

Butler has a population of about 10,000. It is the County seat of Butler County, with a large number of churches, schools, and public buildings.

New York Weekly Tribune-Free. By special arrangements made for our doing, we are enabled to offer to all our subscribers by air arrangements, (if any) and one year in advance, and to all new subscribers paying in advance, the New York Weekly Tribune free for one year.

New Advertisements. C. & T.'s Furniture and Queensware. Douthett & Graham's clothing. Zimmerman's Easter Opening.

Notices-All advertisers intending to make inserts in this ad, should notify us of their intention to do so, not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

High string-telegraph wires. The penitential season is over.

Nature is now producing green goods. April brides go now anxiously nervous.

Deanty's spring coat is lined with gaudy plaid satin.

"Price's knot" is the name of the approved fashionable scarf.

Dandelion leaves are said to possess sleeping-powder qualities.

A small sized bunch of asparagus from Charleston costs 80 cents.

The Telegraph transmits facsimiles of written messages.

A new fabric for the "Lois Fuller" dress is nearly three yards and a half wide.

It is quite the latest fancy to appear in gowns worn by our maternal ancestors.

Out-of-glass has almost entirely supplanted silver for articles of the toilet and table.

Douthett & Graham's goods have arrived and the store will be open next week.

It is a Boston idea to write the weight of the baby on the cards announcing its birth.

The girl who declares she will not do, hoops will compromise on "eroline steels."

The Butler Wheel Co's Curio Show opens in the Vogely tobacco store corner next Tuesday.

J. L. McCarty sold his interest in the Projector & Turbine Co. to W. A. Clark, of this place.

Two new names were added to the membership of the English Lutheran Church last Sunday.

Geo. Reno, the marble cutter, is building a shop on the Kirkpatrick and Reed lot on N. Main street.

Geo. Vogely, the tobacconist will occupy the room on S. Main St. now occupied by Mike Bushey.

Don't look too closely at a dollar bill, a scientist found the germs of three distinct diseases in one.

The Spring term of Slipperyrock Normal opened Monday, with about four hundred students enrolled.

J. B. McJunin, Esq., bought the A. T. block building on S. Main St. at As signees' sale, for $3,075.

The school children of Butler are enjoying a week of. Collected $214.00 for the monument last week.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. have moved from the Baldwin building to a room prepared for them in the Vogely House.

Yes it is very easy for a girl to fall in love with a man, but when she has to take in washing to support him-ah, there's the rub!

It is only a few days or weeks until the "patient" husband will be compelled to take his meals from the mantle while his "lordly" wife is cleaning house.

A candidate informs us there is now being erected a building at Sarsars Station that will cover seven acres-Fred Acre and his family.

"Which of your congregations is the most regular, Doctor?" was asked of the pastor of a fashionable flock. "The sexton, undoubtedly, it was the reply."

"Kitts nines Times." "An union revival is to be a sinners is induced to start on his way to Heaven and is allowed to take any denominational road he chooses."

April 11th is the date fixed for the appearance in Butler of Clara Morris, the great emotional actress, for the third annual benefit of the Butler P. O. Elks Charity Fund.

On Tuesday afternoon an alarm of fire was made and the hose companies immediately met in an appearance, when it was seen that the roof of the Sheriff Scott house on north Main St. Through the excellent work of the fire department the damage was but slight.

Jim Hall, the pugilist, attempted to pummel a cabman in front of the Hoffman House, New York. Another cabby came to the rescue and gave Hall a Pittsburger on the jaw, knocking him down and cutting his face. That cabman is now open for an engagement to go on the stage.

Don't forget the Grand Concert under the direction of Prof. Davis, that is to be given in the Opera House, next Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the Firemen's Convention Fund. The admission fee will be half a dollar, and you will get its worth in music, besides helping the most deserving organization in the town.

