THESE GOODS HAVE BEEN BOUGHT FOR CASH AND THE SAME WILL BE SOLD TO YOU AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES.

IN SPRING OVERCOATS WE CAN SHOW YOU A VERY LARGE VARIETY.

IN SPRING HATS WE CAN SHOW YOU AN ENDLESS VARIETY.

IN FACT EVERYTHING THAT A MAN OR BOY CAN WEAR WE CAN SHOW YOU.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED. Schaal Bros. & Co. OPPOSITE THE HOTEL VOGELY.

TRAINS AND MAIL. There is a population of about 18,000 in the county seat of Butler County, with 60,000 in the city of Butler.

New Advertisements. Mercantile Appraiser's List for 1921. A. C. Sale, estate of Jos. Ziegler.

Oil Notes. The production of the Hundred Foot Field is said to have declined fifty percent, during the past three months.

The Crabbery oil field is to be thoroughly tested. Rigs are up on the Emmel and Wm. Garvin farms.

Sick People. Mrs. Henry Johnston of Howard St. is down with typhoid fever.

The Sabbath of the Bible. We are indebted to Mr. A. C. Wilson of this town for a copy of the work of the above name of which Rev. S. H. Nesbit is the author.

What an unsatisfactory life, to be suffering with catarrh. Go and buy a twenty-cent box of Old Santa's Catarrh Cure and be cured.

—Fine cakes at the City Bakery.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Ask for the best family flour, Kinglers' Extra, and Kinglers' Oriental. —Egg dyes on market.

—The U. P. Congregation of Butler intends building a new church next summer. —The deal between the P. & W. and B. & O. men is yet hanging fire.

—Hicks predicts two storms for the latter part of this month, one centering on the 25th and one on the 30th. —"I just fall down" is the latest slang expression.

—The daily mail from New Castle to Porterville will be discontinued next Monday. —One of the big dogs in the bench show being held in Pittsburgh is named Bruno and is credited to J. B. Gilmore of Millersville, this county.

—The Venango Boiler Works will come to Butler if our people will purchase 140 40x120 lots of the M. Heim property at $200 a lot. —The next great day on the calendar, and one sacred to the whole human race, falls on Wednesday, this year.

—Frank Anderson sold his building on Main St., near the Diamond, Tuesday, to Frank Huselein for $9,000. —Wm. Smith, of Perry Twp., Lawrence Co., an old 40er, dropped dead on Sunday, the 12th.

—The Star Entertainment of the Star Lecture course will be a lecture by Miss Olof Kruger, the Little Esquimaux lady, who will talk about Greenland and the Inuit people, next Wednesday, week the 25th. —At the meeting of the School Board last Thursday evening, some bills were approved, the wages of the two new teachers were fixed at $40 per month, and Mrs. John Dermody was appointed janitress of the McKean St. building vice M. Eisler, resigned.

—Robert K. McCormick, General Manager of the Mercury Independent Gas Light Co., of Pittsburgh is registered at the Levy House, and is making preparation to introduce their new burner in Butler. We feel safe in recommending them, and bespeak big sales in our midst. —The block of buildings at corner of Wood and Diamond Sts., occupied by the Weldon & Co. book store and McCain Bros. shoe store, was burned, and the Germania Bank building was injured. The total loss is estimated at $300,000.

—If you wish to light your homes or places of business brilliantly you should see the "Merry Incandescent Gas Burner." We have seen them burn, and have purchased one for our office, and for brilliancy it is superior to any burner on the market. It is absolutely fire proof, and does not smoke. —The people of Millersville are tired of having one name for the town and another for the postoffice, and at a meeting, held a few nights ago, settled upon the name "Chico" for both. Why not drop the "Mills" from the name of postoffice, and call both town and postoffice simply Barnhart; or if you must have a change make it McCullough or Pontons, or if the name of none of the old families will do, go a short distance outside of the town, and name it after the most distinguished colored man in the county. "Orbison" is a pretty name.

—Deputy Revenue Collector Steele has entered proceedings against several county storekeepers for selling alcohol, and among them one in Butler. The Pittsburgh Times says that there are 1000 dealers in oleomargarine in Western Pennsylvania, that the stuff itself is better than bad butter; that dairymen buy it, churn it over and sell it for butter; and that the law is a temptation to fraud and blackmail and should be repealed. —The Producers Torpedo Co., with offices on Wayne St. was bought out last week by W. A. Clark, John McCleary and Charles Ford. The consideration is understood to have been in the neighborhood of $5000. The former company was composed of Pat Golden, G. S. Gabagon, G. H. Shaver, T. R. Irvin, and L. W. Smith. The business was carried on under the old name. W. H. Walker, Esq. is retained as book keeper. —The nearest man we have heard of for a long time is a young preacher named Milligan. While preaching his trial sermon in an Eastern town lately, he stopped right in the middle of it, and looked at a certain young lady, who seems to have somewhat "mashed" on him, said: "I regret to state that I am an exceedingly nervous man, and am annoyed by a young lady in the congregation who has been endeavoring to flirt with me this morning. I have neither time nor inclination to return the compliment at this time, but may do so later on." If that congregation hires that young man, they will find that he, like all men and women who make a public display of their virtues, needs watching.

PERSONAL.

John Burkhardt returned from Scranton, where he had been serving as U. S. Grand Juror, last Friday. He enjoyed the trip very much. —"Call" Templeton of Campbell and Templeton is home from a business trip. —The Tarentum News says that the widow of John Smith, who died there recently, has returned to her parents in Butler county.

—The family of John Logan, of Centerville, Butler county, are sorely afflicted by the fearful burning of their little daughter, aged six years, which occurred recently. While about the grate her clothes caught fire, and with great brood of mind she ran to the bed and wrapped herself in clothing, smothering the fire, but not until she was severely burned. She is a great sufferer, but her recovery is hoped for. The bed was burned for which Mr. Logan received insurance through the agency of D. M. C. Evans of Mercer Co. —Dugout. —Geo. W.
