

BUTLER CITIZEN. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1884.

New Advertisements. Boots and Shoes - John Bickel. Oakland township Auditors' Report. Auditor's Notice - estate of Samuel Cooper. Summer Silks - Rogge & Buhl. Notices of Applications for charters. New local notices.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The full ripe grain is bending in waves of golden light. The new-mown hay is sending its sweets upon the night. The breeze is softly sighing. To cool the parched flowers. The rain, to send them dying. Weeps forth its gentle showers.

-Last Saturday was the longest day of the year.

-Eq. Pringle has sold his store to Mr. McFadden.

The first volume of Blain's book is now being delivered to subscribers here.

-Read John Bickel's mid-summer advertisement. He offers some good bargains to make room for his Fall stock.

-While a class was reciting in the German Lutheran school, of this town, last Monday morning, three boys fainted from the excessive heat.

-There is not a licensed hotel in Forest county. It is now one of the few genuine temperance counties of the State.

-The harvest is ripening, and the implement men are on the qui vive for machinery purchasers. Prices are being cut.

-The notice of the Common Pleas and Heat Co., of their intention to apply for a charter, is of interest to the citizens of Allegheny township.

-Of sixty-three county superintendents of schools chosen in this State last month, there are 29 Democrats, 33 Republicans and Miss Anna Buckbee, of Potter county.

-Banged girls are now the chief consumers of wax. They are now getting the wax to stiffen the bangs and make 'em stay where they're put.

-No girl is successful with a hammock until she can get in and out of the blamed thing without everybody finding out. We can't get the stripes on her stockings run round and round or up and down.

-A fashionable exchange says: "Silver collars for pet dogs are in vogue. 'I'm Miss Jones' dog, and 'I'm Mr. Jones' dog' would be rather embarrassing when a dude catches the dog and reads the inscription?"

-P. W. Lowry, Esq., took his Sunday School class up to the Slipperyrock, via the S. & A. R. R. last Friday. The boys took their lunch baskets and fishing tackle with them and greatly enjoyed themselves.

-The family of Milton Koon, of Worth township, Mercer county, were poisoned with arsenic since being carried to the Koon died a few days after, and her husband is yet in a critical condition.

-The Media American boasts of a "standing population of 2200" at that thorough. We can't boast of so large a standing population in our borough, but when it comes to the sitting down population we will show up figures with any town of its size.

-Nehannock township, Lawrence county, is trying to increase the efficiency of its schools by employing better teachers, and to get better teachers is offering better pay. We can't get one-third - from $50 to $60 per month. Its action might be commended to the consideration of other districts.

-Walla Walla, W. T., has an ordinance enacted, prohibiting any boy or girl under fourteen years of age being out alone after dark. That is a good example for other towns to follow.

-Mr. Charles B. Barfield, representing the firm of McWhinney & Co., of Pittsburgh, visited our town on business several years have passed since Charles' last visit to the town, and his many friends here were glad to see him and to again take him by the hand.

-The sparrows have attacked the bees. They eat the heads but take care to leave the bodies alone. It is about time this pest of the beekeepers was exterminated. They drive all the good bees away and do nothing but breed, and fight among themselves.

-Most of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Democratic Convention will reach Butler on Sunday evening, July 6th. The delegation from this State will have their headquarters at the Grand Pacific Hotel. The Convention will be composed of 312 delegates, exclusive of the territories. Under the two-thirds rule, 255 votes will be necessary to make a nomination.

-An exchange says: "Milk in the manufacture of ice cream is heated and afterwards partly coagulated. In boiling a lactical acid of bacteria is set free that, uniting with the hypo-phosphate of lime, forms a curd, and a sulphide of stannic acid in the coagulating. This, when taken into the system, produces venereal camp, frequently fatal, and finally -" Cut this out and show it to your girl."

-The Academy Commencement at Prospect last Friday was a great success. A large crowd assembled in the grove and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Col. Bain lectured in the P. Church that evening. The room was crowded and the receipts amounted to $165.50. For the term last opened the Academy had 119 scholars enrolled.

-A dispatch from Oil City, dated last Friday, stated that Calvin N. Payne, one of the heaviest dealers in the Oil Exchange, had died that day. He was at one time considered one of the wealthiest men in the business, but has gradually been making losses. The Clearing House showed a difference of $1,500 against him, which he was unable to meet.