The following Butler county teachers are noted in the last World's Fair list of the Pittsburgh Times: Martha Corbett, Petrolia; Lela Dawson, Karns City; E. H. Elliott, Chicago; Maggie Montgomery, Philadelphia; Mrs. W. H. Frazier, Butler; G. P. W. H. Frazier, Butler; G. P. W. H. Frazier, Butler; G. P. W. H. Frazier, Butler.

Senior choir but four horses in Butler last Saturday, but at Sunday Monday he bought quite a number, and among them, a splendid team of sorrels, which he got from Hoekensberg and Sanderson, and for which he paid $107.50 and $170.00. He also bought a team of handsome greys-Phillip Stoop of Concord twp., and 25 other good horses.

A prominent physician says that the average cook is absolutely ignorant of sanitary means and effect, and the kitchen process are sources of illness more often than imagined by placing milk, jelly, butter and other abortives in the open air without covering them. If a medical man wants to see an organism for investigation he will expose gelatine to the air where malignant germs are confined, and the gelatine quickly attracts and holds them, which is the same thing that the food will do.

USE DA N'S SANSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

LEGAL NEWS.

Judge Greer is holding Court in Indiana, this week for Judge Harry White.

The County Commissioners request all Collectors who have not already qualified, to do so before April 10th, so that their bonds may be handed up to Court for approval that day.

Kezia Allen has brought suit for trespass by Robert, John, and James Gallagher.

Geo. E. Robinson passed his preliminary examination, and is reading law with his father.

The report of the viewers in the case of Jas. Sellers vs. the Borough, for damages and granting the same, was overruled and set aside, and a petition for new viewers was made.

In the case of J. B. McKinlin vs. John Mathers, receiver, the Court granted the petition and awarded the defendant triple damages and in the case of Jacob Ross vs. same party, the decision was the same.

Mary Hilliard of Karns City was granted the benefit of the separate earnings act.

The Board of Probation refused to interfere in the case of Dennis Clooman, and he will be hanged in Pittsburg next Wednesday.

Lettors of Adm'r. were granted to W. J. Brown, estate of Jane Brown of Mercer twp.; also to Susan C. McCarry, estate of John C. McCarry of Concord twp.

LATE PROPERTY TRANSFERS. D. P. Book to W. L. Bennett, 149 acres in Allegheny for $1,240.

Geo. Timbourn to F. Sutton, lot in Butler for $1,000.

E. H. Huns to J. A. Brandon, 63 acres in Connoqueusque for $3,200.

Marriage Licenses. Chester L. Fisher, Portersville to Doria A. English, Butler.

Monroe D. Ullery, Pittsburg, Pa. to J. C. Cree, Portersville.

John Pringle, Fairview to Lucinda Boyer, Fairview.

At Pittsburg, A. M. Kearns of Butler and Anna Armstrong of Erie.

Licenses Court. Court met, Wednesday, with Judge Hazen on the bench.

The hearing motions, petitions, etc. occupied a considerable part of the time of the forenoon session, and when the time for the hearing of applications arrived the Court Room was crowded.

The Court announced that in his opinion many of the persons now holding licenses had no other idea than keeping a tipping-house, and that no set of men should be of a higher moral character than those expiring licenses.

He then announced that the applications from the country districts would be heard first and excluded the persons interested in the Butler cases.

The case of Guckenheimer was the first called. Isaac Guckenheimer appearing for firm. They do not sell less than a car load.

Hervey Schaefer, of Gettysburg, came next. He applies for a license for the Central B. Co., has 35 rooms, and sold about six cars of same half pints during the past year.

Chas. Stokely, the same place, next, he has 12 bed rooms, and sells by the bottle. L. N. Zeigler, Harmony, was the next on the list.

Samuel Dean wants a license for the Dean House, has 23 rooms, and will furnish water for drinking purposes in other part of the house than bar if granted a license.

The court adjourned till 2 p. m. Chas. H. Miller, of Evans City, was the first case to be taken up after dinner.

