

BUTLER CITIZEN.

New Advertisements. Edison's Electric Music. Notice Regarding License Court. Financial Report of Teachers Institute.

Local and General. Williamsport lumber mills are unable to meet the demands made upon them.

Donegal township has lately been the scene of some horse stealing operations.

Prime Oak Kips, at 50 cents per pound, at Hecksing's tannery.

Altoona Sunday schools are almost exclusively taught by railroad conductors.

Fifty-six new cases of small-pox were reported in Pittsburgh and Allegheny last Monday.

A full stock of Gents' Underwear, cheap and good, at Heck & Patterson's.

John Bickel will sell boots and shoes at less than cost prices, for the next sixty days.

J. W. Hamill was sentenced last Tuesday, in the adultery conviction, to six months in the workhouse and fined $10.

A lot of second-hand Watches cheap for cash, at E. Grieb's.

Bob McClelland came home from Pittsburgh a few days ago and is lying sick, at his mother's home on Water street.

Messrs. John H. Telford and W. S. Sultman, formerly of Centreville, this county, have purchased the Beaver Falls Tribune.

Another new lot of Gents' overcoats, cheap, at Heck & Patterson's.

There are twenty-five boys in Easton camp having lost a leg or arm while attempting to jump off moving freight trains.

Mrs. Cruz, living at Florence, Los Angeles county, California, was delivered of six perfectly formed female children, lately.

We are agents for the Pearl White Shirt, the best and cheapest shirt made—try one—Heck & Patterson's.

Seven men were hanged in this county last Friday: one in New York, one in New Jersey, two in Louisiana and three in Missouri.

Mr. P. Pollock, formerly of New Castle, and his wife, were murdered and robbed at their home, in Six Mile Canon, near Virginia city, Nevada, lately.

Bargains in our Carpet department. See prices before buying, at Heck & Patterson's.

The ladies of Washington have organized a secret society known as "The Guardian Angels," with the avowed purpose of attempting to reform Congressmen.

The oil country papers say that Mrs. Blythe, who claimed to have been cured of a dangerous illness by faith and prayer, has had a relapse and is as bad as ever.

Don't neglect to see Heck & Patterson's Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs. Low prices.

Gov. Hoyt has just issued a proclamation announcing the final discharge of $421,851.60 of the principal of the public debt of the State for the year ending December 30, 1881.

Hate Caps and Gents' Furnishing Goods, cheapest in Butler, at Heck & Patterson's.

The Martincourt House, Prospect, will continue to be open for the accommodation of the public, as heretofore, and will be managed by Mrs. Martincourt and her son S. B. Martincourt.

A Mercer, Pa. jeweler named Hildebrand reported to have absconded leaving a number of firms in Pittsburgh, and other cities in the lurch to the extent of fifteen thousand dollars.

Write to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, No. 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets relative to the curative properties of her Vegetable Compound in all female complaints.

Reuben McElvain, of this place, lost a child by typhoid fever a few days ago. All the family of Mr. Pearce, of Butler township, with the exception of his wife, are down with the same disease.

Good all wool suits for Men's wear, received at $10, at Heck & Patterson's.

Six men were injured by the explosion of a car of dynamite at a railroad cut, near Wampum, Lawrence county, lately. They will all recover although Wilford Cunningham's injuries are quite serious.

St. Louis reports thirty-six homicides and eighty-two suicides during 1881. Chicago will go some better—or worse—than this if it has to kill a dozen Chinamen to make up deficiencies.

"The American" (Philadelphia), is a high-class political and literary weekly. We call attention to its prospectus elsewhere printed, and especially to its subscription price, which is but $3 a year.

W. H. Miller, a well-known politician, temperance reformer, of Mercer county, celebrated the advent of the new year by going home on Monday evening and beating his wife—no doubt overjoyed at the failure of Mother Shipton's prophecy.

Every week brings new stock for Heck & Patterson's. See their prices before buying.

In condensing the minutes of the Institute proceedings last week we accidentally omitted the part referring to the displays of penmanship by Messrs. O. P. Cochran and R. O. O'Neil, both of whom displayed much skill in handling the subject and who are both excellent penmen.

Highest cash price paid for corn, oats and all kinds of produce at the store of Jacob Boos, near opposite the Willard Hotel, Main street, Butler, Pa.

"How to keep the boy at home" is a question which agitates parents all over the land. The solution of this depends a good deal on the boy. One of our contemporaries says that the establishment of a beer saloon in the basement will do the business where some of them are concerned.

Go to J. P. Orr's photograph gallery and set for one of those fine cabinet pictures he is now turning out. It is a direct increase of production, there is little prospect of any jealousy or opposition.

Frazer Axle Grease. One greasing with Frazer Axle Grease will last two weeks, all others to three days. Try it. It received first premium at the Centennial and Paris Exposition. (25¢ per lb.)

General Grant announces, through a newspaper interview, that he has entirely changed his mind on the question of the delinquency of General Fitz-John Porter at the second battle of Bull Run. At the urgent request of General Porter, he consented to read the testimony in the court-martial, and also the orders and reports of the Confederate officers engaged in the battle. The result is that he finds the facts different from what he had believed and in the opinion that he had read of the testimony and documents now available, there would have been no verdict against General Porter.