-Two young men of Concord township, lately engaged in a whip contest to satisfy themselves of their staying qualities. Each procured a pair of fatigues, and the winner, who dusted each other's breeches in fine style. Some five or six cuts were exchanged, when both retired, one exclaiming, "I've got the best whip, and don't you forget it!"

-One of our Democratic contemporaries likens the adoption of the popular vote system to the discarding of the delegates. He says: "The making nominations, by their party in the town, to a lot of dancing devils, a Chinaman, some dressed up from a dog and a monkey. If the change is going to have such a terrific effect on their party, it should be reconsidered."

-It doesn't pay to try to beat the printer out of a few dollars. A former stockholder in the defunct Erie bank, who resides in Grant, advised from the bank several years ago and saved three dollars by not publishing the fact that he was retiring. He will now be compelled to pay his share of the loss, which is estimated to be several dollars that he is worth. There are several others in the same boat.

-A petition was recently circulated in the Warren oil exchange, for the purpose showing how many men sign petitions without reading them. It was a petition to Congress which ended with an appeal along the signs to immediately Lynch a certain member of the exchange. The best part of the joke was that the member who was to be lynched signed it in good faith, as a memorial to Congress.

-The County Commissioners have not yet decided upon the plan for a new Court House. They are waiting for Mr. Bailey to complete his report, when they will make their decision and soon after be ready to let contracts in answer to an inquiry regarding some authority to hold their attorney. He has written a lengthy opinion stating that it is their duty to have the authority and that it is their duty to proceed as soon as they conveniently can.

-The projectors of the gas well feel justified by what subscriptions they have received and why they leave the well open, and are going ahead and putting down the well. They will put it down at a point where they are sure of obtaining gas, even though it is some distance from the town and from the railroads, as piping the gas a mile or two would be nothing for an extensive manufacturer.

-On Saturday last crude oil was worth but from 50 to 55 cents a barrel, the lowest price it has reached since June, '82, and one to which the price has fallen but three times in 20 years. Yesterday the market opened at 50 cents, over 20 cents below the cost of production, which may be fairly estimated at 70 cents a barrel. This low market is the result of a disordered stock market in New York, fears of a run on the banks there, and the failure of some of the heavy stock dealers. The Standard Oil Company is reported to be in close quarters, but the report is not generally credited.

JULY FOURTH.

Grand Celebration in Butler.

It is over thirty years since the good old custom of celebrating the natal day of our nation has fallen into disuse, but it is the determination of the people, that this year, the custom shall be revived.

Butler, July Fourth, 1884.

It is expected that there will be a grand demonstration in honor of one-day the freest and bravest Nation of the world. Let not the trials of our forefathers be forgotten, let it not be said in history that the children of those who freed them have forgotten their forefathers or refused to cherish their memory.

Let us all turn out to celebrate the natal day of Independence.

The best of our countrymen in attendance will take place in a. M., or as soon as all the delegations arrive from the townships and boroughs. There will also be a grand Fantastic Parade on horseback by some of the young Americans, and present preparations make it a success. A wagon containing young girls, representing every State and bearing the name of each will be one of the attractions.

An invitation is extended to all.

Let us receive the good old custom of celebrating the natal day of our country. Come in wagons, carriages and by railroad.

There will also be an interesting part of the program, the parade in the general procession of the Sullivan Guards, followed by the various civic organizations of Butler and those who wish to come; also, the First and Second Ward Hose Companies - the carriages drawn by horses, the members following on foot, and the band of our citizens in carriages, on horseback and on foot.

That as there are 265 days in the year to devote to other things, that politics and everything else shall be left out for one day and all irrespective of political or church preferences, will join in the public celebration of the 4th of July, 1884.

It is due to the memory of the fathers who fought for our liberties, as well as to inculcate in the hearts of our children that this great day should be remembered by some of the young men as a day to us-day as the man who shed it in defense of his future country. He little dreamed that the bullet which hit his breast would be the death of his independence.

There will be no pains spared on the part of the management to see that every thing is done in good order.

For special items see bills, issued, in regard to renting and other amusements.

But once again we say to all, let them enjoy this day as they wish, but do not forget the thousands of our fathers who died for the sake of the Constitution of the country.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEES.