He was granted a license for 100 cases, but he understood that that was the limit of the Court directed them to be closed. He was subjected to a very rigid examination as to the order of his house, but he had no complaints. Fifteen minutes of an information had been made against him for adultery by a woman who was in the house when the information had been withdrawn the same day.

He denied having had anything to do with the information and paying the expenses of Ohio. His bartender, Twigg, got considerably mixed up, and the Court called him down. John Hill, of this county, was the next testified to the necessity of the house.

Joseph C. Hill, came next, he testified to the necessity of the house in this county for 10 or 11 years, had had no trouble or disturbance but once, i. e., the Court ordered a case to be made, and he refused him and he immediately pulled out a revolver and shot.

Lucinda Barnett of Petrolia was the first woman applicant, she was questioned closely as to who her patrons were.

W. H. Jellison, Petrolia, came next. He testified to the necessity of the house, had no disturbance and served meals at all hours.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Mrs. Jennie Duprey, Karns City, was the only applicant who refused any remonstrances were filed. She testified as to having 14 rooms and having kept open houses since license was issued last time. Her house is opposite the M. E. Church, and she has a very nice garden in her house would interfere with the church.

McLaughlin, John Ditch and Fowler Campbell testified to the necessity of the house, the good reputation of the applicants and their families.

Jas. Galbraith, Esq., examined the witnesses for the remonstrances. Rev. Thayer, of the M. E. Church, testified that he did not think a public house, either with or without license was necessary.

Oil Notes.

The Forest Oil Co., drilled their No. 5, on the Gosholing to the 100-foot and got a 100-lb. well.

The Thompson farm well No. 3 is rated at 100-lb. well.

L. E. Hamber, of Bradford, who is interested in the United States Pipe Line and is a business partner of ex-Senator Lewis Emery, says in regard to the new line:

"It has been completed now almost to Wilkesbarre. One is to be used for the transportation of distillate and the other to be crude. The locations of the pump stations have not yet been decided upon, as we intend to test the pumps and find out just how far we can force the oil through the pipe before we put up the stations."

The connection from Titusville to Bradford has been almost completed. The first pump station will be at Titusville, and the other at Warren. The line is a go, and it will be ready to run in a few days.

Ex-Senator J. W. Lee, of Franklin, who is in Pittsburg, and is one of the leaders of the independent producers said: "We have no fear of being unable to get all the oil we want for the producer's lines. To read the accounts of the purchases which the Standard agents have made it would appear to an outsider that there was no more ordinary oil. By sending a map, however, their property is found to be only a small proportion of the whole. There are 10,000 barrels a day produced in the Bradford field, and 30,000 barrels daily through the pipe before we put up the stations."

The suit of Mrs. M. V. Taylor for $50,000 damages against the Panhandle Railway for injuries sustained by her husband, who was killed by a train of the Washington branch of that road, while returning to his home last July, was to come up for trial in the Washington County Court Monday, but Mrs. Taylor died in Pittsburg Tuesday.

Mrs. Taylor will be remembered as the woman engaged in the oil well supply business previous to the accident. She had returned to Pittsburg to her home, and had, in addition to having established a national reputation through the sale of her oil, been a contributor to the Standard Oil Company's newspapers, as the only woman who had the courage to embark in that peculiar line of trade, built-up a large and lucrative business.

Mrs. Taylor's first experience in the supply business was in the Washington County time of the oil excitement was at its height in Washington County. She was then engaged in a bookkeeping business, and a leading oil well supply firm, and, being a shrewd woman, discovered that there was a shortage of oil in the country, and the demands for large pipe were increasing, and, having made a considerable sum of money by sharp turns in the oil market, decided to set up a corner in casing. So she set about buying up all the casing in the country, and she got the largest lots in the country, so that she was in a position to dispose of the trade. The prices were advanced by the corner was broken to 75 per cent below the price she had paid for the oil. It is said that the deal netted Mrs. Taylor close to $200,000.

