave a "forecast of the future of Paris" neglected one very important thing in her "forecast." She did not tell us who will be the next Mayor.

Georgetown News, in commenting on the game between Centerville and Newtown teams, says: "In the beginning of the fourth inning Sal-lee knocked a two-bagger, and scared a runner for Newtown." Very naturally. Scared is the proper word, judging by the way the runner pulled for the home plate.

An English artist, E. O. Hoppe, is in this country to make portraits of the five most beautiful American women. It is said that he will not come to Paris, Ky., for fear he should be tempted to complete his quintet here to the utter chagrin of all the rest of the country. He wouldn't have to go any further in his search for models.

One of the most ardent defenders of "the good old days" in Paris says that, even though these are prohibition days in Paris, you will find in the restaurants and hotels of the city that the corn is stewed, the beets are pickled, the knife has an edge, the plate has a bun, the mackerel is soured and the tables are full.

A foolish Paris woman has said that what Paris men need is more brains or more active brains, rather we beg to differ with the foolish lady. The men of Paris are just as brainy as those of any other place, but some of them are constitutionally opposed to promoting active use of their muscles. Perhaps the foolish lady has one of that sort.

Editor Warren Fisher, of the Carlisle Mercury, made an auto trip to Paris this week, searching for an idle linotype operator. He was unsuccessful in that, but had the pleasure of making a thorough inspection of the roads between Millersburg and Paris, and finding Main street in Paris not quite so rough as on previous visits. We're bound to get right after a while, Warren!

Lexington Herald's society page carried a note with the heading, "Keep The Bacon Burning," the body of the item relating to a fund being raised to erect a memorial to the memory of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, who "held aloft the bacon to light women's way to political liberty," etc. As between bacon and bacon, we prefer the bacon, with eggs on the side, but the cook need not "keep the bacon burning."

Automobile drivers are promptly arrested in Georgetown, Shelbyville, Danville, and a number of other Central Kentucky towns for violating the law by driving with out-lets open. But how about Paris? And also, why not put a ban on those glaring headlights on the interurban cars? It would benefit the public very much if those lights were dimmed while going through the streets of the city.

A handsome young Paris business woman recently lost her purse, containing a sum of money—and, of infinite more value, her vanity case—and, of course, mourned the loss as being almost irreparable. When asked by her employer why she didn't advertise for it, she said she didn't think there was much chance anyone being honest enough to return lost money. But the next day the purse was found and brought to this office, where it was recognized and returned to the owner. Still, it was a kind of advertising that did pay.

A porch party assembled at a Pleasant street home the other night discussed among other things former camping trips. The ups and downs, the pleasures and mishaps of camp life passed the ordeal of verbal dissection. One of the party, a young bachelor, injected his opinion as follows: "Everybody is always talking about God's great outdoors, and wishing they could spend more time there. I have heard it

NOTES OF THE LODGES.

Paris Lodge of Rebekas held an interesting and enjoyable meeting last night in their lodge rooms. The 69th anniversary of the Rebekah Degree of Odd Fellowship will occur on September 20, and will be appropriately observed by the Paris lodge.

Several candidates received the advanced work at the meeting of Rathbone Lodge, K. of P., held last night.

At the recent meeting of Bourbon Lodge, I. O. O. F., the Second Degree was conferred on J. O. Marshall, Edgar "Smyle" Dodge, James Williams and James E. Downing. One petition for membership was received. Candidate Marshall received the Second Degree of the work over two years ago.

Reports from the subordinate lodges of the Odd Fellows in Kentucky show a gain of 1,700 members during the past six months. There are yet 75 lodges to hear from.

The girls' orchestra of the I. O. O. F. Home have returned from their trip through Southeastern Kentucky, where they played at many cities in the interest of the endowment fund. The girls report a very fine trip. Figures show that the more than $30,000 was raised on the trip for the fund.

The Knights of Pythias are emphasizing good citizenship and good government among its members and also the teaching of the children of the country love for the flag and the real meaning of Americanism. Much publicity through the use of newspapers throughout the country is aiding the movement.

Cynthi-Anna Temple of Pythian Sisters was instituted at Cynthiana last week, with twenty-five ladies and thirty-five knights as charter members, by Mrs. Dena Chapman, Past Grand Chief, accompanied by twenty ladies from Covington to assist in the work.

