KENNEY—CRIMM —Paris friends and relatives are in receipt of the following announcement:

"Mr. Joseph B. Kenney announces the marriage of his daughter, Quintilla Garth, to Mr. Ben Fielding Crimm, on Thursday, the twenty-fourth of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, Louisville, Ky. At Home, Springfield, Farm, Lexington, Ky."

The bride is the youngest daughter of Joseph B. Kenney, formerly of near Paris, and a niece of Millard F. Kenney, of Paris. She is a registered nurse. Mr. Crimm is a young business man of Lexington.

BRAMBLETTE—RAMEY

Miss Virginia Bramblette, of Carlisle, and Mr. Carey Floyd Ramey, of Bristol, Tenn., were married at the home of the bride, in Carlisle, Wednesday morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. E. Elmore, pastor of the Carlisle Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Ramey left yesterday morning for Berkeley, California, where they will reside in the future.

Both principals are well-known in Paris and Bourbon county. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Clay Baxter Bramblette, and is a graduate of Hamilton College, of the National Park Seminary, in Washington, D. C., and studied music in New York, and in Leige, Belgium. She is a highly accomplished musician and a most attractive young woman. Mr. Ramey is a son of Prof. and Mrs. W. F. Ramey, of Bristol, Tenn., former residents of Carlisle. Prof. Ramey having been principal of the Carlisle High School.

TOWLES—BEDFORD

At St. Peter's Episcopal church, in this city, Wednesday morning, the pastor, Rev. Walter S. Cain, pronounced the ceremony which united for Miss Ellen Adair Towles and Dr. Mathew Hume Bedford, both of Paris. The wedding was witnessed by members of the two families, the only ones present for the ceremony. After the wedding Dr. and Mrs. Bedford left for a brief honeymoon trip. On their return they will be at home to their friends on University avenue, in Lexington, after September 15.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gass Towles, of Paris. She is a young woman of many graces of character, a graduate of Margaret College, in Versailles. For the wedding she wore a traveling suit of brown crepe net, with hat and shoes to match. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Marie Bedford, of Cypress street, Paris. He is a graduate of Centre College, Danville, and of the University of Pennsylvania, where he specialized in chemistry. For several years he has been Professor of Chemistry at the University of Kentucky. He is prominent in Masonic circles. A remarkable coincidence in connection with the wedding is the fact that Jane Gass, an ancestor of the bride, and John Alexander, both of Bourbon county, were the first couple to be married in St. Peter's church, in Paris, the ceremony taking place in 1824.

The principals in the wedding are both popular in Paris with a large circle of friends, relatives and acquaintances, who wish them a long and happy married life.