After the transaction she returned to her general agent for all kinds of oil well supplies and went into the field and made contracts for the same with the sterner sex, and when it came to talking oil well supply she was a match for any of the men in the country.

The injuries to her spine, and from which she has since been confined to a bed of illness, were sustained when she was while on board of a passenger train that was approaching Washington. The conductor was attempting to force her to leave the train, and she was thrown from the train, and she was killed by a flying switch. She was thrown with violence against the back of her head, and she was killed by the same blow.

Some of the best physicians in the country have been called into consultation, but have not been able to furnish relief. She was buried in Cambridgeport, Crawford county, last fall and spent the winter at the home of her father, who is now in the city of Washington, and she was buried in the same place.

James Glenn, of Uniontown, is visiting his folks in W. Sanbury.

Phil. Nant has had a broader smile than usual on his face since Thursday last. It is a girl.

Herman Fagan, of Mercer street, was made happy last Saturday, by the arrival of a son.

W. H. Gosholing, Paul Conover and his sister Emma left Monday for a tour of California. Mr. Gosholing intends leaving there, and the Conovers expect to be gone about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Aye, of Kittanning, are the guests of G. R. Smith.

Miss Anna Lowman, is now in the art department of Boggs & Buhl's store in Allegheny.

Mrs. Jennie E. Zimmerman has returned from a business trip to New York.

Sid. Wiehl, of Zellenople, put in an appearance on our streets, Wednesday. He has been on the sick list for the past two years, but is now looking better and feeling better.

Miss Christine S. Bredin, daughter of Dr. Bredin of Franklin, formerly of Butler, will have a painting in the art salon of the World's Fair, and the painting presented, but $5 were accepted.

Frank Sandbach, of Butler, is a member of the Executive Board of the skilled Philadelphia Workmen in the United States, which has moved its headquarters to Pittsburg.

Barney Voshrink is home on a visit.

Ed. Troutman will locate in Ottawa.

Ben. Hayward, of Mercer, is a candidate for State Treasurer.

Dr. Cowden has moved to Portersville.

Pianos, Upright Pianos, Metallophones, Organs, Accordions, Concertinas, Musical Boxes, Mouth Organs of all kinds at J. F. T. STEELE'S.

Don't forget us on Hosiery and Gloves, we always have the best at lowest prices.

New Broadcloths, Bedford Cords, Henriettes and Fine Dress Goods at L. STEIN & SON'S.

Boarding House Cards, with Act of Assembly, 25 cents for half-a-dozen, for sale at CITIZEN'S office.

Everybody reads the Pittsburgh Dispatch for the reason that it contains more news, both general, local and telegraphic, has more contributions and more special correspondence than any other newspaper between New York and Chicago.

Money to loan-Inquire of F. S. Purviance, Huzelton block, cor. Main and Diamond, Butler Pa.

Evans City Normal School.

The Spring Term will commence Tuesday, April 18, and continue two weeks. Every effort will be made to realize the best possible results. For particulars examine next week's issue.

J. C. TRISMAN, Prin.

Call and examine our stock of Table Linens, Napkins and Towels, before buying elsewhere.

The People's Store.

Best place to buy Table Linens, Napkins and Towels at L. STEIN & SON'S.

Best styles in Dress Goods and Cloaks at L. STEIN & SON'S.

Zuver's Pictures have nothing wanting in finish, tone or correct likeness.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Kennerville was visited by a disaster, fire last Sunday morning, ten buildings were burned, and a loss of $35,000 was sustained.

The postoffice at Irwin, Westmoreland county was started early Sunday morning. The safe was blown open and $1500 in money, ten registered letters and $625 worth of stamps were taken.

A sixteen year old miss in Indiana gave birth to an illegitimate child a few days ago, and that not less than fifteen of the young men of the town are on the anxious seat.

O'Brien, the bunco steerer, who was concerned in the robbery of Thos. Montgomery, of Armstrong county, has turned up in Remos Arroy, South America, where he is said to be luxuriating on his ill-gotten gains. He was identified by parties visiting there.

