Minutes of W. C. T. U. Convention.

The 5th semi-annual Convention of the Butler County Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in the English Lutheran Church, of Millersville, June 14th, 1887, at 3:30 P. M. with an unusually large attendance, twenty eight Unions being represented. After a voluntary by the choir, and prayer by Rev. Miller, P. of the church, Mrs. Frances L. Swift, resident at the State W. C. T. U., was introduced to take charge of the Convention, this having been the desire and arrangement of our late President during her illness.

Dr. Mary Allen, of Ithaca, N. Y., was then introduced and delivered her lecture on "Hereditary" to a large and intelligent audience. Dismissed by benediction by Rev. Miller.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 15th.

Devotional services, led by Mrs. Rev. McKinley, of Mars. A minute was then offered, and read by Miss Sullivan, on the death of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Dain, President of the Butler County W. C. T. U. This was unanimously adopted by a rising vote, and ordered to be placed on the records of the Union, a copy to be sent to the Butler County W. C. T. U. This was also published in the Presbyterian Banner and the Butler and Armstrong county papers. [Resolutions published last week.]

Mrs. Swift spoke in an impressive manner of the last hours spent with our lamented President, stating that the Butler County W. C. T. U. was very dear to her to the end.

Mrs. Sallie Kerr, Kau to the end, was chosen Secretary of the Convention.

The following Committee on Resolutions and Plan of Work was elected by the Convention: Miss Mary Sallie Kerr, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Pizer, Mrs. Dadds, Prospect; Miss Pizer, Jacksville; Mrs. Brown, Brownsdale; Mrs. Millin, Bethel; Mrs. Ayres, Harrisville; Mrs. Rev. McKinley, Mars; Mrs. J. P. Chesbro, Harrisville; Mrs. Moore, Unionville.

Address of Welcome, Mrs. Kimble, Millersville; Mrs. Frances L. Swift, of Allegheny City; Mrs. Marshall, of Butler, moved that a committee of two be appointed to draw the President's chair. Mrs. Conolly and Mrs. Garret, of Millersville, were appointed.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary was exceedingly encouraging, showing eight new Unions having been organized since the last Convention, making in all thirty-one in the county. Number of members enrolled, 750; number of paying members, 550. Report accepted as read.

The report of the County Treasurer was next heard. A motion for supplementary report carried, as many of the local Treasurers had not handed in their quota, the President stating that all money used for the Convention work should be reported to Treasurer.

Singing, "Rock of Ages." The remainder of the morning session was occupied in hearing the report of delegates from the various Unions.

THIRD SESSION, WEDNESDAY 2 P. M.

Devotional service, conducted by Mrs. A. G. Brown, singing, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Reading, 90th Psalm. Prayer. Closing piece, "One More Day's Work for Jesus."

Resolution offered by Mrs. Rev. J. S. McKee, of Butler, on the death of Miss Etta K. Prugh, first President of the Butler W. C. T. U. Adopted by a rising vote. [Resolution published last week.]

By request the minute on the death of our late President, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Dain, was again read, a number of delegates having just arrived. Minutes of morning session read and approved. Reports of Superintendents of departments were called. Sabbath Observance, Mrs. J. W. Orr, of Butler, Secretary of the Convention, read the minutes of the Convention, and the Union Signal should be in every Union, also the Amendment Herald. Each Union is asked to appoint a local Superintendent of Press Work. Work among Soldiers, Superintendent, Mrs. J. W. Orr, of Butler, read the minutes of the Convention. Work among Mothers having been discussed a few remarks were made by the Superintendent, Mrs. E. G. Cratty. Work among R. R. Employees, Mrs. Kennedy Marshall, Superintendent, Butler Union only. Work among Teachers, Mrs. Swift, Superintendent, placing marked Bibles and other reading in caboose. Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. J. C. Moore, Superintendent, reports this work hindered for the want of proper books in many schools, but reports interest and good work done. Sunday School Work, Mrs. John Dadds, Superintendent, reports the work prospering and interest increasing. Committee on the want of proper books, Mrs. W. C. T. U. organized since the last Convention. Ad. Journal to be at 7:30 P. M.

Dr. Mary Allen was then introduced, and gave one of the most highly entertaining and instructive lectures ever given in the county (subject, Social Purity) to a large audience.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION, JUNE 16.

Devotional service, opened by singing, "We need thee every hour," prayer by Rev. Decker. The Committee on Resolutions and plan of work was then called upon to report. Miss Sullivan from the Committee reported the following which were taken up separately and unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1st, That we recognize at all times the presence of the Divine Master without whose guidance and blessing we are entirely helpless in the great work before us.

2d, That we pledge the united effort of the various Unions of Butler county to aid in securing Constitutional amendment.

3d, That we urge the passage by Congress of the Blair Educational Bill, and that we will do all in our power to aid in bringing about the desire.

4th, That we earnestly recommend the immediate organization of a Union in every borough and township where none now exists.

5th, That we consider the proper education of the young of vital importance, and recommend organized juvenile work, in some form, in connection with every Union in this county.

6th, The absolute necessity of department work and prompt reports by every local Superintendent to the county, and the County Superintendent to the State in time for the State Convention, is urged.

7th, That we sympathetically recognize the sympathies and tenders of support that we have received during the past year from all bodies representing churches and friendly organizations.

8th, That the protection and preservation of society demand that the most effective barriers be erected against the tide of moral corruption that is rising to overwhelm it, and believing that the safety of this and future generations requires, that the hands of women, as the bulwark of the evil, we urge our local Unions to accept the commission thus thrust upon them, by taking up the prosecuting, as opportunity offers, their God-given work of consecrating the family.

