COUSIN OF PARIS MEN DIES IN MACHINE

Omar G. Lytle and Foster Lytle, of Paris, received information Saturday of the death of their first cousin, Charles Lytle, of Augusta. Mr. Lytle had for many years been a traveling salesman for a Portsmouth, Ohio, firm.

He was found dead in his automobile, two miles east of Felicity, O., late Friday night. His death was believed to have been due to heart disease. Mr. Lytle's machine had run over an embankment but was undamaged. When found Mr. Lytle was in a leaning posture in the front seat, apparently unhurt. He was found by Owen Moore, a farmer, residing close by. Dr. Clarence Mason, of Felicity, who said heart disease caused Mr. Lytle's death, was informed that Mr. Lytle had complained of severe pains in his chest when in Felicity about half an hour before the body was found. Mr. Lytle is survived by his widow, who is postmistress at Augusta.