Lecture. For the benefit of St. Paul's Orphan Home, Butler, Pa. Rev. Scott F. Hershey, the popular lecturer of the West, has been engaged to deliver his popular lecture "Success in Life," in the Court house of Butler, January 19th, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

Although money is scarce in this town at present, the German Catholic Fair, lately held in the Opera House, was very successful. The receipts of the fair amounted to about $1300 and after paying the expenses they will have about $800 of a profit, which they intend to turn over to the church, to pay for a new slate roof on it and the tower. The gents watch was won by Gussie Leutz; the ladies gold watch by Miss Schultz; the lounge by Miss Heinzer; the silver bouquet holder by Miss Rogenstein; the chairs by Miss Wacker; the lap robe by Frank Koch, and the cester by Miss Kemper. Chas. Kaufman was lucky in the raffles, winning three prizes.

"The American," Philadelphia's political and literary weekly, proposes to print soon a number of articles on American authors, giving such details, personal and literary, as may properly interest the public. Mr. Horace How, Furness, the Shakespeare scholar, whose great "Variorum edition" is regarded as a crowning achievement in its field, will be the subject of an article, as will Mrs. Harding Davis, the novelist; Mr. Paul H. Hayne, the poet, and Mr. Frank R. Stockton, the humorist, and others. All these, it will be remarked, except Mr. Hayne, are Philadelphians by residence, or by birth; but "The American" may have intended this, its theory being that the literary culture and products of the Middle States are entitled to more attention and a fuller exposition.

Appropos of the latest Newark defalcation, it is remarked by many of the newspapers, with an air almost of surprise, that the defaulking Auditor was a man highly respected in the community, and had everybody's confidence. Since when has it been the custom to entrust public money to notorious thieves, or to put men of known bad character into places of trust? No man can get an opportunity to commit crimes of this sort who has not first gained the confidence of the community by his ability and integrity. The weak spot in his character is not discovered, even by himself, until he is able to steal without immediate discovery. Such exaggerated trust is wrong. In positions of public trust the most honest man should be treated as a potential villain—that is to say, he should be subjected to such tests and restrained by such checks that the temptation to dishonesty will be greatly lessened. How many times must this lesson be taught before the community will learn it?

The Revenue Reform Club of Brooklyn has determined to have a series of lectures on Free Trade and Protection this winter. It has asked four Free Traders—Mr. Beecher, Mr. Schurz, Professor Sumner and Professor Ferry—and two Protectionists—Judge Kelly and Professor Thompson, to take part in the course. The N. Y. Herald speaks of the series as a debate of the question. Our contemporary must regard the Protectionists as doughty warriors, since two of them are in their side in a debate against four. Mr. Beecher, the first of the series last week. It is no discredit to a gentleman who is so strong in many other directions, to say that economic discussion is not his strong point. The lecture, however, was valuable in one direction. There has been some doubt as to Mr. Beecher's exact position in theological belief. It is now clear that he adheres to the religion which The Saturday Review says came into vogue in England about 1851, and which is "made up of the Free Trade and the pleasant parts of Christianity."—The American.

The N. Y. American Review will present in its February number, to be published on the 15th of the present month, Part III. of its series of articles on "The Christian Religion." It will be from the pen of Geo. P. Fisher, the eminent professor of ecclesiastical history in the Yale Divinity School, as thorough a scholar and as able a defender of the Christian faith as this country affords. A powerful presentation of the claims of Christianity is expected.

A queer marriage case is reported from Montreal. A couple of young French Canadians of the Catholic faith went to a protestant minister to be married, the parents of the girl having refused their consent to the union. An action was subsequently brought by the parents to annul the marriage, on the ground that it was not legal owing to the celebrant being a Protestant. In an elaborate judgment, abounding in research upon the subject treated of, the Judge referred the case to the Catholic Bishop of Montreal for his decision, under an old French law which is still in force.

The recent grant land purchases in Florida and Mississippi, together with the earlier establishment of the colony at Rugby, Tenn., indicate that English capital and enterprise is looking to the South as a promising field for investment. As every such chase involves the coming of hundreds of emigrants, of the most desirable class, the expenditure of large sums of English money for the development of portions of our country that sadly need it, and a direct increase of production, there is little prospect of any jealousy or opposition.

The gross area of the United States is ascertained to be 3,025,600 square miles. The land surface covers 2,970,000 square miles, and the water 55,600. The water surface is again divided into 23,900 miles of lakes and ponds, 14,500 miles of rivers and smaller streams, and 17,200 miles of coast waters, or bays, gulf sounds and creeks.

The man who came to this town from Allegheny city some time ago, and was shortly after stricken with small-pox has recovered, and the disease was prevented from spreading to a number of the citizens. The late Robert McClelland of this place, now home from Pittsburgh where he had been working, a few days ago, and is now sick of varioloid, at his mother's house on Water street. This is the only case of the kind in Butler, and as it is in an out of the way place, we see no reason why it should prevent people from coming to town.

The discovery of a deserted city, sixty miles long, cut out of the rocky face of a winding cliff, rewarded the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts of the cliff dwellers. Some of the houses contain four or five dwellings, one on top of the other, and the efforts of Mr. Stevenson's Smithsonian Institution exploring party during their researches in New Mexico and Arizona the past season. This is by far the most important find yet made among the ancient haunts