9th, That a tax of 10 cents per member be assessed, to be paid annually to the County Treasurer to form a fund for the use of the six department work, to be appropriated in proportion to the wants of each.

10th, That we bear testimony to the complete success of the policy inaugurated by our Court in 1856, in refusing all license to sell intoxicating drinks in the county of Butler. This action was approved by the people of the county, not only as a wise and prudent administration of the law, but as in accord with the public will, expressed with extraordinary unanimity. The result was a gratifying improvement in public morals, and order, peace and prosperity everywhere, where reigning sobriety, business in every department was stimulated, blighted homes were made happy, and our county was placed in the foreground of progress, and recognized as the leader for moral reform, in other counties were rapidly falling into line, encouraged by our example. Sadly we note the change occasioned by the action of the Court of 1887, reversing all this, and carrying back to our county, the same evils which were expunged, into every borough, township and hamlet in Butler county.

11th, That the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Butler county, in Convention assembled, solemnly protest against the action of the Court of this county, the present year, in granting license to sell intoxicating drinks, as we can only view it as a defiance of an overwhelming popular sentiment, expressed strictly as prescribed in the Constitution, and which reigning sobriety, business in every department was stimulated, blighted homes were made happy, and our county was placed in the foreground of progress, and recognized as the leader for moral reform, in other counties were rapidly falling into line, encouraged by our example. Sadly we note the change occasioned by the action of the Court of 1887, reversing all this, and carrying back to our county, the same evils which were expunged, into every borough, township and hamlet in Butler county.

12th, That we cordially approve and endorse the action of the Butler Borough Union, as expressed in their resolutions of April 5th, relating to the Court's action in license cases, and whilst we regret the necessity that compels those who have heretofore been in the front of our battle, to declare that they will not appear again in person as remonstrants so long as the present law remains on the books, we recognize the fact that their own self respect could not permit them to take any other action.

13th, That our hearty thanks are tendered to the more than five thousand good people of Butler county, who have so bravely themselves on record as remonstrants against a licensed liquor traffic in this county and whose remonstrances, although unaided, were not challenged or opposed during the session of Court.

14th, That this convention adopts the language of an able jurist in an article in the Pittsburgh Legal Journal of April 13, 1887, as expressing the sentiment in these words: "When the law is constantly by the higher Court says to a Judge that when remonstrances are filed denying the necessity of a license, his duty is merely to ascertain the number and character of those petitioning for and against the application, and to announce the result by refusing or granting the license as he finds the numbers and character, on one side or the other, and the Judge refuses to be governed thereby takes the bit in his own mouth and creates a license against the protest of a decided majority, especially of the moral and law-abiding people of a community, he must expect to be looked upon as defying both the people and the Supreme Court, and taking sides with the enemies of law and order. The intelligent communities who protest against liquor licenses in their midst can and will read and understand Reed's Appeal for themselves. The Judge who expects to wash his hands of the responsibility and cast the law will find no easy task in such communities. One who from a mistaken view of his duty saddles himself with a grave responsibility that will belong to him is to be pitied rather than blamed. His blindness to his own interests in the premises makes such a mistake a blunder of that sort that is said to be 'worse than a crime'."

15th, That the reverse of the hour—present triumph of the Liquor League has but aroused the sleeping energies of our innumerable moral and Christian people and that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Butler county, by its power and influence into the contest of the coming year to aid the good citizens in again removing from our county the curse now inflicted upon it, trusting that when the people again appeal for rights granted them by the Court, enabled by unoppressed "views of its own," differing "from other judges, and even from that high tribunal called the Supreme Court," will give to our remonstrances the weight to which they are entitled by law as interpreted by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

16th, That we cannot but express our pronounced opposition to any measure by which the traffic in intoxicating drinks is legalized and that all tendency to discourage the efforts of all good people towards the total overthrow of this monstrous evil.

17th, That the heart felt thanks of this Convention are due and hereby tendered to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and citizens of Millersville for their hospitality in receiving this Convention so graciously and making their homes ours during our stay in their midst.

18th, That we return thanks to the pastor and members of the English Lutheran church, who tendered their beautiful house of worship for our meetings during the Convention.

19th, That we acknowledge our constant obligations to the Press for aid and sympathy we receive, and the courage and energy in their columns, always courteously given, though often at their own inconvenience.

20th, That we return thanks to the Pittsburgh & Western Railroad Company for a reduction of fare.

The Department of Social Purity was now called. Mrs. Dr. J. B. Showalter, Superintendent, read her official letter to the Convention, in which she gave a very clear and concise account of the work of the department, with many helpful suggestions to the Unions as to best methods of prosecuting the work.

The last hour of the Convention was occupied in discussing in an informal manner various matters connected with our work during the coming year. This meeting was exceedingly pleasant and profitable, our only regret being that some of the delegates had been compelled to leave the Convention closed with singing led by Miss Allen, Wick and prayer by Mrs. Frances L. Swift.

Adjourned to meet in Butler the second Tuesday of November, 1887.

It is matter of sincere regret that a synopsis of the reports from the local Unions could not be given. The reports were exceedingly interesting having been carefully prepared.

One feature of the W. C. T. U. Convention particularly noticeable was the literature table in the rear of the church in charge of Mrs. M. M. Matlock, of Butler, Superintendent of that department of work. Unions can be supplied with literature on very reasonable terms by applying to Mrs. Matlock.