Many ladies of Beaver, Bridgewater, Rochester, Beaver Falls and other places in that neighborhood have been swindled lately by a clever-sounding young man, who by representing himself as the representative of a large company called the Art Dyeing Co. of Montreal, Canada, has disposed of many thousands of little, almost worthless, wire hooks at the rate of four cents apiece.

Seven residences and the Union Hotel were entered by burglars at Freport late last night. The burglar was seen in the residence of Michael Kerr, who was an overcoat belonging to a visitor was taken. They tapped the till at Praser's meat shop, and then took of a prepared supper at Dolph Patterson's. Next was David Toomy's, where they stole his trousers and hat, took $2 out of the pockets, and robbed the children's bank of $4; then they entered the house of Miss Mary Riggs, who was sleeping in the room, but they made their escape. Jeff Hill's residence and that of Peter Grogan were cleared and the night's work closed at the Union Hotel near by.

It has often been remarked that a man never realizes what a donkey and monkey he can become when in the country, until he hears his letters read out in court, by the plaintiff's lawyer in a breach of promise case. This was the case of a young man of Parkersburg, W. Va., had a taste of this experience a few days ago. More than 200 letters were read out in court, and after a six days' trial the jury rendered a verdict of $1,500 in favor of Miss Rosetta.

Mrs. Catherine Gass, of Sharpburg, was fined $100 for selling liquor without a license in Lawrence Co., and held three days to May 1st.

John Miles of Shenango twp., Lawrence Co., was fined $100 for selling liquor without a license in Lawrence Co., and held three days to May 1st.

Mayor Brown, of New Castle, is out with a letter in the press of Lawrence county, in which he is charged with selling liquor without a license in Lawrence Co., and held three days to May 1st.

Beaver Falls was all agog last week over the case of a young man, who had led leading citizens and officials on account of their refusal to pay the costs imposed by the court in a case against him. The young man was arrested last Saturday. It will be remembered that some time ago she was arrested for the same reason, and she was held in the same place. She and two other women were locked up in default of bail. The case was tried on Monday, and the witnesses were subpoenaed. It was the talk of the town, and a great many citizens were present. The case was a very interesting one, and it required an immediate and extended visit. Something had to be done to get the young man out of the place, and he was released on his own recognizance, and he was allowed to go home. It is alleged that a city official and a prominent citizen visited the woman at the county jail the Friday previous to the day set for the trial, and induced them to have the young man released. The succeeding Monday the women paid guilty and having been released, the head of a number of prominent families, who were of Pittsburgh, Pa., and the head of that place, preached two sensational sermons at the church, and the young man was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a year on account of his conduct. The young man had a broader smile than usual on his face since Thursday last. It is a girl.

Herman Fagan, of Mercer street, was made happy last Saturday, by the arrival of a son.

W. H. Gosholing, Paul Conover and his sister Emma left Monday for a tour of California. Mr. Gosholing intends leaving there, and the Conovers expect to be gone about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Aye, of Kittanning, are the guests of G. R. Smith.

Miss Anna Lowman, is now in the art department of Boggs & Buhl's store in Allegheny.

Mrs. Jennie E. Zimmerman has returned from a business trip to New York.

Sid. Wiehl, of Zellenople, put in an appearance on our streets, Wednesday. He has been on the sick list for the past two years, but is now looking better and feeling better.

Miss Christine S. Bredin, daughter of Dr. Bredin of Franklin, formerly of Butler, will have a painting in the art salon of the World's Fair, and the painting presented, but $5 were accepted.

Frank Sandbach, of Butler, is a member of the Executive Board of the skilled Philadelphia Workmen in the United States, which has moved its headquarters to Pittsburg.

Barney Voshrink is home on a visit.

Ed. Troutman will locate in Ottawa.

Ben. Hayward, of Mercer, is a candidate for State Treasurer.

Dr. Cowden has moved to Portersville.