Remember, the Girls and the Boys Band and all the children from the Odd Fellows' Home at Lexington, will be in Paris next Sunday, August 29, at the Paris Grand Opera House. A pleasing program of musical numbers will be furnished by these organizations, and addresses will be made by prominent members of the order. The exercises will begin at 2:30 o'clock. The principal address of the afternoon will be made by Hon. M. M. Logan, of Louisville. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Endowment Fund drive, which is in progress throughout the State. Every Odd Fellow in the city and county should feel it his duty to be in Paris and attend this concert and meeting.

A FEW WORDS TO CITIZENS OF BOURBON

THE NEWS is proud of Paris and Bourbon county. This is a humming business center, and a natural trading spot for a very much larger population. It is the normal nerve center for a wide and rich farming community, and it is fast adding to its importance as an industrial community.

Our stores, shops and business organizations are equipped with all that is necessary to the best service—but telling you about the advantages that are here isn't quite getting it across. You will never know how good this community of ours is until you study its growth and development, week after week.

There is only one correct way to do that. It is to read the news, editorial and advertising columns of the town's leading newspaper. Every week in the year THE NEWS place at your door interesting, instructive and profitable information for about three cents an issue. THE NEWS is a paper that should be in the home of every citizen of Bourbon county. If we haven't your name, subscribe to-day, at the low rate of $2.00 a year, delivered by mail or by carrier.

ATTENTION, TAX PAYERS

The time limit for listing taxes is drawing near. You will please note this and give us a call before we are compelled to attach the penalty ordered by law. We trust you will give this your immediate attention and not force us to extreme measures.

WALTER CLARK, Tax Com. JNO. J. REDMON, Deputy. Cumberland Phone 838 Home Phone 247. (aug20-4f) said that there never was any weather so bad but that it was better to be out in it than in out of it. How anybody can feel that way is beyond me. I'm not exactly a recluse, but when it comes to a choice between four walls and a life in the open, give me the shelter every time. Of course I like lifting my eyes to the hills, from a motor car or a front porch, and it's pleasant to drift about on Stoner creek provided the sun has gone down, but this idea of tramping along the highway with a song on the lips and three tons of camping equipment on the shoulders is hereby left to those who like it."

With 3,000,000,000 bushels of corn in the county, there ought to be enough for the hogs and the humans, too. Come on, you restaurants and feederies, with your corn cakes, old-fashioned mush, and all such things that are calculated to tickle the palate. We're in a receptive mood at meal time.

HOME-GROWN STUFF.

Home-grown watermelons and canteloupes have made their appearance on the local markets at very high prices. It is stated that the crop is very short this year, causing the growers to ask higher prices of the retailer, who, in turn, gets his profit from the consumer.

"RUST" ATTACKS TOBACCO

Bourbon county farmers are complaining of the inroads and damage done to tobacco by rust and wildfire, which have again made their appearance in many fields. It is said that the crops affected will be almost a total loss, and that the damage done will amount to several thousand dollars.

A large stalk of the infected tobacco taken from a crop of ten acres on the farm of John Redmon, near Paris, is on exhibition in the window at the Paris Billiard Co.'s place of business, at the corner of Fourth and Main. To the layman the "rust" may mean little, but to the experienced tobacco man, who knows of the damage it can wreak, it signifies almost ruin. Those who have been reading of the prevalence of "rust" and "wildfire" in tobacco fields, can get a good idea of their meaning by inspecting this stalk of tobacco.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

The Paris Realty Co. sold yesterday privately for Miss Clara Bacon, a house and lot, located on Sixteenth street, to G. T. and Cora E. Wagoner, for a price not given out for publication.

SUIT FILED FOR RECEIVER FOR CARLISLE FIRM

A suit was filed in the Nicholas Circuit Court at Carlisle, Monday, by W. M. Mathers, one of the incorporators of the Howard Hardware Company, asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge and liquidate the business of the concern. William Howard, Jr., formerly of Paris, is at the head of the company, which is incorporated. On Tuesday, Judge Fryer appointed U. M. Swinford as receiver. The business will be conducted at usual under the direction of Mr. Swinford until the affairs of the corporation are wound up. Mr. Howard is a brother of Logan Howard, the Paris grocer.

Another encouraging sign of the times is that the abuse of the long suffering word "camouflage" is being abated.
