

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1933.

There is a population of about 100,000 in the County seat of Butler County, with 100,000 in the city of Butler.

By special arrangements made for our subscribers who pay arrears, (if any) one year in advance, and to new subscribers paying in advance, the New York Tribune free for one year.

New Advertisements. We have many arrangements by which we can furnish the N. Y. Tribune and the Ohio farmer, the leading Political and Agricultural journal of this country, and the Critic all for one year, postage paid, for every $2.40. This is a bargain that only farmer in the county should miss.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Three Papers at a Bargain. We have many arrangements by which we can furnish the N. Y. Tribune and the Ohio farmer, the leading Political and Agricultural journal of this country, and the Critic all for one year, postage paid, for every $2.40.

—Usualy on hand—Goes. —In everybody's mouth—Teeth. —Does without saying—the deaf and dumb alphabet.

—It isn't the man who pays cash that gets his goods on time, it is the man who doesn't.

—A Chinaman glories in the name of "White."

—J. M. White has been appointed post master at Brans City.

—Time to get your eye on that Thanksgiving turkey.

—It costs more now to buy a good dog than it does a horse.

—It is a consolation when another man is in trouble that it will prove a valuable lesson to him.

—A woman always hopes for the best. Especially is this so when it is a seakink acquaintance she is looking for.

—Mr. G. G. More is taking orders for a very complete "History of the World's Fair" at a reasonable price.

—The Soldiers' Monument Association will meet in the office of Kelson & Greer at 1 p. m. of Thursday, Dec. 7.

—Jacob Burkhalter bought the undertaking establishment of E. E. and M. M. and will have his office with Ben. Keck.

—The Galway coal bank near Allen's mill, a mile east of Watstown, is now being operated by Fruty & Son.

—Fifty years ago there was some excuse for bad roads, for our country was poor. Now it is rich there is no excuse.

—Never sign over what might have been made the most of what is. This bit of philosophy is valuable to the married man.

—There is no business so good but that it can be made better by advertising. The Critic is open to a trial order from the new advertiser.

—The man who gets out at what the newspaper says about him, should return thanks three times a day for what they do not say about him.

—A million dollars in gold weighs thirty-six hundred and eighty five pounds, twelve ounces. Weigh your million and see if you have been cheated.

—The grand lodge officers of the B. P. O. E. met in Butler, Tuesday, and were banqueted that night by the lodge here. The occasion was a most enjoyable one.

—The very unusual spectacle of a juror on his knees in prayer was witnessed in the library of the court house where Judge Ometed was holding court. When a jury was called into the room one of them knelt down and his lips moved in prayer.

—Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. Church in Butler, next Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m. Rev. Snyder will preach the sermon; and the collection will be for the benefit of the poor of Butler.

—Merchants who wish to do a good holiday trade should not delay advertising until the day or so before the holidays. Purchasers do not postpone buying until the last minute. Dealers will find it to their advantage to commence advertising at once. And, incidently, it will also be to the interest of the newspaper publisher.

—Butler people wishing to use the P. & W. Road between Butler and Brans City should remember that the 3 o'clock train from Pittsburgh, to which a car for Butler is attached, now leaves the B. & O. depot on Smithfield St., opposite the Monongahela House, instead of the depot in Allegheny City.

—A new way of making money has been developed, some parties have secured a large number of monkeys which they place in cages, and rent to storekeepers for show-window exhibition. The three cut, little fellows in Shant & Naat's show-window have attracted considerable attention during the last week.

—At the K. of L. convention in Philadelphia, Thursday, the grand lodge was charged with using the organization to make money for itself, and with raising $25,000, on Monday Sec'y. Treas. Hayes, for some reason, withdrew the charges, but on Tuesday the Finance Committee ordered the grand lodge to charge. On Wednesday all the general officers of the K. of L. were declared vacant, and then Powderly was re-elected Grand-Master by a majority of seven.

—Chrysanthems of any variety may be propagated at this season indoors from slips, and the blossoms that flourish sell often have a stalk long enough to furnish three or four cuttings. These cuttings have an astonishing vitality, and if planted in a pot of earth that is kept constantly moist they will, in a large percentage of cases, take root and prosper without losing the appearance of freshness. Therefore, —The National Plant Glass Association, of which H. E. Wheeler of the plate glass works here was the actary, met at Pittsburgh last Thursday and adjourned to meet no more. The dissolution of the combination releases individual firms, declares an open market, and marks the first step toward a cutting in the rates. At the close of the meeting Mr. Wheeler gave the appointed statements. The Plant Glass Association met in Pittsburgh to-day and held its last meeting. The association was formed for one year, and the time for which it was formed has expired, owing to the financial situation of the country and the light demand for plate glass and other specialties, the manufacturers decided not to continue the association longer. Therefore, its headquarters in Pittsburgh will be closed on and after this day.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES

R. A. Wintermiller, a well known attorney from Erie, has applied for divorce from his wife on the grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment.

At the funeral of "Mabel Higgie in Allegheny, last Thursday, Lizzie McDermid, her playmate said "I will meet Mabel in Heaven to night." Then she went to a drug store and bought a box of excelsior and drank it, and was dead in forty minutes.
